RESIGNATION OF GEN. BURNSIDE.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, )

This morning Major Gen. Burnside turned ayer the command of the Army of the Potomac to Major Gen. Joe. Hooker, who came to the headquarters of the camp for that purpose.

As soon as the change became known throughout the army, a considerable number of the superior officers called upon Gen. Burnside and took their parting leave of him, with many retook their parting leave of him, with many regrets.

The following is the address of Gen. Burnside to the army:

General Orders, No. 9.—By direction of the sident of the United States, the Commanding General this day transfers the command of this army to Maj.-Gen. Joseph Hooker.

The short time that he has directed your movements has not been fruitful of victor any considerable advancement of our line, but it has again demonstrated an amount of courage, patience and endurance that under more favor able circumstances, would have accomplished great results.

Continue to exercise these virtues, be true in your devotion to your country and the principles you have sworn to maintain, give to the brave and skillfull General who has long been identified with your organization, and who is now to command you, your full and cordial support and co-operation, and you will deserve success. Your General, in taking an affectionate leave of the army, from which he separates with so much regret, may be pardoned if he bids an especial farewell to his long and tried associates of the 9th Corps. His prayers are that God may be with you, and grant you continual success with the Readlinn is crushed. cess until the Repellion is crushed. By command of
