FROM GEN. HOOKER'S ARMY CAVALRY DASH ACROSS THE RAP-PAHANNOCK.

A Series of Conflicts and Victories.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, }

A most brilliant cavalry fight occurred on the Rappahannock yesterday, beyond Kelly's Ford. A reconnoissance, under command of Gen. Averforced a passage over the river in the face of a determined resistance of aconsideration only of sharpshooters, who were covered by houses, ride-pits and a dry mill-race with an abattis in front. The ford admitted but a single horseman at a time, and the stream was swollen and rapid, at a time, and the stream was swollen and rapid, arriving on the south side of the river, our cavairy charged the enemy in their enternehments, alling and capturing nearly the entire force, be sides securing a large number of horses picketed near by. A short distance from the shore Gen. Averill's command encountered the rebel cavalry Averill's command encountered the rebet cavalry under Gens. Stuart and Fitzhugh Lee, who had hastened from Culpeper to prevent our passage. They made some dashing charges upon our troops, who repulsed, and in turn charged them with fatsi effect, using sabres only in the condict. Whenever the enemy made a stand they were immediately charged upon and routed from this position with severe loss.

their position with severe loss.

The battle lasted about five hours, and was a eries of charges and hand to-hand conflicts, re-sulting in the enemy falling back. The force engaged was about two thousand on each side. engaged was about two thousand on case in the enemy at last took refuge behind an entrenched battery, about four miles from the ford, flatked by rifle pits and abattis. Gen. Averill having accomplished his object, and securing his prisoners, the wounded on both sides, and a large prisoners, the wounded on both sides, and a larg number of horses, he recrossed the river withou attack or demonstration on the part of the rebels, who were so badly whipped that they could not follow to annoy him.

Among the prisoners is Major Breckinridge, cousin of the traitor John C. Breckinridge. The prisoners characterize the affair on our part as prisoners characterize the affair on our part as one of the ablest and most gallantly-fought eavily raids of the whole war, and a tmit that their own troops were totally demoralized by the gallant sabre charges of our cavalry.

About eighty prisoners have been brought in. The wounded of the enemy bear sufficient marks that the sabre was the only weapon read on our

Rumored Repulse of Admiral Farragut's Fleet.

Washington, March 19. News of much importance, if it be true, reaches ms from Fortress Monroe, based upon the state-ments of rebel newspapers at Richmond, to the effect that the fleet of Admiral Farragut has been repulsed by the rebels at Port Hudson, the frigate Mississippi burned and the flagship Hart-ford disabled. It would appear from the account fird disabled. It would appear from the according of this affair, that our land forces were not en gaged, and it may have been merely a naval reconnoissance, attended probably with some disaster, which has been considerably exaggerated at the rebel sources of information—the only ones from which we derive any intelligence so

LATER-THE REPORT DENIED.

CIRCINNATI, March 19.

The reported destruction of the Mississippi, in Farragut's attack upon and repulse from Port Hudson, is now denied by the Richmond papers, which admitted that one of our vessels succeeded in running the hatteries. in running the batteries.

Another Fight on the Blackwater. A very spirited battle took place on the Black A very spirited battle took place on the block water on Tuesday morning. General Peck despatched the Eleventh Pennsylvania cavalry, under Col. Spear, and two sections of the Seventh Massachusetts hattery to attack the enemy's intenchments, commanded by Gen. Jenkins, of South Carolina, opposite Franklin. The fight commenced at nine o'clock A. M., and was careful as the commenced at the commenced ried on briskly for an hour. Two separate cav-alry charges were made on the fortifications. These were found to be literally lined with infantry, who poured a deadly fire into our ranks, wounding many in the first charge, which was made by Major Stratton, who was wounded in older. The second charge was conducted the shoulder. The second charge was conducted by Major Cornog, who led his men up to the fortifications to try and jump the ditch, but the move was soon found to be impracticable. The enemy opposed a heavy force of infantry and cavalry to the right and left of our position. Our loss was 17 wounded and missing. For the Reading Guzette and Democrat.

A CORRECTION.

