THE DUNGEON, AND THE ESCAPE."
By A. D. Richardson, New York Tribuns Correspondent.
The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling through the South in the scoret service of the Tribune, at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four hundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work published.

Horace Greeley says:
"A great many bacdition to the many already in print is war to me of them will give within a similar compass a cleaver, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the pature, compass a cleaver, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the pature compass a cleaver, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the pature compass, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the Slavcholders' Rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energeticyoung men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it pecularly adapted to their condition. We have agent doubting applicant.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE OF

REAL ESTATE IN NORTH COVERTRY TOWNSHIP, CHESTER COUNTY, PA. Pursuant to an order of the Cryhane' Court of Chester county, will be sold at public sale, on the premises, on THURSDAY, October 12, 1885, a VALUARLE FARM, containing 72 acres and 157 perches, more or less, stanated in North Coventry Township, Chester county, Pa., late the property of Jesse S.
Harley, deceased. This farm is hundsomely situated along the Schuylkill road, one mile sontheast of Potistown, adjoining lands of John Hunter Evans, deceased. This farm is hundsomely situated along the Schuylkill road, one mile sontheast of Potistown, adjoining lands of John Hunter Evans, deceased: David W. Jones, and others.
The land is naturally good, well watered, and in a high state of cultivation. The improvements are—a good three-story stone Mansion House, with wash-house attached, containing often, firmaces, and fountain; a spring-house over a good spring near the mansion; a good stone barn, 35 by 55 feet; wagon-house, grain-house, carriage-house, and all other out-buildings. There is also a Tenant House. This property possesses great advantages, being within one mile of Pottstown, where there is a ready marker for grain, hay, and all kinds of produce, it is suitable for a milk or butter dairy. The canal passing through this property, and having filanding on it, affords great convenience for getting line, coal, or lumber. A considerable portion of the farm is Schuylkill Bottom Land, not limble to overflow. There is also a good variety of fruit; is convenient to milks, schools, and places of public worship.
No. 2 is alot or tract of land containing the main farm. The land is of good quality and in a high state of cultivation, and has a uever-fulling spring on it. It would be a sultable lot for building. This TABLE LINENS, NNET OPENING LIFE OF JOHN BRAINERD, DAMASK NAPKINS, Which, for extent, variety, and general adapt on to the wants of the trade, is unrivalled. CREGORY & MUMFORD'S EDNESDAY, October 4. NATIONAL BUSINESS COLLEGE.
