FIRST OF APRIL.

This general settling day is close at hand, and we, with many others, must prepare to meet it. All persons indebted to us, therefore, whether for subscriptions, advertising or job printing, will confer a special favor by paying up promptly before the first of April, so that we may be enabled to pay the demands that will be made

We are thankful to those who have settled their accounts during the winter. But there is yet a large number in arrears; and we now appeal to them not to let the first of April pass without paying up. The paper we print upon is still as exorbitant in price as it was two months ago, with no prospect of any decline; and we are obliged to pay cash for it, and all other articles we consume, on delivery. We must therefore adhere to the cash system, or we cannot get along in our business at all. While things remain as they are, we shall have to demand advance payments from all subscribers, and cash for advertising and job printing. When the times get back into the old track again, we shall be glad to relax this hard rule.

BOUNTIES TO WOUNDED SOLDIERS.

Hon. S. E. Ancona has furnished us with the following copy of an amendment to the Act of July 22d, 1862, which passed Congress before the late adjournment. It is of great importance to wounded soldiers, for it entitles all who are discharged on account of wounds received in battle, to the Government bounty, no matter what length of time they may have served:

"Be it enacted, &c., That every non-commissioned officer, private, or other person, who has been, or shall hereafter be discharged from the army of the United States within two years from the date of their enlistment, by reason of wounds received in battle, shall be entitled to receive the same bounty as is granted, or may be granted to the same classes of persons who are discharged after a service of two years; and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this are hereby repealed."

"UNION" LEAGUES.

Between two and three years ago, on almost very pleasant evening, processions of men in oil cloth capes, and caps, and bearing lanterns, might have been seen parading up and down the streets of our Northern cities and villages. They generally bore banners of "strange device," which have probably long since been consigned to the darkest and most secret receptacles that could be found for them. Could they again be brought to the light of day they would be seen to bear inscriptions indicative of anything but an affection for the whole country or regard for the Union. On the contrary one-half of our native land was alluded to in terms of the bitterest invective and hatred, and as for the Union, in the classic language of an eminent Republican personage, we were bidden "to let it slide." Phose who had the temerity to confess a love for the Union and respect for the Constitution came in also for their share of invective, and figured upon the banners as dough-faces and Unionsavers, and the fiercest expressions of disgust and hatred were reserved for their especial bene fit. No allusion to our National flag, Govern ment or laws ever appeared unless in the form of a curse or a sneer, nor was there any expression of affection, veneration, or even regard, for any objects save these three—the negro, John

Brown, and that sooty monster begotten by Republicanism upon Abolitionism—the higher law. The emblematic meaning of the water-proof clothing and the lanterns was obscure, nor has it ever been satisfactorily explained. If oilcloth caps and capes were adopted that a resemblance to firemen might be given, it was glaringly improper and unsuitable. Firemen are organized to save life and property and extinguish incendiary flames. The oil-cloth garments in question covered a very different purpose. The lantern may possibly have been borne like that of Diogenes, for the sake of discovering an honest man, but no such hopeless thing is on record as a search for him in the ranks of the processions. But such as they were they paraded the streets nightly to the annoyance of quiet folks and the

But the gentlemen of the wide awake garments, who put open rebellion upon our State statute books, who sympathized with John Brown who tolled the bells and opened the churches as a mark of sympathy for a man who would, if he could, have applied a torch to the dwelling and inflicted death and worse upon the wives and children of every citizen of a sister State, who threatened to commit Boston handcuffed and manacled to the tender mercies of a "Metropoli tan Police" in order that Wendell Phillips might preach upon the text, "The Union a league with death and a covenant with hell," and indulce in treason and blasphemy at his pleasure-these gentlemen are gloating in fat offices, and growing rich upon the ruin of their country. Ought they not to be satisfied with this? Have they not obtained all they sought for ?

They certainly should be satisfied, but they apparently are not. They do not appear to be willing to stay their hands, until they have dese crated and defiled the word Union, after having so successfully exerted themselves to deprive us of the reality. # OLD TIPPECANOE'S" PROPHECY.

If, by chance, or in the order of Providence, there should be now living, and in political association with the Abelitionists, any of the old campaigners of 1840, of the "Tippecance and Tyler too" stripe, who built log cabins, swigged hard cider, and sang the praises of "that same old coon" until he was fairly carried into the White House—if there be any of these old fellows left, we desire to call their attention to the following extract from a letter written by Gen. Harrison in 1820 to Mr. Monroe. It may tend to open their eyes to a fact that they would not believe, if it came from a Democratic source. It appears from this that Gen. Harrison held the me opinion with Webster, Clay, and all the truly national statesmen of America, whether Democrats or Whigs, that it was not slavery that would destroy the Union, but that meddlesome, unlawful Abolition interference with it, would. Read the words of "Old Tippecance," and ponder them well. After a lapse over forty years, they have all the significance of prophecy fulfilled:

"I am and have been for many years so much opposed to slavery that I will never live in a slave State. But I believe that the Constitution has given no p wer to the General Government to interfere in this matter; and that to have slaves or no slaves depends upon the people in each State alone. But besides the constitutional objection, I am persuaded that the obvious tendency of such interference on the part of the States which have no slaves, with the property of their fellow citizens of the others, is to produce a state of discontent and jealousy that will, in the end, prove fatal to the Union."

