ARREST OF VALLANDIGHAM. He is Tried by a Military Court.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 5th, gives the following account of the arrest of the Hon. CLEMENT L. VALLANDIGHAM, which was briefly iclographed to the papers East last week: "A special train left Cincinnati at midnight, Mon day, May 4, with a company of the 13th United States Infantry, sixty seven men, with directions from Gen. Burnside, commanding the Depart-Vallandigham's house, placed guards on the street in the vicinity, and the Captain commanding with a squad of men, surrounded the house. The door-bell was rung, and Mr. Vallandigham sppeared at the window, but he was not dis posed to surrender. He called for the police. The Captain told him he had the force to arrest him, and would certainly do so. Mr. Vallandigham then said he was not dressed. The Captain told him he would have time to dress himself, when he again called for the police; an attempt was made to force the front door. The door registed the efforts of the soldiers, and two or three shots were fired without effect. A side door was then forced, and the squad, finding all the doors in the house fastened, broke open four of them before they reached the apartment occupied by Mr. V., who was soon taken to the train, which was in waiting. Some of Mr. Vallandigham's friends hearing what was going on, rang the fire-bells with the intention of gathering a crowd to attempt a rescue. But the attempt was unsuccessful, and Mr. Vallandigham was conveyed to Cincinnati, and lodged in the prison on Columbia street, between Sycamore and Broadway, where no one was permitted to see him without an order from General Burn-

Mr. Vallandigham was arraigned and tried before a Court Martial, composed of Brigadier-Gen. Potter, President; Col. Decourcey, Lieut. Colonel Goodrich, Major Van Buren, Major Brown, Major Fitch, and Captain Lydig. Captain Cutts was Judge Advocate. The charge and specification against him are given below. He refused to plead to the charge, and the plea of "not guilty" was entered for him. He managed his own defence, summoned few witnesses, and concluded by filing a protest against the jurisdiction of a Court Martial for the trial of citizens, and demanding an indictment by the Grand Jury and a trial in a civil Court, &c. CHARGE.

Publicly expressing, in violation of General Order No. 38, from Headquarters, Department of the Ohio, his sympathies for those in arms against the government of the United States, declaring disloyal sentiments and opinions, with the object and purpose of weakening the power of the government in its efforts to suppress an unlawful rebellion. SPECIFICATION.

In this, that the said Clement L. Vallandigham, a citizen of the State of Ohio, on or about the 1st day of May, 1863, at Mount Vernon, Knox county, Ohio, did publicly address a large meeting of citizens, and did utter sentiments, in words or in effect, as follows, declaring the present war "a wicked, cruel and unnecessary war;"
"a war not being waged for the preservation of "a war not being waged for the preservation of the Union:" "a war for the purpose of crush-ing out liberty and erecting a despotism;" "a war for the freedom of the blacks and the en-stavement of the whites;" stating, "that if the alministration had so wished, the war could have been honorably terminated months ago;" have been monrably extended and monrably obtained by listening to the proposed intermediation of France;" that "propositions by which the Southern States could be won back and the South be guarantied their rights under the Constitution, had been rejected the day before the late battle at Frederickshops by Lincoln and his minions." had been rejected the day before the late battle at Fredericksburg, by Lincoln and his minions," meaning thereby the President of the United States and those under him in authority. Charging "that the government of the United States were about to appoint military marshals in every district to restrain the people of their liberties, to deprive them of their rights and privileges." Characterizing General Order No. 38, from Headquarters Department of the Ohio, as "a base usurpation of arbitrary authority," inviting his hearers to resist the same, by saying, "the soonhearers to resist the same, by saying, "the soon-er the people inform the minions of usurped "that he was at all times, and upon all occa-sions, resolved to do what he could to defeat the attempts now being made to build up a monarchy upon the ruins of our free government;" asserting "that he firmly believed, as he said six months ago, that the men in power are attempting to establish a despotism in this country, cruel and more oppressive than ever ex-

All of which opinions and sentiments he well knew did aid, comfort and encourage those in arms against the government, and could but induce in his hearers a distrust of their own goveroment and sympathy for those in arms against it, and a disposition to resist the laws of the land. MB. VALLANDIGHAM'S PROTEST. MR. VALLANDIGHAM'S PROTEST.

