DANING ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.

William Curtin was brought up on the charge of issault and battery and attempted robbery. It seems that on Sunday evening he went into the confectionery store of Mrs. Flynn, on Arch. street above Second, and selzed her by the throat. A brother of Mrs. F. was in the store at the time, and he was struck a violent blow over the eye. Curtin, it is alleged then attemped to rob the money drawer. An alarm was raised, and he was arrested. The Press. THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC. AUCTION SALES. PROPOSALS. AUCTION SALES. chair, because it was an arotarry decision and was made without any reason being assigned therefor.

Mr. Shippen took the floor, and said that the reason he had decided the majority report out of order was because the appointment of these teachers was illegal. He had the opinion of the City Solicitor on the subject. They cannot draw salaries until they have passed the necessary examination. It is unfair to the teachers who have passed examinations.

Mr. McManus denied that Mr. Brewster had made any such decision as Mr. Shippen had alleged. Mr. Brewster's opinion, on the contrary, was directly the reverse.

Mr. McCutcheon thought that if the board were going to act upon the opinion of the City Solicitor, that opinion.egist to be in writing and placed upon the records of the board.

The decision of the chair was not sustained yeas 2, nays 19. A SSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, 1139 GHARD Street.

The vast edifice was crowded with an eager and attentive audience, a large proportion of them being of the gentle sex, who signified their approval of the object of the meeting by their presence.

A band was in attendance and discoursed patriotic airs.

The meeting was called to order at eight and placed upon the records of the board.
The decision of the chair was not sustained—
yeas 2, nays 19.
The minority report was laid onthe table—
yeas 18, nays 8.
Dr. Vaughn stated that he had presented the minority report, because the matter affected the whole city. The directors of the Seventeenth section appointed several young ladies as substitutes, to take the place of absent teachers in the primary schools. Misses Quinn, Lafferty and Allen were so appointed. They were not considered as teachers. They were paid by the absent teachers, and their names were never upon the schedule of teachers.
They were elected in June to fill vacancies occurring in July, and they have never appeared at any examination. The statute requiring this antic-dates July. They don't claim salary previous to that time. By law
the board cannot confirm them.

The majority report was adopted.
Mr. Haines offered a resolution instructing the board to purchase the lot on Dickerson street, near Seventh, 34 feet 4 inches in front.
Mr. Elkin moved that the schools be closed on Monday next, being the day fixed for the firemen's parade. Agreed to.

A DOUBLE CHARGE.

John Riley was charged with having committed a robbery at the Merchants' Hotel. The room of Mr. Tolbert Rodgers was entered about three o'clock yesterday, but as the thief was about removing a watch from the bureau be was frightened off by Mr. R. He disappeared in a room close by. Suspicion fell on Riley, who occupied one of the adjoining rooms, and a watch was set on his room from the outside. The window was raised and something was thrown out. Detectives C. H. Smith and Stevens subsequently found a gold watch upon the roof of the school-house located next to the clurch. This watch was identified by Mr. Joshua Silvester, who occupied a room on the same floor. It was taken som his bureau. Riley was committed in lefault of $3,000 ball to answer, Another charge was then preferred against him—that of stealing wo coats and $175 from the room of Mr. Gage, at he West Jersey Hotel, at Canden, on the 17th of ieptember. He was identified by Mr. Finland lugg, an employe of the hotel, as having taken oddings there that night, and left very early the ext morning, taking with him a bundle, which he id not have on the previous night. On this charge e was committed to await a requisition from the uthorities of New Jersey. Thomas Gordon was arraigned last evening upon the charge of having committed a robbery at Delaware City. On the night of the 2d inst., the store of John T. Cheairs was broken intojand goods of various kinds, to the value of $400 were stolen. Suspicion fell on some men who were on board the schooner Annie B., which left Delaware City the next morning for Philadelphia. Information was sent to the city, a search warrant was obtained, and was pisced in the hands of Lieutenant Edgar, of the inrbor police. On Saturday the schooner was boarded by harbor officers Grimes and Fellius, and a lot of the stolen property was found; also some articles which had been taken from a restaurant adjoining the store of Mr. Cheairs, and various implements which are generally used by burglars. Two men were on the schooler, and they were taken into custody. One subsequently escaped from the station house. The other was Gordon. He was committed to await a requisition from the authorities of Delaware. ROBBERY AT DELAWARE CITY. No. 609 Chestnut Street, above Sixth. me nigness, and on earth peace and good will to men.

Resolved. That the State and city licket presented by the National Republican party is entitled to our undivided support, and that we are determined to adhere to the menand measures of that party which, in the hour of the country's greatest danger, proved yrue to the cause for which we fought, and for which namy of our comrades perished on the field of battle, in dragged out a lingering death in the prisons of the South Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas then were as a second of the south Monas the second of the ON HAND AND CONSTANTLY MAKING UP the University, and the body of the hall was well filled by medical students and members of the profession.

The exercises were opened with an impressive prayer, by Rev. C. W. Schaffer.