Call for a National Convention-Democratic Resolutions.

HARRISBURG, March 18. Numerous petitions have been presented to the Pennsylvania Legislature during the present session in favor of a National Convention to adjust our difficulties. The Democratic members of the Senate and House held a caucus, and last night agreed upon resolutions to be presented on the subject to the Senate, by Hon. Mr. Lamberton, and to the House by Mr. Pershing, chairman of the Committee on Federal Relations. The House, being Democratic, will pass them : but there is no likelihood that they will pass the Senate. The following is a copy of the resolu-

Whereas, Angry sectional controversy, long ndulged, has culminated in the assumed ion of a number of States of the Union, and civil war, which has already raged for nearly two years with usurpassed violence and carnage, wasting the lives and substance of the people of both sections, and filling the land with misery and lamentations: and whereas, a continuance the Union of all the States is indispensable to the value of all the States is indispensable to the peace and welfare of the people as well as to the attainment of a great nationality: and where as, it is believed that ordinary measures of legis-lation may prove insufficient to remove the primary causes of the present strife, or to adjust the complications that have arisen therefrom; and whereas, the fifth article of the Constitution of the United States provides that the "Congress, whenever two-thirds of both Houses shall deem necessary, shall propose amendments to the Constitution, or on the application of the Legis latures of two-thirds of the States, shall call t convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and puroses as part of this Constitution when ratified y the Legislatures of three fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be coposed by Congress." Be it, therefore, Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met That the Congress of the United States be, and hereby is, petitioned to make provision for calling a Convention of States, as authorized by the fifth article of the Constitution of the United States, as soon as the necessary number of States shall have petitioned for the same; the object of which Convention shall be to inquire into the causes of the present afflictions of the nation, and if any just ground of complaint is found to exist, to so amend the Constitution as to remove such causes, securing thereby a more perfect union of the States; a better understanding of the relatious which the United States bear to the Federal Government; "establishing justice, insuring domestic tranquil-ity," and doing such other things not inconsis-tent with the spirit and genius of the present orm of Government as may be deemed necessary to promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our poster-ty." And be it further

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to forward copies of the foregoing resolution to the President of the United States, to the President of the Senate of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each of the Governors of the several States claiming to be in the Union. The shave resolutions are understood to have received the sanction of Governor Seymour, and the leaders of the Democratic party in New York, New Jersey, several of the New England, and many of the Western States.

THE ABOLITIONISTS, who are in a minority of some seven or eight thousand voters in New Hampshire, try to congratulate themselves that their condition is no worse. This is like cord was not a very big one, after all. Thrown into a minority which will diminish until it is merged in some new ism, the Radicals see they have received their fatal wound in New Hampshire, and that her vote will as surely be regis tered for the Democratic candidate for the next Presidency as she has an opportunity to cast it. "That's what's the matter."

WILMOT PROVIDED FOR .- The people of Pennsylvania having repudiated Senator Dave Wilnor, and laid him on the shelf, the President has provided for him by appointing him Judge of the Court of Claims-salary $4,000 per annum! Wilmot used his best efforts to involve the country in a civil war, and is doing all he can to continue the war and ruin the country. There is not a worse traitor in the Southern army than this blatant demagogue, and hence it is that he is a favorite with the Administration.

ENEMIES NORTH AND SOUTH .- Kentucky "Copperhead" sentiments read pretty well, as for example the following, which heads a series of loyal" resolutions passed by the General Assembly of that State:

He afterwards went into business alone, in East Market square, ago by Maj. Geo. M. Lauman, where he remained until is retirement. He always maintained the highest charac ally, in proportion to his means, to the various benevolent charitable and business enterprises that were from time to ime undertaken for the welfare of our town. He was respecied by all who knew him, and greatly esteemed he those who were associated with him in the closer ties of friendship. THE CITY ELECTION

GLORIOUS DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

"Copperheads" Whip the "Black Snakes."

The Constitution and Union Triumphant over Abolition Usurpation! A Democratic Mayor, Treasurer and Auditor. The Democratic Select Councilman and Eleven Democratic Common Councilmen Elected !

