"This is one of that class of novels to which the reader turns with delight after reading some of the trash that is put forth b, the press. It abounds in soul-elevating thoughts, and no person can read it without being made wiser and better thereby. It is full of simple and naive wisdom, shrewd delineation of character in great variety, and has a sooten commy-ness and piquancy that rivet the attention even amidet simple incidents. We like it much, and cordially commend it to our readers."—Norwich Evening Courter.

The twenty-fourth semi-annual term of this Institution will commence on Second-day, the 5th of 11th Month next. The course of instruction is extensive and thorough, embracing, in addition to the common English course, the Latin and French Languages, Drawing. Telegraphing. &c. THE DUNGEON, AND THE ESCAPE.

By A. D. Richardson, New York Tribune Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling through the South in the scoret service of the Tribune, at the outbreak of the war, with our armiles and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his ecape, and almost miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four hundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work published.

Horace Greecey says.

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but no energy fuller, more readable account, enimal purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the Slavcholders' Rebellion than does the impretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

"Ceachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agent clearing first per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant.
