How lovely nature In splendor shines! How leaps the sunlight O'er smiling vines! Now buds are bursting From every limb: In field and thicket, Sweet voices hymp. Our happy spirits O'erflow with bliss: Hail! earth and sunlight! What joy is this!

EMBOLLING A JACKASS.—Harper's "Drawer contains this "enrolling" anecdote: The enrolling officer of Salisbury District, Maryland, was very active and thorough in the performance of his duty. One day he went to the house of a countryman, and finding none of the male members of the family at home, made inquiry of an old woman, the number and age of the "males" of the family. Atter naming several, the old lady stopped. "Is there no one else?" asked the officer. "No!" replied the woman, "none except Billy Bray." "Billy Bray! where is he?"

"He was at the barn a moment ago," said the old lady. Out went the officer, but could not see the man. Coming back, the worthy officer questioned the old lady as to the age of Billy, and went away, after enrolling his name among those to be drafted. Time of the drafting came, and one of those on whom the lot fell was Billy Bray. No one knew him. Where did he live? The officer who enrolled him was called on to produce him, and, lo, behold, Billy Bray was a jackass! him, and, lo, behold, Billy Bray was a jackass! 13th " " 12th " " and stands now on the list of drafted men as 10th " " forming one of the quota of Maryland.

Mn. Montgomery, recently editor of the Vicksburg Whig, tells a good story of the landlord of a hotel at Holly Springs, Miss. It was a large, fashionable hotel, and the landlord was a pompous man, with a huge corporosity, and a ruffled shirt bosom. Printed bills of fare were provided, yet the landlord stood at the head of the table, at dinner, and in a loud voice read off the list of articles in a rhyming way: "Here's boiled ham, and raspberry jam; baked potatoes, and cooked tomatoes; turnips smashed, and squashes squashed," and so on. Mr. M. asked him afterward, why he read it aloud when printed copies were on the table. "Force of habit," replied the landlord; "got so used to it I can't help it. You see I commenced business down the G. W. Hantsoh I. M. G. W. Hantsoh I. M. G. W. Hantsoh I. M. G. W. Hantsoh help it. You see I commenced business down here at Jackson" (the Capital of Mississippi) "and most all the Legislature boarded with me. There wasn't a man of 'em could read, so I had to read the bill of fare to 'em."

AUNT E. was trying to persuade little Eddy to retire at sundown:

"You see, my dear, how the little chickensego to roost at that time." "Yes, aunty," replied Eddy, "but the old hens always go with them."

AR OLD BACHELOR geologist was once boasting that every rock was as familiar to him as the alphabet. A lady who was present declared that she knew of a rock of which he was ignorant. "Name it," said Cyclops, in a rage-

OF THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY. ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY.

IT IS WEBL KNOWN THAT THIS COMpany, in the few years since the construction of the Emirord, has sold a large number of Parms to settlers, who, mostly in a short time, enjoyed a degree of prospentry, which is sufficient evidence of the quality of the soil, and the facilities for disposing of its produce. The numerous villages which have sprung up in this short time also indicate the abundant resources of the country.
The land is rich PRAIRIE SOIL, often thickly wooded.
Woodland can generally be purchased at short distances and low prices—sometimes of the Company. The various hinds of grain are successfully cullivated. Fruit, Grapes, deing row rapidly, and yield abundantly and of superior quality. The fruit market is probably the best in West. For the raising of Gattle there is no better country to be found. Considering the infancy of the settlements, mark has already been done for Schools.

West. For the raising of Gattle there is no better country to be found. Considering the infence of the settlements, much has already been done for Schools.

The Company offers to settlere great advantages. The land is sold—Wood or Frairie,—at from $6 to $12 per aure, according to its distance from the Railroad. At the time of purchase, only the interest of the purchase money is required. For the S first years, likewise out following, each one distance of the fourth year and their the expiration of seven years, the was clearly thus after the expiration of seven years, the was clearly thus after the expiration of seven years, the was clearly the seven years.

Age The undersigned the been appointed agent, and having personally examined the land, is able to give exact information. All communications to be addressed to JOHN ENDLICH, Agent, March 21-41]
