SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1863.

DESEBTED. -- Captain John Brown, of the Thirtieth Ohio regiment, son of Ossawattomie Brown, who was hung at Charleston, Virginia, is one of the officers recently dismissed from service for desertion.

SUBSTANTIAL PRESENT .--- A beautiful house on Fifth avenue, N. Y., all carpeted, mirrored, pictured, and furnished, even ta the pantry and cellar, has been presented to Mrs. McClellan by some of her husband's friends, in that city.

LOOK OUT .- Counterfeit one dollar bills on the Machanics' Bank of Philadelphia are being freely circulated. They are tolerably well executed, and liable to deceive without a careful inspection.

THE Constitutional Union, heretofore pub lished by Hon. T. B. Florence, in Philadelphia, is to be removed to Washington, where the first number will appear on the 221 of February-SS.00 per annum, for the daily, and $2.00 for the weekly.

A FAMILY POISONED BY THE USE OF RVE COFrgs.-The health officer of Brooklyn has prohibited the sale of rys coffee in several stores in that city, a respectable German family of eight persons having been poisoned. The seeds of poisonous weeds growing among the rye are roasted and ground up with it.

SAVE Your LUNGS .- We often feel shocked at the terrible manner of some people's coughing in church, in the lecture room, street, home and abroad-when by a 25 cent box of Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers they can save their lungs, cure their coughs, colds, sore threat, &c. Sold by Harvey Birch & Brother.

COL. CROSS, THE FORGER, BEFORE THE SUPREME Cot. Choss, THE FORCER, BEFORE THE SUPREME Court. —A NICE QUESTION.—In the Supreme C.urt on Saturday, Judges Lowrie, Woodward and Strong on the bench, the case of J. Buchau-an Cross, who seeks his discharge from the Penitentiary on the pardon granted by the Govern-or upon forged papers, was called up. The court room was crowded. Cross was brought court room was crowded. Cross was brought from prison, and during the argument was seat-ed near his counsel. He looked very well, con-sidering his long imprisonment. Attorney Gen-eral Meredith and District Attorney Mann ap-peared for the Commonwealth, to resist the ap-plication for a discharge. The petition of Cross pheation for a discharge. The pentida of char avers that he received a full, free and uncondi-tional pardon. The Warden's return to the writ sets forth the facts connected with the procuring of the pardon, and the forged 'stters which were received by the Governor and Marshal Millward were attached to the return. It is also averred that the pardon was never delivered. The trav-erse put in on behalf of Cross avers that the pardon was delivered, and to a great extent the case dopends upon the view the Court will take of this branch of the subject. Witnesses were examined to show that though a pardon had been issued it had never been officially communicated to Cross. The fact had, however, been entered on the prison books, as also that the prisoner had been sentenced to the Penitentiary because of the par-don having been revoked. The matter was ar-gued at length, and held under advisement by

he Court. Cross has since been remanded to prison, the Court deciding that as the papers by which the pardon was obtained were forged, the prisoner had no better title to this pardon than a con signee of goods would have after the goods had been stopped in transitu on the discovery that the sale and delivery had been procured by letters forged by the friends of the consignee.

About 4 o'clock this morning the foe was come up with at a ruined house on the Blackwater road, about nine miles from this town. The position selected by the rebels was an excellent one, and they were found to be in con-siderable force in cavelry, infantry and artillery. It is estimated that there was a regiment of cav-alry, about 2.200 infantry, and three batteries of artillery, to dispute the ground with the Union troops. Skirmishing commenced about 5 o'clock, and was continued quite brickly for nearly two hours, without much damage to either side, until the enemy began to waver, and finally gave up the position, retiring in good order toward Franklin. At the latest advices from the scene of action, Col. Spear, of the 11th Penneylvania Cavalry, was in pursuit of the retreating enemy. Exciting News from Charleston.

BOLD AND DASHING RAID OF THE REBEL GUNBOATS.

The Blockade of Charleston Declared Raised.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 31, 1863. This morning the gunboats' Palmetto State, Captain Rulledge, and Chieora, Captain Tucker, accompanied by three small steamers—the Gen-eral Clinch, Etiwan and Chesterfield—all under the command of Commodore Ingraham, made an attack on the blockaders, and succeeded in sinking two and orippling a third. The engagement commenced at four o'clock.

The Palmetto State, with Commodore Ingraham on board, opened fire upon the federal gun-boat Mercedita, carrying eleven guns and one hun-dred and fity-eight men, which was soon sunk in five fathoms of water. Her commander, Captain Stellwagen, with a boat's crew, came on board and surrendered. One shot pierced her boiler, going clear through. Captain Stellwagen and

ANOTHER DESPATCH. General Beauregard and Commodore Ingra-bam, as commanders of the land and naval forces, have issued a joint proclamation, dated January 31, declaring the blockade of Charleston aised, the entire hostile squadron having been sunk, burned or dispersed by the superior naval forces of the confederacy. Yesterday General Beauregard placed a steamer at the disposal of the foreign Consuls to see for themselves that no blockade existed. The French and Spanish Consuls, accompanie by General Ripley, accepted the invitation. The British Consul, with the Commander of the Brit-ish war steamer Petrel, had previously gone five miles beyond the usual anchorage of the blocka-ders and could see nothing of them with glasses. Late in the evening four blockaders reappear-ed, keeping far out. This evening a large num-ber of blockaders are in sight, but keep steam up, evidently ready to run.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. HARRISBURG, Friday, January 30.