Then followed the address of Dr. Carson. He said he haddraced the doings of the Medical Department of the University through the period of nearly half a century, embraced by the services of the last survivor of the faculty which held its commission in 1707.

A history of the school would take up more time than would be compatible with the present limits. It would embrace the sketch of the rise and progress of natural history in the United States, and the devotion to it of his lifetime by Dr. Bryan Smith Barton. It would proclaim the doings of Dorsey, smitten at the opening of a career from which so much was anticipated.

It would require expatiating upon the lengthened connection with the profession of Chapman to enter into an exposition of his doctrines of sympathy, now so beautifully developed by recent experiments. Western and Horner would come in for a large share of notice for their patient labors in the erection of that extended collection of anatomical preparations, in which were spent many days and nights of persevering toil.

The speaker concluded his remarks by claiming the University to be the source from which have sprung many institutions and teachers. A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING AND GOODS Proposals for five (5) barrels and upwards of this lot will be received.

The artist poet, T. Buchanan Read, then recited with killing effect, and amid profound silence, broken only by the thunders of applause, the magnificent poem, written by him, entitled "Sheridan's Ride."

The orator of the evening, Major General Judson Kilpatrick, was then introduced, and was received with loud applause. He said:

Fellow-citizens: You have just heard the grand old tune, "Hail Columbia." That is what we are going to give the Copperheads tomorrow. [Applause.] Personally, I am known to but few of you, but to my fellow-soldiers here, I am certainly not a stranger. We made each other's acquaintance where death came thick and fast, on that wild night when the list Pennsylvania Cavalry, and my own regiment, the Harris Light, rode over the barricades at Falmouth and made Bayard a general. [Applause.] On the plains of Brandy Station, at South Mountain, Antietam and Gettysburg, where your own Meade sent Lee howling back from Pennsylvania [applause]. We made each other's acquaintance in the army of General Sherman, among the hills of Resaca and at the base of the far-famed Keneasw, amid the burning ruins of Atlanta and on the march to the sea. [Cheers.] We fought under the same old flag and for the same glorious cause. You have proved to the world that the blood spilt and the treasure expended were not in vain.] Now you have another foe to fight, not less andacious and dangerous, and the interests involved are great and important. Where would we have been had the Copperhead party triumphed in the last election? There would have been a convention, and then a separation, and then anarchy and confusion, until we would have been as contemptible that the smallest foreign power could have insulted us with impunity. The case of R. M. Lee, charged with forging a claim on the United States, was resumed. The United States called additional witnesses.

Witnesses testified to seeing papers made out at Lee's office for enlisting men, and mustering them in, and to receiving 8100 after being mustered, but performed no service in the army. A committee from Chester county testified to having paid Lee 100,350 for eighteen men. They of course got credit for these men.

The committee testified that their agreement was made with Lee alone they not knowing Patton in the case. The evidence is very volumnous and loes not differ materially from that published at the former trial and at the hearing on habeas corpus, except that of a witness who testified that Lee asked him if he wanted to go through (which DR. When removing the Whisky purchasers will provide their own transportation, and the Government will load the vessels free of wharfage, dockage, or labor.
Bidders are invited to be present at the opening CUR MEDICAL COLLEGES.—During the present week the various medical colleges of Philadelphia will be regularly opened for the winter session of 1855 and 1865. For many years our city has maintained her reputation as the seat of medical learning of the United States, and although hundreds of aspirants for distinction in that particular branch are here, andecided as to the school in which they will matriculate, a sufficient number have already entered their names upon the rolls to lead those more especially interested to believe that the classes at the different institutions will be larger than during any previous winter since the commencement of the war. Although the suppression of the rebellion has permitted many members of the medical profession, both North and South, to return to their homes and prosecute their responsible duties, there is still much room in every portion of our vast and rapidly-increasing country for physicians and surgeons, and with the return of peace hundreds and thousands of young men will hasten to the medical colleges of Philadelphia with a view of fitting themselves for graduation and becoming honorable and learned disciples of Esculapius, Maine and Texas, Florida and Oregon, will this winter forget all past differences and amicably strive within the walls of the University of the Jefferson and other schools for superiority in the profession of medicine. The case was concluded on the part of the Government, and Mr. Brooke opened for the defence, saying that the only evidence adduced was that of two men, who, by their own confessions on the witness stand, were guilty of the crime charged against his client. In order to clear their skirts they had attempted to draw Colonel Lee into prison, but the evidence will show his innocence.