Arrested without due process of law, without warrant from any judicial officer, and now in military custody. I have been served with a charge and specifications as from a court-marcharge and specifications as from a court-mar-tial or military commission. I am not either in the land or naval service of the United States, and, therefore, am not tryable for any cause by any such court, but am subject, by the express terms of the Constitution, to arrest only by due process of law, or warrant issued by some officer of a court of competent jurisdiction for trial of citizens. I am subject to indictment and trial on presentment of a grand jury, and am entitled to presentment of a grand jury, and am entitled to a speedy trial, to be confronted with witnesses, and to compulsory process for witnesses in my hehalf, and am entitled to counsel. All these I demand as my right, as a citizen of the United States, under the Constitution of the United States. But the alleged offence itself is not known to the Constitution, nor to any law thereof. It is words spoken to the people of Ohio in an open public political meeting, lawfully and peacefully assembled, under the Constitution, and upon full notice.

It is the words of a citizen, of the public policy of the public servants of the people, by which policy it was alleged that the welfare of which policy it was alteged that the wettare of the country was not promoted. It was an ap-peal to the people to change that policy, not by force, but by the elections and the ballot box. It is not pretended that I counseled disobedience to the Constitution, or resistance to law or law-ful authority. I have never done this. I have othing further to submit.

May 7, 1863. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM.

The Court Martial in the Vallandigham case submitted their decision to Major General Burn12th corps.

R. H. Wieber, Captain and A. D. C. 2d division published in General Orders. The decision is only surmised, but is supposed to be against the lith corps. accused.

A habeas corpus on Mr. Vallandigham's behalf, has been applied for before Judge Swayne, of the Supreme Court of the United States. The question is, will the Court interpose to protect the continuing liberty of the citizen. or, dethe constitutional liberty of the citizen, or, declining to interpose, abandon that liberty to the H. F. Brownson, Captain and A. A. G. tender mercies of arbitrary military power? The result of the application is not yet known.

WAR NEWS!

Latest from the Army of the Potomac.

Gen. Hooker still Encamped at Falmouth.

The Enemy Molding the Meights at Fredericksburg.

Washington, May 13. A report was current yesterday that the enemy had left their formidable position along the heights of Fredericksburg, but a close observation hast evening disclosed the fact that their numbers there had not been diminished. They were still at that point in force last evening.

Notwithstanding all the reports that the army of the Hecken again agreement the Benny meut of the Ohio, to arrest C. L. Vallandigham, of then Hooker has again crossed the Rappa-hamoek and resumed the offensive, no forward movement had taken place up to Monday noon. movement had taken place up to Monday noon.

At the time of our recrossing the river at United States Ford, it is believed that only two divisions of the enemy's forces remained on our front, near Chancellorsville, as a rear guard. The divisions mentioned were Commanding General Anderson's and McLaw's.

Gen. Hooker's Congratulatory Order. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 6. 1863 .- The following order has been issued:

GENERAL ORDERS, NO 49. The Major-General Commanding tenders to this army his congratulations on its achievements of the last seven days. If it has not accomplished all that was expected, the reasons are known to the army. It is sufficient to say that they were of a character not to be foreseen or prevented by human sagacity or resources.

In withdrawing from the south bank of the Rappahannock, before delivering a general battle to our adversaries, the army has given renew-ed evidence of its confidence in itself and its fidelity to the principles it represents. In fighting at a disadvantage, we would have been reoreant to our trust, to ourselves, our cause and our country. Profoundly loyal and conscious of its strength, the Army of the Potomac will give or decline battle whenever its interest or honor may demand. It will also be the guardian of its own history and its own arm. By our celerity and secresy of movement our advance and passage of the rivers was undisputed, and on our withdrawal, not a Rebel ventured to follow. The events of the last week may swell with pride the hearts of every officer and soldier of this army. We have added new lustre to its former renown.

We have made long marches, crossed rivers, surprised the enemy in his intrenchments, and whenever we have fought have inflicted heavier whenever we have rought have intered newter blows that we have roceived. We have taken from the enemy five thousand prisoners, fifteen colors, captured and hors tought off seven pieces of artillery, placed hors to ecombat eighteen thousand of his chosen troops, destroyed his depots filled with vast amounts of stores, deranged his communications, captured prisoners within the forti fications of his capital, and filled his country regret than that caused by the loss of our brave companions, and in this we are consoled by the conviction that they have fallen in the holiest cause ever submitted to the arbitrament of bat

Our Losses in the Late Battles. [From the Correspondence of the N. Y. Times,] HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, }

The total loss of our army in the series of engagements which it has encountered during the last ten days, is estimated by competent judges at about seventeen thousand. Dr. Letterman, Medical Director of the Army, estimates the total number of wounded at ten thousand. total number of wounded at ten thousand. Add to this prisoners and wounded now in rebel hands, some seven thousand more. The enemy's loss cannot have been less than our own. In the battle of Monday evening, at Salem Heights, it was much greater, as they rushed upon our batteries with all the recklessness which charac-terized their charges on our batteries at Malvern Hill. No better evidence of the severe punishment which they received is needed than the fact of their not pusuing us when recrossing the riv-

President Lincoln, Gen. Halleck and Secretary Stanton, who have been here, returned to Washington last evening.

