ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENTS!

GEN. CAMERON'S OPERATIONS TO EFFECT HIS ELECTION TO THE U.S. SENATE!

Statement of T Jefferson Boyer, Member of Assembly from Clearfield County.

To the Editors of the Patriot and Union: As many rumors are affoat in regard to certain Iransactions which took place between General Cameron and myself on several occasions pro-vious to the late election of United States Senator, I think it my duty to make a plain, unvarnished statement of the facts, so that there may be hereafter no misunderstanding or misrepre-sentation. Believing that there would be attempts to bribe members in order to defeat the election and from his conduct was soon led to suspect that his business at Harrisburg was not of a very public character. In the afternoon he came to me and asked to see me privately, and we pro-condend at once to my room, where he very 800u commenced disparaging the several prominent Democratic candidates for United States Senator, and concluded by expressing his decided preferand to cluded by expressing his declared preference for clean. Simon Cameron. This, of course, left me no room to doubt the object of his visit to the state Capital and to me, and I at once asked him whether that was the object of his visit. He said it was. In reply to my question, whether General Cameron authorized him to come to me in this way, he said he was author ized by Cameron to see any Democrat of the House or Senate, and enter into the preliminary arrangements to secure a vote for Cameron. I then asked him in what manner they expected to accure the election of Cameron. He answered, accure the election of Caneron. He answered, "by getting three Democrats to absent themselves on the day of the election." I then asked him what they would pay. He said he was authorized by Cameron to offer $5,000. I told him the figures were too low, and desired him to tell me who the other members were. This he refused to do at the time, but would try and get permission of his principal to do so. He then left, and returned in a short time, and said that General Cameron wanted to see me, personally. left, and returned in a short time, and said that General Cameron wanted to see me, personally, at his residence out of the city that evening. I told him I could not make the engagement, but would answer him in one hour, and if I could get clear of another engagement I had made, I would go with him. In the meantime I consulted with Dr. Earley, of the Mouse of Representatives, my colleague, to whem I related the foregoing facts. I then saw Brobst again and told him I would go. He told me he would have a carriage ready in front of Herr's Hotel at seven o'clock; that he was authorized by Cameron to get a carriage at any time. When the time arc'elock; that he was authorized by Cameron to get a carriage at any time. When the time arrived, Dr. Earley and myself walked down to Herr's, and saw the carriage and Brobst there. I then made some excuse to Brobst, and told him it would be best not to go. (I deemed it prudent at this state of the proceedings not to manifest too much eagerness, lest I might defeat the object in view.) The next day he (Brobst) called and said Cameron wanted to see me at the State Capitel Bank I called, and was ushered into a pital Bank. I called, and was ushered into a back room of the bank, and found Cameron there alone. He addressed me as follows:—"Boyer, alone. He addressed me as follows:—"Boyer, do you think you could have courage chotch to vote for me?" I answered that it was a very business-like question, and that it would depend very much on circumstances.—He then said. "suppose the circumstances are all right!" I asked him how he meant "all right." He an awered "the financial consideration; in short, the dollars and cents." I answered him, "certainly." He then asked me what I would take. I told him I had not been in this business long, and did not know exactly how to answer, but wished him to name the sum. He asked what I thought of.$10.000. "right down, after the work sked him how he meant "all right." He an swered "the financial consideration; in short, the dollars and cents." I answered him, "certainly." He then asked me what I would take. I told him I had not been in this business long, and did not know exactly how to answer, but wished him to name the sum. He asked what I thought of.$10,000, "right down, after the work was done." I then asked him whether he wanted a vote or an absentee. He answered, "a vote," and that it would be very troublesome to get the maney paid as the first instalment, and that he felt in duty bound to take care of the person that made him Senator afterwards, and, if he had so many to take care of, it would embarrass and profitably as long as we lived; and said besides, there would be no more danger in voting directly for him than it being absent, for they would make every provision for the protection of the man that would vote for him. This ended the interview, and we agreed to meet again to fix the compensation. The next day he sent Brobst for me. I declined going to see him. but agreed to see him at my room, No. 15, I'emaylvania House. Mr. Brobst, who was still, up to this time, figuring for Simon, went after him, and in less than twenty minutes returned with him. Cameron then said, "Well, let's come to an understanding." I said, "What for?" He an swerel, "In reference to the Sonatorial question."

