THE AMERICAN CONFLICT,
BY HOLACE GREELEY.

This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete and authentic history of the Great Civil War. Its popularity is sufficiently indicated by the fact that the weekly sales of Vol. 1. are greater than those of all similar histories united.

Vol. II. will be completed at the earliest day consistent with thoroughness and accuracy. The author having availed himself of the full Official Reports of the Confederate, as well as the Union authorities, will present both sides of the great stringgle with equal fairness. This volume will abundantly sustain the high reputation of Vol. I.
From the Albany Evening Journal.

No man in America is more conversant with the subject than Mr. Greeley, and none more competent to do it justice.

The extra string and the subject than Mr. Greeley, and none more competent freedom from partisan leaning that some of his best friends did not expect.

A GENTS WANTED FOR

"THE SECRET SERVICE,
THE TIELD,
THE DUNGEON, AND THE ESCAPE."

By A. D. Richardson, New York Tribune Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling through the South in the storet service of the Tribune, at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thiffling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his seezepe, and almost miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four hundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work published.

Horace Greeley says.

"A greatmany books will yet be written concerning this war, one of them will give widdin a similar complete the surface of them will give widdin a similar complete from personal observation, of the nature, intereding narrative of fir. Richardson,"

Teachers, ladles, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it pecularly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $175 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant.