READING, March 14, 1863. Mr. Getz:—As guarded as I generally hereto-fore have been in making charges against a po-litical—opponent, I unreservedly acknowledge that I have in a measure done wrong (but not wilfully) to Mr. Ashmun, in accusing him with being the author of the "Extract" published in the Gazette of Feb. 21, and republished this morning. But to explain. On Monday last, I visited a neighboring county and returned home this morning. Whilst away, a letter from my absent friend (who had furnished me with the absent friend (who had turnished me with the "Extracts" of the speeches of Messrs. Delano and Ashmun) arrived—it was on last Thursday— in which he states, that on the 10th inst. he ac-cidentally met with the Gazette of the 21st Feb-ruary, containing the "Extract" already alluded to in which he discovered an error-not an intentional one on his part—and writes me "to hasten and have it corrected." My friend is in the habit of copying extracts from speeches on slips of paper, and endorsing them with the names of the authors, but in this instance he misplaced Mr. Ashmun's name. I am exceed ingly sorry that I could not be at home on Thurs--in time to prevent its republication this morning. It is very unpleasant to be obliged to recall a statement published to the world as true, but an honorable man will not fail to do so (and that unhesitatingly) as soon as he discovers his error, and will not wait until a demand is made upon him. Such a person is my absent friend, who regrets this occurrence extremely, and offers as an apology to Mr. Ashmun and to such as have received it as truth, that he undesignedly placed paper. The following is the "Extract" of a speech, delivered by Mr. Ashmun during the Mexican war, which my friend had intended to hand to me, and which he assures me positively is "true and no mistake." The reader will find the sentiments to be similar to those previously missentiments to desimar to tease previously misquoted. It would be an appropriate speech at the present time; but if delivered by a Democrat, he would be denounced by the Editor of the Journal as a "Copperhead" or Traitor.

Mr. Ashmun said: ·I shall not be deterred from a discussion o "I shall not be deterred from a discussiful of the subject here, and at this time, by the miserable cry of those whose duty and profit it is to yield a ready subservence to power, that the present is not the proper time to make this inquiry; that we should wait until the war is over before we should presume to investigate the conduct of the Executival Six it is more the conduct of the Executival Six it is more the conduct. tive! Sir, it is never toe soon, for a people who commonwealth and to repeal the act passed desire to remain free, to acrutinize the conduct of those who are in power. The time may come when it may be too late—FATALLY TOO LATE. But it can never be too soon. Eternal vigilance, tireless fails to proclaim and denounce it, is an false to his duty. AS MUCH A TRAITOR TO HIS COUNTRY, as the man who deserts to the enemy's standard upon the field of battle. Can it be possible, that in a government like ours, war may be waged, and the people may not ask, wherefore? That armies may be levied—the heart of a neighbor. armies may be levied—the heart of a neighbor-ing Republic be invaded—expeditions of foreign conquest under the lead of questionable charac-ters set on foot—MILLIONS OF DOLLARS EX-PENDED—THE BLOOD OF OUR GALLANT SOLDIERS POURED OUT—and that our mouths are to be sealed as to the causes or necessity which have produced such results? Sir, I ACKNOWLEDGE NO SUCH SLAVISH DOCTRIME. Scorn, contempt, and utter loathing, are all they deserve. They belong rightfully to the lips of those who live by the Brigodierships—the Paymasterships—and other crumbs which fall from the Executive table, and whose patriotism is valorous and loud mouthed in proportion to their chance for getting office and emolument. But I hold that we should be and emolument. But I hold that we should be false to our trust as representatives, if we fail to hold to a strict accountability those who are remporarily in office, administering the Executive departments of the Government. THOSE MEN ARE NOT THE COUNTBY. They are, for a brief period, the instruments for conducting the affairs of the Government and the country. The power of the sovereign people is only partially; all all all to the tovernment and the country. The power of the sovereign popels is only partially delegated for special purposes. How about and preposterous, then, is the clamor, that when we venture to creature these agents of the from the country of the pro-PLE, WE ARE ARRAYING OURSELVES AGAINST OUR COUNTRY !"

