EMMER JANE.

O, 'tie of a young malden a story I'd tell, How her lover was a capting, what sailed the salt sea, And the consequences attending the parting from she.

Row the vessel of this capting, it was called the Emmer Jane And in honor of his true love the capting gave her that name So that when he was a tossing upon the bring sea,
That vessel that he sailed in might remind him of she. O, 'twas with a load of shingles this gallant capting sails away

From port and his true love all on a summer's day; But he never more was heard of nor his vessel so brave And it was calc'lated putty gen'rally he found a water; grave.

Now up and down the sea shore, for many a long day, This maiden did wander, seeking him who sailed away, A askin' all the captings and sailyers she could see,
If in "breastin'" the billering "surges" they had see anything o' he?

On a cold stone, all summer, by the side o' the sea, This maiden ast a watchin' and awaitin' for he, 'Till one cold, rainy morning in the water she was found.
And it was calc'lated putty gen'rally she got crazy and was

They buried her body all in the buryin' ground, And a monumink was arested a statin' she wasdrowned; And o'er her tomb they sot a willer tree. And the wind through its branches keeps a howlin' for she.

Now just two years after these ere events occurred, A stranger came to the town where Emmer Jane wa Heasked of the sexton where Emmer Jane might be,

Who answered by pointin' toward the willer tree. In the graveyard next mornin', by the side of Emmer. They found his cold corpus insensibly a layin', And also in his weekit a han'kercher of her'n,

And 'twas calc' lated putty gen'rally 'twas the capting re

They buryed her lover, the capting, close by her, And o'er his tomb they set out a sweet brier;
And the willer which is weepin' is an emblem of she,
And the brier clingta' round it is az emblem of he.

OLD ABE TAKES HIS TOD .- For occasional sal lies of genuine original wit, gives us a country grocery on winter evenings and rainy days, and the bar-rooms of country hotels. As an instance, take the following, which occurred in a bar-room not long since. There was quite a collection and our friend S, who is a Democrat, and friend M., who is a Republican, had been earnestly, but pleasantly, discussing politics; and as a lull took place in the conversation, S. spoke as follows:

"M., how many public men are there who ar really temperance men!"

"Oh, I don't know," replied M. "Well," said S., "I don't know of but on that I can speak positively of on our side, and that is General Cass."

"Well," said M., promptly, "There is Presi dent Lincoln on our side, certain," "Guess not," said S., incrediuously.

"Guess yes," replied M., warmly.

"But you don't pretend to say that Presiden Lincoln is a temperance man ?" asked S. " Yes I do," answered M., "and can maintain the statement.

"Well now, I tell you that Abraham Lincoln is as fond of his tod as any man living," replied S., earnestly, "and can prove it to you."

"Well, I tell you that he isn't," replied M, who began to get excitel; "He is as pure and strict a temperance man as there is in the country." "I contend," replied S., with provoking cool ness, "that Abraham Lincoln is so fond of his tod that it is the last thing he thinks of when he goes to bed, and the first when he wakes in the morning." "It's a confounded locofoco lie!" exclaimed

M., springing to his feet. "Hold on; friend M.," said S., "what was Lincoln's wife's name before she was married?" " Todd, by thunder!" exclaimed M. jumping more than a foot from the floor; "boys, let's adjourn to the other room."

THE WIND AND LEAF, AN ELOPEMENT, O listen, ladies, and I'll tell you brief A touching tale, and true as history. The Wind and Leaf held dalliance. "Gentle Leaf."

Began the Wind, "awake and fly with me! For thee I pass'd the beds where roses are: And though their whispers fragrant woo'd my stay,

And every little bud shone like a star. I thought on thee ; - arise and come away !