Our city election, yesterday, resulted in a glorious Dem cratic victory. Notwithstanding the strenuous exertions that were made by the office-holders under the Administration at Washington, to carry the city in favor of their unconstitutional Abolition policy, the people have declared against it, and for "the Constitution as it is, and the Union The weather was by no means favorable for "snakes"—the air was cold, and the sun shone feebly through the clouds that obscured the sky; but yet the "copperheads" came out in sufficient numbers to whip the "black snakes" thoroughly. Below we give the complete returns, which sum up briefly as follows:

Joseph S. Hoyez, (Dem.) is elected Mayor by 343 ma.

ority over David McKnight (Rep.)
WM. Heidenbeich (Dem.) is elected Treasurer by 267 majority over John Heller, (Rep.); and Henry Kenper (Dem.) is elected Auditor by 238 majority over A. K. Stanf-

fer. (Rep.)
The two Democratic Constables are elected; but we regret that Mr. Menori, the Democratic candidate for Alderman, is defeated by the small majority of 27.

The Democrats also elect the Select Councilman in N. E. Ward, and 11 of the 16 Commen Councilmen; with an equal proportion of the other Ward Officers. "Glory enough for one day!" ** The canidates elected are marked with a star (*).

NEW RAIL ROAD BRIDGE .- Mr. Hobart Assistant Engineer of the Reading Railroad, is now super intending the building of an Iron Bridge from the cut or the Lebanon Valley Branch across Sixth street, to the main track of the Road, to make the new connection with the East Penusylvania Road, and to facilitate business enerally, which has been rapidly increasing on our Railseasiarly, which has been rapidly increasing on our Kall-roads and will receive a new impetta on the completion of the Reading and Columbia Road. It is also contemplated to build the new Passenger Depot this Summer in the space between the Round House and the tracks, which much needed improvement will be halled with delight by the traveling public.—Tincs.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD .- The fragnents of the body of an unknown man were found on the track of the Reading Railroad, in the deep cut just above Reading, on Saturday morning last. The unfortunate man had evidently been walking on the track the previous night, and was probably struck and killed by a coal train is name could not be ascertained, but from papers on his person he was supposed to have been a resident of Girard avenue, Philadelphia. It has been since discovered that e was a man of intemperate habits, named Barnhari The mutilated corpse was buried in the Poor House buris ground.

MILITARY VISITORS. - Captain James McKight, formerly of the "Ringgold Light Artillery," and now of Battery M, 5th. U. S. Artillery, is in town. The Captain looks none the worse for the "wear and tear" of active service, and brings us a good report of his men, wh were principally recruited here.

Capt. F. B. Shalters, jr., of the 88th; Capt. John Kennedy, of the 128th; Lieut. J. J. Hesseler, of the 151st; and Adjutant J. C. Bertolette, of the — Penna. Regiment, are also in town, on leave.

READ THE PAPERS .- Harvey Birch & Brother have the New-York Illustrated Papers for March 28th, full of attractive pictures of War Scenes, portraits of Generals, &c. Also, all the New-York and Philadelphia Dailies, Weeklies, Monthly Magazines, &c. Give them a call, at 63 West Poun street.

BURGLARIES. - Last Friday night, the iwelling of Patrick Lowe, in Eighth street, between Buttonwood and First Hockley Laue, was entered through the cellar-door, and robbed of clothing valued at about $150. On Monday night, the dwelling of Rev. Thomas T. Imeger, in North Fourth street, was broken into through the front cellar-window, and a quantity of provisions were

THE LATEST.

Washington, March 19.

The intelligence from the Yazoo expedition is not very encouraging. We learn from Memphis that an unexpected check to its onward progress was met with at Post Pambasion, a fortification erected in Carroll county, Mississippi, at the junction of the Yallabusha and Tallahatchie Rivers. The iron-clad Chillicothe, at wo gun boat of about three hundred tons, built at Cincinnati, leading the expedition through Yazoo Pass, on arriving at the point named received the five of Fort Pemberton, sixty four shots striking her, and was lying idle, awaiting the arrival of a new supply of ammunition. Later advices, but not so authentic, say that the fleet had arrived in the vicinity of Hainer's Bluff, near the mouth of the Yazoo River. We also learn that the Later Personners are supplyed from the courted and printing of the terms of sale made known by Enneytille Moder, Adm'rs.

A despatch from Vicksburg to Uincinnati yesterday sayethat the Yazoo Pase expedition has captured twenty six steamboats, eighteen of which were destroyed. The guaboats have arrived above Haines' Bluff and would soon commence the attack.

Rumors were rife of the evacuation of Vicksburg, and it was supposed that the greater part of the rebel torce would go to Chattanooga and endeavor to overwhelm General Rosectans.

General McClernand's troops were compeled to embark for Milliken's Bend, sixteen miles above Vicksburg, owing to high water.

Recent operations at Lake Providence and elsewhere resulted in inundating more than one hundred miles of Louisiana territory, destroying millions of dollars worth of property. The rebel guerillas suffered fearfully by the flood. ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY.