The Union as it was and the Constitution as it swered, "In reference to the Senatorial question I then said, "I must have $15,000." He said, "I will give it," and wanted to know who I would prefer to arrange future interviews and do the financiering of the business. I told him my limited knowledge of his friends did not enable me return on Saturday evening. This was on Wed-On Thursday I met John J. Patterson. He desired to see me, and asked me to call at his room at Herr's Hotel. When I met him, I asked him where Burns was? He told me he was sick. He then said, "Boyer, the money will be all right." asked him, "What money?" He then said, "Oh, I know all about it; I saw Cameron," (I "Oh, I know all about it; I saw Cameron," (I must not forget to state here that, prior to my meeting Patterson. Br bet told me Patterson wanted to see me on that business.) and, by Cameron's arrangement, he would go down in the cars on the Lebanon Valley road on Friday, at 2 o'clock, and that we would go together and settle the entire affair.

We considered the fact, that, if cathea, were sent off, the House would that, go into an election, and our, agreement could not be consummated. This statement seemed to determine his mind in fayor of the arrangement. Patterson went immediately to of Pennsylvania to do, to protect her true men arrangement. Patterson went immediately to of Pennsylvania to do, to protect her true interou to determine his mind in fayor of the arrangement. Patterson went immediately to Cameron, who was in the car, and returned in a few minutes, stating that, although Cameron regarded the price big, he would pay it in order to save further trouble, and would, therefore, not say anything to the members then on their way to Philadelphia, and that they might return, and thus prevent early diagrams control of the price of thus prevent any disarrangement of the plan that might arise from their absence. Saturday evening was then agreed upon as the time for in my presence at some future interview, subject in my presence at some future interview, subject to my inspection. A little incident which occurred here it would be a pity to lose to the world. After the bargain was coheluded Simon straightened, up on his chair, rubting his legs with his hands, saying, "Well, this ends it. I will be Senator and you shall never regret it."—

(addressing himself to me)—"I will be the most powerful man in that Senate; the entire state of affairs of this Qovernment will be changed; nothing is more cortain than that the South will nothing is more certain then that the South will gain her independence, (this sounded like trea-son,) and then we will hold the control of the Covernment and I will be able to serve my friends;" and so we parted again, to dream of Southern Confederacies and Winnebagoes for Senator. Patterson and I then agreed to most on Monday. We met at 5 o'clock, in Patterson's room at Herr's, on Monday afternoon. Here Patterson told me he had the $5,000 hand money locked up in the safe down stairs, but wanted me to see Simon again before paying it over to me. I insisted on the hand money. This I deemed nees sary to keep up the delusion. We then parted to meet at the same place early the next, morning lumediately after breakfast on Tuesday, (the day of the election,) I met Patterson, according to agreement at his room. Simon hairs present to agreement, at his room, Simon being present, lying on the bed, complaining of a disease of the bowels. It was then desired that I should see some Republican member of the Senate or House, who would be sent to me, and inform him of my willingness to yote for Cameron in case he was nominated. To this I made some pretended observed the senate of the sena of a Democrat, I conceived the project of putting jection and demanded to know the necessity for myself in the way of the operators, and trying how far they were disposed to go in the matter once conceived. I determined to act upon it, and communicated my intention to several friends. The first opportunity that offered I embraced—and here is the result: and here is the result:

I had been to Pailadelphia, and on my return perhaps a week or more before the election, I met Mr. Wan Brobst, of Lewisburg, with whom I was acquainted, at the Pennsylvania flouse, in Harrisburg, for the first time this winter, and noticed some unusual nervousness on his part was all right too. Patterson then burried showed me a large bundle of notes, which h represented as being the amount of the final pay represented as being the abundant of the man, payment. He assured me the day before I should have the hand money, and again on Tuesday morning said I could have it. I told him I deemed it bester, on reflection, not to have it about me, insemuch as there, might be a row after the election, and said I would trust it to them, (Patterson and Cameron,) knowing them to be honest. Patterson again assured me the hand money was down in the safe, and, together with the residue, should be forthcoming as soon as the election was over. (I may here state it did not come) Cameron then said his carriage would come) Cameron then said in carriage wound-be at the State Capital Bank after the election, and I should come right down and go over to his house and remain there awhile. This, of course, I agreed to do, (but did not.)