Again, Mr. Ashmun said:
"It is for such a war, leading to such consequences, that we are now, in our character as representatives, called upon to note sumpties. TREASURE, AND HUMAN LIFE—MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AND THOUSANDS OF MEN—are demanded of us, to be expended to accomplish such a result. And we are told that, without scruple, without complaint, it is our duty to great this domand. We are told that now, after the war has been begun the Executive is charged with full power over its conduct and end, and that our duty, as good patriots, is to yield to his request, and keep SILENT AS TO HIS USURPATIONS. Sir, I hold to no such slavish doctrine. I deem it my duty to resist and denounce it. WHENEVER AND HOWEVER ATTEMPTED TO BE EN

Will the Editor of the Journal please inform his readers whether Mr. Ashmun was a "Cop perhead" or Traitor during the war with Mexico?

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

HARRISHURG, Thursday, March 12. SENATE.—Mr. Clymer presented petitions from Berks county, for the passage of a law prohibiting the immigration of blacks and mulattoes. On motion of the same Senator, the further sup plement to the act incorporating the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Berks county, was taken up and passed. The bill to release the Wyoming Canal Company from the payment of about $8,000 due the State, was debated, and finally passed. Adjourned.

Adjourned.

Houss.—Mr. Beck moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday by which the bill relative to tonnage duties on railroads was passed. The motion was agreed to—yeas 52, nays 48. Mr. Vincent then proposed a substitute for the whole bill, taxing equally the tonnage of all railroads in the State; to which Mr. Rex offered an smendment, directing the Attorney General forthwith to bring suit against the Pennsylvania forthwith to bring suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the recovery of the amount of tonnage duties due to the State at the time of the passage of the Act of March, 1861, abolishing the tonnage duties. The subject led to a long and excited debate, during which Mr. Hopkins (Washington) declared that men had voted against the restoration of the tonnage tax upon the floor of this House who had been pledged, before their election, to vote for its re imposition. He had no doubt but that they had sufficiently substantial reasons for their course. The personal discussion continued further, amid confusion upon the floor. The intimation of bribery was freely thrown out, and Mr. Labar declared loudly that attempts had been made to bribe his colleague, Mr. Jas. R. Bollkau, member from Bucks. The Mr. Jas. R. Botleau, member from Bucks. The Hall and the House were full of "borers," and he had seen members whisper and talk and argue with these "borers," and come back in their seats with changed views. These things were a gross outrage upon the rights of the honest vermanty of the State and resulted in the reh yeomanry of the State, and resulted in the rob bery of the tax payers, the orphan and the wid ow. It was time that such acts were known and stopped. The speech of Mr. Labar was the most bitter and pointed in its assertions which has been delivered on the subject of legislative corruption for a number of years. The substi-tute and amendment were finally adopted, and the bill passed. The Berks county Representa-ives, Messrs. Kline, Potteiger and Weidner, voted against the reconsideration, for the amend nent of Mr. Rex, and against the substitute, as finally passed. Adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Lamberton introduced joint re-solutions requesting the Governor to ask for the return of the Pennsylvanias Reserve Corps to the state for the purpose of recruiting its decimated ranks. A supplement to the Free Banking law was passed, so as to authorize the Auditor General to receive deposits of United States stocks on a par with State stocks as a basis for the circulation of Bank notes. Mr. Clymer called up the bill imposing a special tax in the township of Penn and borough of Bernville, Berks county, for the payment of bounties to volunteers. Passed finally. Adjourned till Monday evening at 7½ o'clock.

House.—Mr. Weidner introduced a supplement to the charter of the East Pennsylvania Railroad Company, authorizing the extension of the road to the Delaware river, with six-mile branches. A bill allowing the Revenue Commissioners $5 a day and mileage, was considered and passed. The General Appropriation bill was then taken up, and discussed during the remainder of the again. The general sections to the der of the session. The several sections, to the 56th, were severally read, and agreed to, with some amendments. The 51st section, appropriating $40,000 for an extension of the Capitol buildings, was stricken out—yeas 31, nays 37. Adjourned till Monday evening.

