To the Hog. Gideon Welles. Secretary of the Navy: On the morning of the 15th, 1 came over to the Yazoo River to be ready to co operate with Gen eral Grant, leaving two of the iron-clads at Red River, one at Grand Gulf, one at Carthage, and three at Warrenton and two in the Yazoo, which left me a small force. Still I disposed of them it to the best advantage. On the 18th, at meridian, f firing was heard in the rear of Vicksburg, which assured me that General Grant was approaching the city.

WORKS TAKEN AND RETAKEN-OUR LOSS 5.000.

CATRO, May 28.-The steamer Imperial arrived at Memphis from below on Monday morning. From Capt. Stevens, a passenger, we learn the following: The fighting at Vicksburg on Friday was desperate. General Grant charged the fortifications and took some of them, but the rebels rushed and retook them. There was much hand to hand the city. The cannonading was kept up furiously for some time, when, by the sid of glasses, I dis-serned a company of our artillery advancing, tsking a position, and driving the rebels before the cannonading was kept up furiously for game time, when, by the sid of glasses, I dis-tighting. Captain Stevens says our loss our host day in killed and wounded was about 5,000. The rebels used hand greanades when our forces titement d to storm the combined hand greanades when our forces Listenpice to storm the works. It is reported that one of Gen. Banks' corps had arrived at Warrenton to reinforce Gen. Grant. Jackson, Miss. has been destroyed, and the Federal army which occupied that place are now acting as a reinforcement for Grant.

REBEL REPORTS-SIX ASSAULTS UPON THE

FORTIFICATIONS REPULSED.

CINCINNATI, May 28.—By way of Murfrees-boro, we have rebel news that Pemberton has repulsed six assaults on Vicksburg, but they greatly feared the next, which was about being made. They also say that Loring cut his way through at Haines' Bluff, and escaped The fact is, that wheever commanded them was cut off from communication with the forces in the oity. Washington, May 28.—The Richmond Whig, of the 25th, contains a telegram by way of Mo-ble, saying the latest intelligence from Vicks-burg is up to Thursday night, adding, "The enemy has been folled in all his efforts. His deal strew the ground in front of our works. CINCINNATI, May 29. CINCINNATI, May 29.

CINCINATI, May 29. Rumors and reports from Vicksburg are abun-dant. The latest definite intelligence is a brief despatch to the Commercial, dated "On the Field, near Vicksburg, Saturday, May 23d," which says "there is no fighting to-day. The troops are resting from yesterday's assault. Our re-pulse was complete on all parts of the line. No discouragement need be entertained as to our final success. The city is closely invested and must succumb to our attack sconer or later. We are entrenching and building rifle pits. Cavalry are entrenching and building rifle pits. Cavalry have been sent out towards Canton, to ascertain General Joe Johnston's whereabouts. Our loss