Now, then, all things being arranged, Dr. Ful Now, then, all things being arranged, Dr. Fuller was ushered in by Patterson. The introduction completed, I said: "Doctor, I presume I understand the object of this interview." He then said: "I am chairman of a committee appointed by the Republican caucus to walt on you to see whether you would vote for Cameron." I said "Yes; I assure you that if you nominate Gau. Cameron (pointing to the old Winnebago lying on the bed) it will be all right." He said: "You give me that assurance?" I said "Yes." Dr. F. then said: "You need have no fears of personal danger, or anything of that sort. We have made in the secret, and Dr. Earley, especially, knew constantly what was going on.

In one of my interviews with Patterson, on the cars going to Reading, he said in case there should any investigation grow out of the transaction he would be the only witness that knew contribute about it and he would aware failably anything about it, and he would swear falsely and put it through.

In regard to the dates given in the above statement, as I made no memorands at the time, I cannot be certain that they are correct, but I

The Union as it was and the Constitution as it is, would best accomplish all this, if Abolitionism would permit. While our national glory would be best promoted by the preservation of our present political relations with the New England States, yet if they will insist upon the destruction of the Union to name that person. He then proposed Jim Burus. I said he would do. He then left, stating that he was going to Philadelphia to arrange another matter which he had in view, and would they will insist upon the destruction of the Union by the subjugation of the Southern States or by their separation from them, I am ready to yield to the latter rather than to the former of such alternatives. The New England States constitute the sent where the doctrine of Secession was first asserted, they are the hot-bed in which has been propagated all the heresies that have produced national discord—they are our rivals in commerce and manufactures, and the sacrifice of submitting to their separation from us would be much less than that of our separation from the great South to their separation from us would be much less than that of our separation from the great South and West. It is impossible for the Western States even to permit the control of the mouth of the Mississippi to be lodged in the hands of an independent government. Their destiny is inex orably linked with a free transit through the great inland navigable waters that river and its tributaries afford The future prosperity of Penusylvania is alike dependent on her connexion

I stopped at Reading; so did Patterson, who returned that same evening to Harrisburg. Cameron went to Philadelphia. I came up on Saturday evening, and found Cameron on the train, as well as at least one of the man who went to Philadelphia the day before, and I think both. At the depot at Harrisburg I m: Patterson, who said the interview would be at Don Cameron's. Accordingly Patterson and myself went direct to the house, and found the Gineral there ahead of us. GEN. BURNSIDE'S ADDRESS TO HIS TROOPS.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, ?

CAMP NEAR FALMOUTH, VA., Jan. 21, 1863. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 7 .- The Commanding General appounces to the Army of the Potomac that they are about to meet the enemy once more. The late brilliant actions in North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansus have divided and weakened the enemy on the Rappahanneck, and the auspicious moment seems to have arrived to strike a great and mortal blow to the Rebellion nd to gain that decisive victory which is due to the country.

Let the gailant soldiers of so many brilliant battle fields accomplish this achievement, and a fame the most glorious awaits them.

The Commanding General calls for the firm and united action of officers and men and, under the Providence of God, the Army of the Potomac will have taken the great step toward restoring peace to the country, and the Government to its rightful authority.

By command of Maj: Gen. BURNSIDE.

LEWIS RICHMOND, Asst. Adj. Gen.

The National Finances—Message of the President.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I have signed the joint resolution to provide for the immediate payment of the Army and Navy of the United States, passed by the House of Representatives on the 14th, and by the Senate on the 15th inst.

The joint resolution is a simple authority, amounting, however, under existing circumstances, to a direction to the Secretary of the Treasury to make an additional issue of $100,-000,000 in United States notes, if so much money is needed for the payment of the army and newsy. that assurance?" I said "Yes." Dr. F. then said: "You need have no fears of personal danger, or anything of that sort. We have made every provision to meet all danger." Thus the last scene in this strange farce ended. Simon assured me that he would be ever grateful, and I hope he will.

It is proper here to say that during this entire adventure with Simon and his agents, my colleague, Dr. Earley, W. A. Wallace, the Senator from Clearfield, and Robert Vaughn, the propries the suspecied banks together have stready become so indundant as to increase prices beyond real value, thereby augmenting the cost of living, to the injury of labor, and the cost of supplies, to the injury of, the whole country.