Col. Irwin, of the Forty-ninth Pennsylvania, wounded at the laying of the pontoons, is to be conveyed to Washington this morning, with large number of others. The wounded in the hospitals at Potomac Creek bridge are to be taken to the Capital. Col. Spear, Sixty-first Pennsylvania, killed in the same charge, was shot in the same place and manner as Col. Ripley, the first Colonel of the regiment, who lost his life at the battle of Fair Oaks.

There was also an Executive Committee of eighteen appointed, consisting of two from each School district of the township.

The meeting was ably and cloquently addressed by Hon. S. E. Ancona, William Rosenthal, and Eli Becker, Esqrs.; after which, the following Resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

The taking up of the bridges over the Rappa-hannock cut off the retreat of several of our soler the people inform the minions of usurped diers who were employed on detached duty on power that they will not submit to such restriction the other side. Lieut. Brown, of the Sixty first Pennsylvania, who was detailed on picket, reach-rennsylvania, who was detailed on placet, rescuing the river and finding the bridge gone, swam across with a party of men.

Everything was progressing finely until the rebels succeeded in fianking us, Monday morning above Fredericksburg.

Had it not been for this fatal mistake, pushing on and leaving the heights, a glorious victory would have crowned our efforts. As it is, we cannot be said to have met with a defeat, but a repulse. We have captured a large number of cannon, taken more prisoners than were taken from us, and have lost less in killed and wounded than the enemy. No Generals were killed in the Sixth corps. Gen. Brooks was wounded, and Gen. Mill reported injured. The army is not disheartened or demoralized, ut confident and honeful, desirous again of cross ing the river. In every fair and open fight of The cutting of its way through the rebels by the Sixth corps, was an achievement calculated to inspire the troops with confidence in themselves.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

FRIDAY, May 15, 1868 FRIDAY, May 15, 1868.

FLOUR AND GRAIN.—There is little or no demand for Flour, and the market is dull, buyers having the advantage. The sales are confined to the wants of the trade, at prices ranging from $5.57% to 6 25 for superface; $8.37% (26.67% for extras; $7.607 75 for extra family, and $8.609 % bit for famely brands, as in quality, and the demand limited. Rye Flour is steady at $5.75 bit. Corn Meal is also firm, and Pennsylvania rather scarce at $4.25 % bit. The receipts to-day are 2100 bits flour, 10,000 bushs, wheat, 5000 bushels corn, and 10,000 bushels corn, and 10,000 bushels on the wheat market is unsettled and dull, without much offering or seiling, and Pennsylvania red is quoted at $1.500$ 16.5, without buyers at the lowest figures, and few if any sellers except at the highest rate. White is held at $1.750$ 18.5, as in quality. Rye is scarce and firm, with small receipts and sales of Founsylvania at $1.000$ 10. A sale of northern was made at the latter rate. Corn is scarce, with further sales of 5000 bushels yellow at $20030. along, mostly at the latter rate for prime southern. Cats are unchanged, and 40,0000 bushels pellow at $20030. along, weight. Buyers offer the lowest figures.

Whisker moves off slowly at $1.0046c. for Penna, and Ohio bibs. and 44c. for drudge.

IttON.—There is no new feature in this staple, and but little doing in the way of sales, the transactions being mostly to full of contracts, and we quote anthractic pig nominality at $33, $31 and $35 $10 for for the three numbers. Of Mannfactured Iron the sales are moderate, and chiefly conlined to bars and raths, without change in quotations.

CATTILE MARKET.—The offerings of Beef Cattle reach FLOUR AND GRAIN.—There is little or no demand for CATTLE MARKET.—The offerings of Beef Cattle reac GATTIE MARKET —The offerings of Beef Cattle reach about 1800 head, showing an increase of 400 over those of last week, and the market was dull and prices 25c the 110 like lower, ranging from $9.50 to $13 for common to good and extra quality. The bulk of the cales were at from $1 to $12 50 the 100 lbs, and the market closed dull with some lett over. Of Berks county Cattle, 25 head were at market, 12 of which wore sold by $8. Rhoads at $100 lbs. Cours and Calves—About $5 old at from $20 to $5.5 sech for Springers and $25 to $45 for Cows and Calves, which is rather higher. Hogs were a fraction heter, and shout 250 were offered and sold at full prices, including 1858 at Glass' 17 to $815 the 100 lbs nett. Sheep and Lambs were also better, with sales of 2500 at 19010c. $7 lb gross or the former, wond one 2500 lbs. for clupped, and $5500 cach for Lambs.—North American.
