PHILADELPHIA, October 3, 1865. To our Friends and Telegraph Operators in the State: The State Committees of both parties, are desirous to have early and correct returns of the election. As the Chairmen of both organizations, we suggest that in reporting the votes, the comparison of losses and gains be made in every case with the Auditor General's vote of 1862.

JOHN CESSNA. Chairman of Union State Committee. WM. A. WALLACE, Chairman of Democratic State Committee

reading the epistles of that faithful apostle and historian of the Democratic church, Petroleum V. Nasby. The great mission of the Democracy, according to Petroleum, is to put down the negroes. The baleful principles of the colored race and the danger to the white laboring man of being thrown out of employment in its own vicinage. Those Northern parby the vast inroad of the freedmen. are so grievous that he invariably calls a Democratic indignation meeting whenever a new negro is added to the population of his native village, at which the "retrograde" philosophy that the world everybody is read out of the party who can be turned backward, should find in does not swear eternal hostility to the sable invader. But the ardor of Mr. Fox is more a refutation of all their hopes of depriving sudden, and, therefore, more violent. He | mankind of a great good achieved, and of only discovered that the country is impe- blotting out from the page of our national rilled by the negro when he became a can- history that glorious act, which, by libe didate for Mayor; but he compensates for rating the blacks, also enfranchised their his very late enlightenment by the intensity of his angry solicitude. He is now making a canvass for Mayor on the single idea that some six hundred and fifty thou sand whites in the city of Philadelphia are in danger of being oppressed or ab sorbed or degraded by about twenty-five thousand negroes! In response to the letter of a committee asking him, in the event of his election, "to use his influence in favor of colored persons riding in our passenger railway cars," Mr. Fox tries to reach the grapes, so ripe to-day, and yet sure to be sour on Wednesday. We copy from the Sunday papers this his answer:

from the Sunday papers this his answer:

"To this interrogatory! will reply with pleasure, having no concealments on any public questions, in relation to which any portion of my fellow-citizens in any way feel interested.

"To the colored race I have always been a friend, protecting them, as far as in me lay, in all their just rights and privileges; but I am opposed to all social and political equality with them. Every measure, therefore, that would tend to put them on a social or political equality with the white race, will always find in me a steadfast, determined opponent.

"The races must be kept separate and distinct. The present condition of Mexico and the South American Republics, in which amaligamation or misecgenation has been the practice from the early settlement of those countries, conveys to us lessons of the most salutary character; and if we disregard them, repudiating the habits and customs of our own forefathers, and adopting those of the people of Mexico and South America in their stead, we shall rapidly degenerate as a race, become incapable of self-government, and a prey to tyrants and usurpers. The so-called philauthropy which would lead to such results is, in my opinion, a false and most destructive one.

"Riding in the same cars, when others specially designed for themselves would be appropriated by the railway companies, is the first step in the new course. Other measures tending to put the colored race more and more on a social equality with ourselves would follow, to be succeeded by demands for political equality, including the right to vote and to hold office. To all these measures I am strongly opposed, and will resist introduction into our social and political especially despensed in public or private life."

Petroleum V. Nasby could not surpass Petroleum V. Nasby could not surpass the Democratic candidate for Mayor. He is "the steadfast, determined opponent of colored persons riding in the cars," because that "is the first step in the new course"a sentence not less opaque than the idea itself. Pray, Mr. Fox, do not "colored persons" ride on the leading railroads, North and South, and has not this been the practice ever since the beginning of steam locomotion? All that continuous custom having utterly failed to put them "on a social or political equality with ourselves," do you really think there would be much danger of such a catastrophe if the same privilege were extended by our city railroads? Of course you do not; but like a good follower of Petroleum and a very sincere seeker for office, you are quite willing to make a great judy of yourself by saying you do, even if, in saying so, every sensible Democrat laughs at you. But, thorough a party hack as you are, Mr. Fox, you should also recollect that you have some character of your own to save, and not willingly assert opinions that you know are absurd, impossible and unmanly. If you spoke out your honest thoughts you would say that you are opposed to allowing "colored persons" to ride in the cars because it is not Democratic, because your party has solemnly decreed their doom, and because it is necessary to increase an ignorant prejudice against them in order to make the Democracy victorious.

Probably no better specimen of mere partisanship, unrelieved by a spark of humanity or reason, could be found than that contained in this letter. The writer does not seem to know of the thousands of colored men who fought for the old flag-of the kindness of the freed men to our poor prisoners and fugitivesnor of the efforts of the late slaveholders themselves to enlighten their minds and improve their condition. But this is characteristic of the candidate and the party How can we expect them to do justice to the poor, deserted and hated colored man and much less remember his courage is the war for our liberties, when they were deaf to the calls of a bleeding Republic and for four years indifferent to the valor and the services of their own white countrymen? Verily, not for such as these has the poet sung:

"Four hundred thousand men,
The brave—the good—the true,
In tangled wood, in mountain glen,
On battle plain, in prison pen,
Lie dead for me and you!
Four hundred thousand of the brave Have made our ransomed soil their grave, For me and you! Good friends, for me and you! " A debt we ne'er can pay

To them is justly due,
And to the nation's latest day
Our children's children still shall say,
'They died for me and you!'
Four hundred thousand of the brave
Made this; our ransomed soil, their grave,
For me and you!
Good friends, for me and you!"

MR. I. NEWTON BROWN.

