RESIGNATION OF GEN. SIGEL .- The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:—

"Geu. Sigel has placed his resignation in the hands of the President and gone home. Insuperable difficulties in his intercourse with the Commander-in-Chief, are alleged as the reasons for this resignation, which will be regretted by every soldier in the army. It is thought in military circles that his corps will be consolidated with some other." correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says :-

THE SIEGE OF VICKSBURG .- The rumors from Vicksburg for the last few days have filled every one with anxiety to hear something definite and authentic. If there has been any battle at all there, it must, of course, have been a severe one. attended with heavy loss of life. But this rumor is generally discredited. The indications tory at this time would do much to dispel the gathering gloom and restore public confidence.

ANOTHER NAVAL DISASTER.

Capture of the United States Gunbeat Indianola by the Rebels.

U S. Mississippi Squadron, U.S. Mississippi Squadron,
Feb. 27, via Memphis, March 1 1863.
To the Hon. Gideo Welles. Revelary of the Namy:
Sin: I regret to inform you that the Indianols has also fallen into the hands of the enemy. The rams Webb and Queen of the West attacked her 25 miles from here, and rammed her until she surrendered, all of which can be traced to a ion compliance with my instructions. I do not know the particulars.

DAVID D. PORTER, Commander. The Indianols was one of the finest gun boats of the squadron, and was considered invulnerable. She was built at Cincinnail, is of the 'Monitor' pattern, with an oblong stationary turret, in which were mounted two heavy colum biads. She passed by the batteries at Vickeburg on the night of the 13th ult., and was reported on the night of the 1sth Red river, with a view of rescuing the captured steamer Queen of the West The despatch of Captain Porter informs ue, however, that the tables were turned, and that the latter boat aided in taking her former companion.

It is mortifying and alarming that we should have lost the only two armed vessels that have run the Vicksburg blockade—the Queen of the West and the Indianola. Admiral Porter states that when taken, both were engaged in operations in violation of his orders. It appears, from last accounts that the Indianola made a desporlast accounts, that the Indianola made a desperate fight, and only surrendered when in a sink-ing condition. There is some comfort in this.
