A GENTS WANTED FOR

"THE SECRET SERVICE,
THE PILLD,
THE PIDNGEON, AND THE ESCAPE."

By A. D. Richardson, New York Tribuna Correspondent,
The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling through the South in the score service of the Tribuna, at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his common for twenty montis in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four hundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, inoldent, and romance of the war than any other work published.
Horace Greeley says:
"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give within a similar compass a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the Slavcholders' Rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richy alson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young filen, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing applicant.

Admitting that such instruments might be equal to our own when new, they cannot give the same satisfaction, or wear the same length of time, for the reason that the agent depends upon others to keep such pinnos as he sells in order, and will, of course, not expend any of his profits to do 60; Willist we, the mannfacturers, have our own excellent workmen, who fillly understand the business, and will promptly give their attention, and the planos be made to wear much longer.

Our establishment is one of the most extensive in this country, and when our new improvements, how in progress, are completed, it will be one of the urgest in the world. Our object is to make this branch of industry one of the great institutions of this city.