Witnesses were called to show that they, as substitute brokers, always dealt with Patton, and that one of the principal witness was unworthy of belief; also, that the writing in the papers did not resemble Colonel Lee's in any particular. Not concluded. Diseases. Electrical investigation has proved that the human body acts on the principal of the galvanic battery. The speaker then went into a lengthy argument, justifying his withdrawal from the ranks of the present Democratic party. His principles had never changed, and he found them in the pational Republican party. The iniquities of the Democratic party were then touched upon at length. It was they who, when the Southern members withdrew from the halls of Congress bid them God.speed in their mission of treason, and afterwards when the President called for men and means to carry on the war, declared that it was unconstitutional to coerce a State. They revited the men who were doing all they could to save the country. No word of help or encouragement for the Union cause came from them. Yet there were some true men who could break loose from party. One such was Stephen A. Douglas, who, liam proud to say, was personally and politically my friend. [Applause.] I heard him say in Washington, when word was brought that the traitors had fired upon the Star of the West, "Although heretofore I have been willing to sustain the South in their slave property, now that they have broken the laws—I am willing to give them so many slaves, and so much slave property, as they can held at the point of the Bayonet, and no more." [Great applause.] That was true Democratic doctrine. James Buchanan could not find anything in the Con-Eastern Penitentiary for seven years,

AMERICAN UNION COMMISSION.—This institution was established some time since by a number of reverend gentlemen and other patriotic citizens in the city of New York. The object of the Union is to afford material relief to the people of the South, whose houses have been made desolate by the recent rebellion. Already the organization has brances established in quite a number of the States. An appeal has been issued from the Bible House in New York city, setting forth in an elaborate manner a very graphic picture of the distress that prevails among the people of the South, this condition of things being the whirlwind, as the harvest resulting from sowing the wind. A meeting is to be held this evening to further the object of the organization, but where has not been officially stated. Morgan, Orr. & Co. vs. Samuel B. Henry. Ovaries, Painful, Suppressed, Scanty, or Profuse Menstruation, Leucorricea.
TO LADIES we can recomend this treatment as one of UNVARIED SUCCESS. Almost innumerable cases have come under treatment at our office who can testify to this fact. Mrs. BECKWITH has entire charge of the Ladies' Department, and all delicacy will be used towards those who entrust themselves to her care. In female diseases as mentioned in the above list, with others not mentioned, she has had a large experience, and can confidently promise the most gratifying results.

TO THE AFFILOTED.—The treatment is mild and genile, producing np shock or unpleasant sensation whatever. Our professional intercourse with the affilieted will ever be characterized by perfect candor and honesty, and those whose complaints
are incurable, or do not admit of amelioration, will be frankly told 80 and not accepted for treatment. It matters not what may be your complaint, or low long you may have suffered, or how much,
or what course of treatment you may have been subjected to, or what disappointments you may have experienced, if the system is not worn out—if sufficient vitality remains for reaction—there is a fair prospect of recovery.

Major and C. S., U. S. A. AUCTION SALE OF HOSPITAL BASE BALL .- A match game of base ball FOURTEENTH WARD. and the Union Volunteer Refreshment saloons.

With a few words to the ladies, the speaker retired.

Governor Curtin was the next speaker, and spoke for some time on the importance of securing loyal men to bear the standard of the Republic, and to direct the councils of the State. It would not do to entrust the country, or even the State, to the control of the men who opposed the war measures of the country, and spared no pains to denounce the administration and its acts calculated to suppress the rebellion. The war was inevitable, and Pennsylvania did her share in it, by furnishing 32,000 soldiers to the armles of the United States, which raised to freedom and elvilization four millions of souls.

The Republican party will be true to the soldiers and the soldiers will be true to the soldiers and the soldiers will be true to the soldiers and the soldiers will be true to the soldiers the declaration of indistings forth from this old Commonwealth; New York will follow, and we can have hopes for the State whence the gallant Klipatrick comes.

The Governor continued a short time longer, and then retired amid the cheers of the sudience, which then dispersed. FORTEENTH WARD.

The Committee on Grammar, Secondary and Primary schools presented a majority and a minority report confirming the appointment of certain teachers.
The minority report is from Geo. W. Vaughan, and sets out that the election of Maggie Allen, as third assistant teacher in Primary School No. 4; Raste Laflerty, as third assistant in Primary School No. 6, and Mary Quinn, as third assistant in Primary School No. 6, and Mary Quinn, as third assistant in Primary School No. 5, by the Board of Directors of the Public Schools of the Seventeenth section, on June 30, 1855, he not confirmed, they not having the certificates of qualification required by the law of Fobruary 17, 1865. A Nursance - In Chestnut street, above A NUISANCE.—In Chestnut street, above Sixth, there are two underground concert saloons, and at about half past six the bands of these concerns station themselves upon the fireet, and each endeavor to make the loudest noise, without any attention whatever to the airs which they may be attempting to perform. As each of these bands have a big adrum and a big horn, it is easily to imagine the unearthly noise which greets the ears of those who may chance to be in its vicinity; and this is not the only fault—a crowd of idlers collect around the saloons, completely blocking up the way, and forcing many to cross to the other side, or elbow and push their way through. Cannot something be done to put an end to this nuisance? GUNS, PISTOLS, RIFLES, AND GUN-ning Tackles of all descriptions, for sale by PHILIP WILSON & CO., #09 CHESTNUT Street. PHILIP WILSON & CO.,