Thy sisters dark are sleeping in the dew, I would not rouse their coldness with a sigh; But thou the beautiful, and I the true,

Were meant for common passion—let us fly." The Leaf complied, and ere a day was done Was flung aside—a thing to tread upon. -Tait's Magazine

SETTLING A DOCTOR'S BILL BY MARRIAGE .-- A young lady named Addie Jameson, only 16 years old, at New-York, in getting out of an omnibus, last Spring, fell and broke one of her legs. A young M. D. who lived in that street, had the suffering girl taken to his boardingh ouse close by, where he set the broken limb, and she was then taken home. He continued his attendance, fell in love with Miss J, and finally offered his hand in marriage. She accepted; but her father refused his assent to the match, because the doc tor was poor, and as yet had but little practice Sawbones thereupon made out a bill of $2 per visit for 218 visits, and $20 for setting the broken leg. He meant to have pay for his courting, if it had to go for nothing. The old man finding that he must pay some $400 to $500, or lose his daughter, finally gave the doctor the latter on receiving a receipt in full, and the juvenile Miss

Too Many Irons in the Fire. - Whenever you see a gal with a whole lot of sweethearts, (says a humorous writer,) it's an even chance if she gets married to any one of 'em. One cools off. and before she brings any of 'em to the right weldin' heat, the coal is gone and the fire is out. Then she may blow, and, blow till she's tired: she may blow up a dust, but the deuse of a flame she can blow up again. I never see a clever looking gal in danger of that but I don't long to whisper in her ear-"You dear little critter, you take care; you have too many irons in the fire; some of 'em will get stone cold, and t'other ones will get burnt so they will be no more good in patur."

Jameson is now Mrs. Dr. Grayson.

WAR POWER CURRENCY .- A good joke was practiced on the woollies in Havana, Schuyler county, N. Y., recently. An old chap, not worth a red, issued a batch of shinplasters which he made payable at the Havana Bank. One of the bigwigs of the place, a Senator and stockholder, met the joker one day and commenced lecturing him on the impropriety and illegality of his conduct, winding up with, "You have no legal or moral right to issue them-how, then, can you do it?" "Do it, Senator," replied the cheap currency man, "do it -why I do it under the war power." There was no more said.

A "DEMORALIZED" SOLDIER.—The NewlYork Tribune tells a story of a stout, athletic Zouave. who, running away from the battle at Fredericksburg, was checked by a Lieutenant with a drawn sword. Said the latter, "Stop, sir! Go back to your regiment, you infernal coward, you back to your regiment, you infernal coward, you are not wounded." "For Heaven's sake let me pass," implored the fugitive, "I know I'm not monogeneous the fugitive, "I know I'm not wounded, but I'm fearfully demoralized."

The disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heavings and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times scourpanied by sharp lacinating or sheoting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOWNE, which physicians call Newtonepess, which word covers up much ignorance, and in pine cases out of ten the dottor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease, or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Pelpitation of the Heart, Impaired Memory, wakefulness, Flax-bes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude, and Dimness of Vicion.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION.

Which in the numerical female is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually looses her appetie, the bowels are constipated, night sweats came on, and company. Join finally ands her earner.

This disease depends upon an infammation of mecous liniug of the vagina and womb. It is in all cases accompanied by server pain in the back, across the bowles and through the hips. For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single does has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. Gents:—I freely give you liberty to make use of the following Certificate of the value of Constitution Water, which I can recommend in the highest manner.

My wife, who was attacked with pain to the shoulders, whole length of the back, and in her limbs, with Palyitation of the Heart, attended with Falling of the Word. Dymenorrhea, and Irritation of the Blandler. I called a physician I could find, who attended her for about nice months, and while she was under his care she did not suffer a limbs with the should have a suffer quite as much pain; he flavor his care she did not suffer usits as much pain; he flavor his care she did not suffer usits as much pain; he flavor his care she did not such a combination of completent of her difficulties. About this time, she commenced he use of Constitution Water, a.d to our utter astonishment, almost the first does seemed to have the desired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domestic affairs. She has not taken any of the Goustitution Water for about four weeks, and we are happy to say It has produced a permanent cure.

to the medicine, as I have entire confidence in the effect,

There is no class of diseases that produce such exhausting effects upon the human conditions as Diabetes and Diseases of the Ridneys, Bladder and Urinary Pranages, and through false modesty they are neglected until they are so advanced as to be beyond the control of ordinary remedies, and we present the CONSTITUTION WATER

To the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found eo eminently successful in curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so waitable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.