It seems very plain that continued issues of United States notes, without any check to the issues of suspended banks, and without adequate provision for the raising of moncy by loans, and for funding the issues as 10 keen them within provision for the raising of money by loans, and for funding the issues so as to keep them within due limits, must soon produce disastrous consequences; and this matter appears to me so important that I avail myself of this occasion to ask the special attention of Congress to it.

That Congress has the power to regulate the currency of the country ann hardly admit of a currency of the country can hardly admit of a doubt, and that a judicious measure to prevent the deterioration of this currency by a reasonaole taxation of bank circulation or otherwise, if ble taxation of bank circulation or otherwise, if needed, seems equally clear. Independently of this consideration, it would be unjust to the people at large to exempt banks enjoying the special privilege of circulation, from their just proportion of the public burdens.

In order to raise money by way of loans most ensily and cheaply, it is clearly necessary to give every possible support to the public oredit. To that end, a uniform currency in which taxes.

would still further facilitate loans by increasing the present, and causing a future demand for such banks. In view of the actual financial can barrassments of the Government, and of the greater embarrassment sure to come if the necessary means of relief be not afforded, I feel that I should not perform my daily by a simple an-nonnement of my approval of the joint resolu-tion which proposes relief only by increasing circulation, without expressing my carness desire that measures, such in substance as I have just referred to, may receive the early sanction of Congress. By such measures, in my opinion, all payments will be most certainly secured, not only to the army and navy, but to all honest oreditors of the Government, and satisfautory provisions made for future demands on the tres WASHINGTON, January 19, 1863.

NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT AND STATEMENT

Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Sinking Spring, Berks county.

FIG. Spring, Berks ocunty.

FIG. UNDERSIGNED, IN BEHALF OF THE Board of Managers, present the following report as a correct statement of the affairs of the Company, on the 3ist of December, 1862:
There were 221 new Polities issued during the year, paying $1,115 &1 premiums and fees; there was reseawed on account of outstanding Assessment, (No.11), 4555 64; and interest on money loaned out, $91 92—making the total receipts $1,633 of during the year. Out of which was appropriated the sum of $641 99, to pay contingent expenditures and allowances, as per aunexed etatement, leaving a balance of $921 05 to go to the fund on hand January 1, 1892. The loases by fire during the past year, were not as heavy as in some former years, yet they amount to 8n aggregate of $5.575 97, which being paid, leaves a balance of $23 55 on hand January 1, 1863.
The last year was gotten over without the annoyance of an assessment; but unless we are more than usually fortunate in losses, the present year cannot except an assesment, with the small balance remaining in the Treasury.
The Company being now over six thousand members strong, forming an aggregate contributive capital of about twelve millions of dollars, no fear of a heavy assessment
twelve millions of dollars, no fear of a heavy assessment
need be apprehended by the members, heavy assessment need be apprehended by the members, nearly all of Berks county.
This Company has paid over one handred thousand doll county. This Company has paid over one hundred thousand dollars in losses suctained during the last twelve years, which were, with a single exception, promptly and satisfactorily settled; and without these principles for its guide, no insurance Company can maintain a standing for any length of time, and hence the necessity on the part of the members to respond promptly to the assessments.

Respectfully submitted.

AatiON MULL, Secretary.

NEW GAS LIGHT!

THE OLEO-WATER GAS. Patented by Prof. L. L. Hill, June 17, 1862. THIS GAS HAS BEEN THOROUGHLY TEST-ed by men of Science, and its merits have stood the greatest scrutiny. It can be manufactured for 50 Cents per 1000 Cubic Feet. It is perfectly free from offensive smell, not liable to ex-osion, and will not condense in any temperature of climate.

It has a body superior to the best Coal Gas, and gives a much more brilliant light.

We are now prepared to offer the Petroleum Gas Apparatans to the public, which must eventually take the place of all other Gases, owing to the cheapness with which it can be made, its brilliancy of light, its perfect simplicity and its adaptability in all cases where good light is resonanted.

For private dwellings in city or country, Stores, Churches lotels, Theatres, Factories, Public Gardens, &c., &c., and an easily be adapted to Gas Works now in operation, at evy little expense. We will dispose of RIGHTS for clittles, towns, counties T States, at moderate prices. For further particulars, apor States, at moderate prices. For further particulars, ap-ply to T. H.