SENATE.--- A few unimportant bills were con-sidered. Mr. Kineey offered a resolution request ing the Committee on Finance to ascertain from the commissioners of the several counties and the councils of cities the amount of bounties paid to volunteers, under the call of the President for 300,000 men, and also the expenses attending such payment. The resolution was adopted, and the Senate adjourned until Monday evening at 7½ o'clock. House.-Mr. Ludlow's resolutions, introduced Boileau, of Philadelphis, by the military autho-rities of the United States, as an outrage on the dignity and sovereignty of Pennsylvania, and calling on the Governor to demand his re-lease, were debated at considerable length, and ssed by a strict party vote—yeas 51. Adjourned till Monday evening at 7½ finally nays 40. o'clock. MONDAY, February 2. SENATE -Mr. Kinsey presented a petition from the citizens of Bucks county, asking for the passage of a law to exclude negroes and mulat-loes from the State. Nothing else of importance was done was done. House. - Mr. Kaine presented a memorial from

Horse.—Mr. Kame presented a memorial from sundry citizens of this Commonwealth, protest-ing sgainest the illegal and arbitrary arrest of its citizens by military officers of the United States, and asking the protection of the State authorities against similar arrests in future. The memoria was referred to the Committee on Federal Rela tions. The Committee on Militia System report ed, as committed, a large number of bills rati-fying and confirming the acts of county commis-sioners in granting bounties to volunteers. The Committee on New Counties reported, with amendments, an act to erect a part of Luzerne into a new county, to becalled Lackawanna. Adjourned TUESDAY, February 3. SENATE.-Mr. Clymer presented a memorial of citizens of this Commonwealth, setting forth their grievances arising from the arbitrary, illegal and unconstitutional arrests of their fellow-citizens by orders of the Federal government, ciuzens by orders of the rederat government, and praying the General Assembly to adopt such measures as may be requisite to secure to the people the rights and privileges guaranteed them by the Constitution of the United States and of this State. The Postage bill of the Senate, for January, amounting to $1,590 12, was ordered to be and the the senate for to be and the senate for to be paid. Mr. Hiestand introduced joint reso-lutions instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to favor the repeal of the duty on paper, which were imme-diately taken up and passed—yeas 22, nays 2. Mr. Serrill introduced a bill to re-obarter the Bank of Delaware County. Mr. Smith, one to re-charter the Bank of Montgomery County.

Adjourned. House - Mr. Kaine introduced a bill to prevent and punish illegal arrests. This bill pro-vides that the removal of any person beyond the limits of this State or of the United States, for ffences committed in this State, is to be declared a misdemeanor, and that any person who shall seize, or shall in any manner aid in such seizure, or attempt at seizure, or who shall actually re move, or attempt to remove, said persons so com-mitting offences, shall be guilty of a high mis-demeanor, and on conviction shall be scintenced to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars; and period not exceeding ten years, both or either at the discretion of the court : and that upon the trial of any person charged with the offences above recited, the fact that such seizure. confinement, or removal was by order of the President of the United States, or of any member of the Cabinet, or other officer of the General Government, shall constitute no legal defence. Referred to the Committee on Federal Relations. Mr. Kaine also introduced a joint resolution instructing our Senators in Congress to oppose he passage of a law appropriating twenty milthe passage of a naw appropriating twenty infl-lions of dollars to compensate the owners of emancipated slaves in the State of Missouri. Mr. Rez, of Montgomery, read in place a bill to secure to the people of this State the freedom of speech to which they are entitled by the Consti-tution.

read in place a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of amendment to the Constitution of the Grade to Pennsylvania, granting right of suffrage to per-sous in the military service of the country. Mr. Patton presented a peamble and resolutions, as-serting that the present civil war could and would have been prevented by the adoption of the Crittenden compromise or some other mea-sure just and equitable; that the blame of rejecting that compromise rests with the domin aut party in Congress; that the object of the present war had been unanimously declared by Congress, in July, 1861, to be the restoration of the Union and the vindication of the authority of the Government, and not to interfere with the rights of the several States or their institutions; that it was for this object as declared by Con gress that the sons of the North rushed to arms ; that the solemn pledge of Congress had been violated, and that the war has been conducted as against the institution of slavery slone; and further resolving that if the Administration does not recede from its inflammatory. proclamation of emancipation, and return to the prosecution of the municipation. of the war under the Constitution; it can have so further claims upon the loyal State of Pent-sylvania for men or other means for carrying on the war. ENGLISH LORD.

BY POETICAL PUMP.

What have we in America? We've wonders great and grand! We bave the essence of the Estit, The Gream of every land.

Our mountains are maguificent,

Aud each man has a kingly style, If not a king's expense.

Our ships are known to all the world, The farms cannot be beat! Our Cities full of luxary, Are famons for the seat.