An advertisement strongly in favor of the election of Mr. I. NEWTON BROWN, the Democratic candidate for District Attorney, was inadvertently published among the paid matter of THE PRESS of Friday last. The dullest newspaper reader must have understood that the article in question was directly in opposition to our own preferences. But The Age of Saturday quotes from it to show that this strong recommendation of Mr. Brown appears in the editorial columns of THE PRESS, and, therefore, that we favor his election! We have never been constrained to expose a more unprovoked and deliberate act of an occurrence, we printed an edition as large newspaper injustice. Exactly how far but even with such a supply we failed to keep Mr. Brown himself may be responsible for this inexcusable conduct of the organ of his party we cannot surmise; but the fact that he also prints in other papers the same advertisement, filled with praises of himself, doubtless prepared and paid for by himself, and credits it to THE PRESS, almost self, and credits it to The Press, almost Night," and the unparalieled suddenness with proves that he was a party to the atrocity which it has become a favorite with the peoin The Age. Mr. Brown is spoken of ple, are convincing arguments that as an adas a "straight-forward" and "honorable" vertising medium, "Saturday Night" is already invaluable. News agents and periodiyoung man, and as eminently qualified for the important office of District Attorney. The manner in which he conducts his business exposes a sad lack alike of honor and of fair dealing, and strongly confirms the severe criticisms that have been provoked by his nomination. Colonel WM. B. MANN, the Union candidate for the same office, with all his strong party feelings would scorn the subterfuge of getting himself puffed in the advertising columns of a paper

HEAR A RECENT REBEL Those Northern politicians who are s blinded to the progress of events, and so bound by ancient prejudice, that they cannot or will not recognize either the justice or necessity of the fundamental changes being effected, not only in the opinions of all reasonable men, but which are finding expression in the law of the land, might learn a useful lesson from the attitude assumed by The Mississippi Clarion, which was for many years the special organ of TEFFERSON DAVIS. The Clarion of Sentember 3d says. "In the State of Mississippi they (the negroes) are no longer slaves, nor yet freemen-but freedmen-entitled to protection in person and property; entitled to 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. * * *

Would it be reasonable to expect that the dominant power of this country, which has seen fit to liberate these people, should, ME, FOX AND THE "COLORED PERSONS." in the infancy of their liberty, desert them, The Democratic candidate for Mayor of and turn them over again to the tender Philadelphia, Mr. Fox, has evidently been | mercies of those who seem so slow to comprehend the change of relations existing between them ?" So wholesome and so just an acceptance of the result of the great struggle just closed, and from such a source, should have as great weight with us, as it possesses great value as a token of the popular feeling tisans who are striving to embitter the prejudice existing in some classes against the negro, and who, either through ignorance or obstinacy, still maintain their belief in these words a conviction of their error, and masters from a bondage of sloth, vice, and ignorance.

To the Citizens of Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3, 1865. It being evident that numerous desperate nen of a lawless character are in our commu nity, ready to enact deeds of violence against the persons and property of our citizens, it is eminently necessary that the constituted a thorities should be strengthened in their efforts to preserve the safety and peace of thos citizens. The office of District Attorney should b filled by a gentleman of knowledge, experience and energy, who will prosecute the violators of the law with ability, and a stern determination to bring them to justice. We, therefore, heartily recommend our fel-low-citizens to aid in the re-election of Wm. B. Mann, Esq., to this office, as a measure of the greatest importance to the welfare of our minor considerations-now is the time to ele vate the "moral standard" of our Representa-The vote, judging from past experience, will probably be about 16,000. With three candidates, the successful one must poll about 5,500 Mr. Ridgway's friends claim to have Dem cratic votes enough to reduce their vote to under 5,000. The contest is, therefore, between Mr. Bonsall and Mr. Ridgway. The decision is without you. The Senate now stands 19 Republicans to 14 Democrats. The majority now on joint ballot is large. The United States Senator will not be elected until one year from next winter, and will depend upon the legislative elections next fall. The outery in reference thereto, is simply a trick to prevent citizens from expressing their honest opinions on the merits of the candidates. The absolute necessity for Reform demands of each voter his independent action at the polls where alone Reform can be obtained With these facts before us, can any citizen who desires good government hesitate as to his duty? By voting for Mr. Bonsall and electing him, the managers of primary elections in the future, will hesitate long before they will force upon the party a candidate so entirely unqualified and objectionable as Mr. Ridgway.

REPUBLICANS OF SECOND DISTRICT—AS Mr. RIDGWAY'S friends assert that Mr. BONSALL will draw off enough votes to defeat Mr. RIDGWAY, and as Mr. BONSALL will not withdraw from the canvass; and as Mr. BONSALL is pledged to vote as a Republican, why not drop Mr. RIDGWAY, and by the whole party voting for Mr. BONSALL leeth im by a large majority—there are objections offered to Mr. RIDGWAY, none to Mr. BONSALL—and thus keep our District Republican? What have we to do with such strict party discipline that, we must lose our District by adhering to "Regular" or "Ring" nominations, whether right or wrong?

ably discharged efficers and privates of the Union armics, unite with their fellow-citizens in recommending the Hon. JACOB E. RIDGWAY to the support of the electors of the Second District, for State Scanstor. In doing so, they desire to express their grateful appreciation of his patriotic services in sustaining the Government at home while they and their gallant companions were following the flag and serving their country in the field. Residing in the district, and having particle pated in his nomination they do not healtate to express their undivided confidence in his honesty, integrity, and ability as a legislator, and his incomparable fitness in contrast with all opposition to him. Believing that their duty is not yet discharged, they will do all that in their power lies to secure Mr. RIDGWAY'S election, and warn their fellow-citizens against the machinations of Seceders and Copporheads, by which they expect to secure the election of a Southern sympathizer to the State Senate cution of a Southern sympathizer to the State Senate in the place of a thorough-going, carnest, and devoted supporter of the Union and the laws.