MONDAY, March 16. SENATE.—A number of petitions were present ed, for a National Convention, and for a law t prevent the immigration of negroes into this State. A message was received from the Governor, nominating Wien Forney, (John's brother) editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph, as State Librarian for three years, in place of the venerable Rev. Dr. Dewitt, who has held the office for many years. The House held to discrete Harris Malling and Market Market Walling. years. House.—A message was received from the Governor, in answer to an inquiry from the House, stating that, to the best of his belief, the expenses of the militia called out during the rebel raid last fall were about three hundred thousand dollars, and that he would visit Washington this week with reference to the settlement of this matter. A large number of petitions were presented, for a National Convention, for a law to prevent the immigration of negroes into the State, and for restoring the tonnage tax. Messrs.
Barger and Quigley moved a reconsideration of the vote on the final passage of the tonnage tax bill, which motion was made the special order

REPORTED CAPTURE OF MEXICO.

The Richmond papers of the 17th, received at Fortress Monroe on the 18th, announce the cap-ture of the city of Mexico by the French army. No date its assigned for the event. It is just pos-sible that the Richmond authorities may be in possession of such news, received by way of Texas, and telegraphed from Houston to Port Hudson, and thence to the rebel capital; but its authenticity is, to say the least of it, doubtful. General Forev's army left Orizaba for Puebla General Forey's army left Orizaba for Puebla
—a distance of forty miles—on the 19th, 21st and 23d of February; and it was understood that the Mexican forces were prepared to defend that position, in which case it would have required some time to reduce it. Still, it may be that the Mexicans did not stand to defend Puebla, and that the French occupied it without opposition, and marched thence on the capitalthe thrift which follows fawning—those of our army to cheer the soldiers. FLOUR AND GRAIN.—There is little or no inquiry for our, and holders are free sellers at previous quotations, to market change irrespondent. but little or ne demand either for shipment or milling, and prices are nesttled and drouping; good and prime seds are offered at $1 65@$1 70 and white at $1 80 to $1 90, as a quality, without finding huyers to any extent. Kye is quiet, but steady at 1000, for Pa. Corn continues firm and about 8000 bnabels, mostly yellow, were disposed of at $89, 880, chiefly at the latter figure for prime dry lots, aflout, including $90 bnabels white at 90@91 cents Oans are wanted, and prime Pennsylvania readily brings 14@750, weight. There is very little demand for Cloverseed, and prices are unsettled and lower, with ssies of 330 bnabels at $5 75@$ 87½ $7 bnabel, mostly at the latter rate for prime. Timothy is quiet, and Flazzsed scarce; the fatter sold at $4 00 $7 bnabels prime. Timorhy is quiet, and Fiaxased scarce: the latter sold at $4.50 % bushel.

There is very little demand for Whiskey; barrels sell slowly at 49@50c, and drudge at 48c.

1RON.—The market for Pig Metal is firm but quiet at the advance, with but little stock to operate in, most makers being sold ahead of their production, and the sales are confined in small lots of Antiracite, on the spot, at $50@ $37 for No. 1; $54@35 for No. 2, and $23@34 for No. 3, cach and 4 months. Scotch Pig is held above the views of buyers. Manufactured Iron is firm, with an active demand to note for bars and rails at fully former prices.

CATTLE MARKET:—The offerings of Beet Cattle show a further falling off this week, only reaching about 1400 head at Phillips' yards. Prices were rather better, and all offered sold at from $7 to $10 for common to prime, in cluding extra quality at $10 in $200 to $20 cach for Springers, and $25 to $40 for Cowa and Caives. Hogs were also full 50c better, and some $200 head were taken at $5@0 the 100 hs net Sheep have advanced considerably, only about 1400 head at 15 merets, and all of merets, and all of merets, and all of the prices which the second of the second of the primer and all of merets, and all of the prices of the primer and all of the prices of the primer and all of the prices of the primer and all of merets, and all of the prices of the primer and the prices of the primer and all of the prices of the primer and the prices of the primer and all of the prices of the primer and the prices of the primer and all of the prices of the primer and the primer and the primer and all of the prices of the primer and the primer and all of the prices of the primer and the primer an wester, and some 2000 nead were taken at $5@9 the 10 fbs net Sheep have advanced considerably, only about 100 head, all at market, sold at 9@10 # fb. gross, whice is the highest price realized for a very long time.—Nort.
