Final Hearing in the Berks County Conspiracy Case.

()n Tuesday last the final hearing of Messrs. Huber, Illig, Oxenreider, Reed, Filbert, Muthart United States, under the act of March 8d, 1863, was held before United States Commissioner Henzlett, in Philadelphia. The District Attorney represented the prosecution, and Messrs. J. tilancy Jones, J. P. O'Neill and Charles Buckwalter, the defence. The first witness called was Levi Stoltz, who was unable to speak English. Ex Sheriff Manderbach, of Berks county, acted as interpreter.

Levi Stoltz, sworn-My name is Levi Stoltz; I Levi Stotts, sworn—My name is Levi Stotts; I live in Jackson township, Lebanon county; I am a carpenter; know Huber; saw him at Sellers'; was at a meeting with him; at an outside meeting: any one could come; the meetings were held in the house and in the barn; after the meeting in the house there was one in the barn: Huber was there; cannot say if Oxenreider was there. In regard to the alleged private meeting the witness was entirely ignorant.

Samuel Moser, sworn—I live in Bern township,
Berks county; I understand but little English; am a distiller; was born in Berks county; know loidel - Seidel swore me into the society in April last: Huber was not there, or Oxenreider or any of the others charged; paid a dollar an joining; the society met at Henry Moser's; was initiated at a private meeting; no guards were outside; persons who were not members did not try to get in; I swore to the Union and the Constitution, that was all; were told that we must be drafted as the rest, and should not resist the draft; we were sworn not to resist the draft; we were sworn to support the draft.

Mr. Coffey—Was there a public meeting held before you went into the barn? -We were not in the barn. The dollar was paid by us to pay for flags, etc. We swore we would not resist the draft; that was a part of the oath; no speeches were made; the meeting lasted about an hour; I have told everything to which I swore, and all that was done at the meeting; the whole hour was consumed in administering the oath; do not know to how many it was administrated there were private signs. tering the oath; do not know to now many it was administered; there were private signs; we were sworn not to tell the secret; the secret consisted in the signs and passwords; we held up our right hands to support the Union, the Constitution, and the draft; I do not remember the passwords; only attended one meeting, and none since; do not know how many were initiated: a good many not know how many were initiated; a good many were there; nob dy explained the meaning of the signs; the meeting was a common Democratic meeting; I do not know why they had the signs and passwords; have heard of other meetings where they had signs and passwords; do not have they had signs and passwords.

ings where they had sigue and passwords; do not know that secret meetings are against the principles of the Democratic party.

Sarah Bauer, sworn—I live in Berks county, in Lower Heidelberg; know Huber; was at a house where he had a meeting; there was a private meeting; Huber was there; know most all who were at the meeting; it was in the beginning of March, at William Hart's; I was there as a servant maid; was in the room below, which was the kicken; about forty persons came into the the kitchen; about forty persons came into the room where Huber was; if they were drafted, each should get a pistol and resist being taken; he said this after they were sworn in; I did not hear all that was said; saw them in the room with their right hands raised; I was looking through a knot hole; they talked so much about after they were sworn in, saying if they wanted him they should write that "he should come and pay his debts;" if they were drafted they should pay his decis;" it they were created they should not go, but should resist the draft; I knew a good many there; their names are Rudolph, Samuel, John and Richard Hall, Abe Mushart, Gabriel Ruhl, Gabe Schwarz, Henry Boyer, Hyman Moyer, Benneville Moyer, Peter Peifer, William Heberling, William Schaefer, and a man named Eshleman; they all live in the same neighberload.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Neitl-I have known Huber since Christmas last; had not seen him from that time to March: at the time they were in the meeting I sat on the wood chest; all the time until I went to bed; I looked through a small knot hole in the door; was not afraid of being seen while there; the men stood in a ring around the table; I saw Huber giving them the grips.

At this time Mr. O'Neill approached the witness and the questions and answers were so indistinct as to prevent our catching either.

Henry D. Schoedler, sworn-I live in Reading know Mr. Seidel; on the evening of the last spring election he asked me why I did not join their olnb. He told me it would cost me a dollar to join; I know Mr. Mathart.

Gross examined by Mr. Jones—I am a member of other societies where an initiation fee is paid; of other societies where an initiation fee is paid; I paid $5 to the American Mechanics' Society of Reading; Mr. Seidel is a man of property; he holds property in trust for others; from what I have heard of Mr. Muthart's character, and what I know of him, I do not think that he would in any way assist in breaking the laws; he would at all hazards maintain his Constitutional rights. Mr. Jones did not want to travel outside of the record, as had many times been done in the pro-record, as had many times been done in the progress of this trial. Three meetings have been held, and nothing had been proved even against was simply to protest its members against any future aggressions on their constitutional rights; not to resist the draft, nor to resist the officers of the Government, nor to violate the law of the land in any particular; but, if future contingen-cies should arise requiring it, to protect their rights.

Mr. Confey—" What are those contingencies?"

Mr. Jones—Many people in Berks county are apprehensive that their property may be destroyed; that they may not be allowed to vote; that public meetings may be prohibited; that they may not be able to protect their homes, their wives and children with their own arms.

Commissioner Health—" That is supposing all

Commissioner Heazlitt-" That is supposing all law to be at an end." The Commissioner at this point recommended that the hearing be brought to a close.

Mr. Jones had the same wish; he had endeavored to keep out of it all extraneous matters, and had not in any way alieded to political matters.

On one occasion he had been compelled to reply as to a transaction which had occurred in Berks county, with which he had no more connection than the District Attorney himself, excepting that he acquiesced in it cordially, as he would again. He would now confine himself strictly to the law and the forty. again. Its would now confine numeri strictly to the law and the facts. The question had been asked a witness whether he was a Democrat? Mr. Coffey stated that he made this inquiry to show that he was separating the case from anything political.

He wished to establish that the society was not Demogratic, but an excresseence which intended to resist by force actual or anticipated evil. He was not objecting to anything public and open, but a comspiracy to resist a law of the United States. He saw in the case before him more or

For Spring township, Saturday, June 6th, at 2 cclock, P. M., at Gaul's tavern, Sinking did the District Attorney ask the witness 'Was he a Democrat?'"

Mr. Coffey replied that he had made the inquiry for the purpose of showing that this was not merely a Democratic association, but was merely a pretence for the purpose of resisting the draft. When Seidel asked Mr. Schoedler to join the When School asked Mr. Schoolder to join the Club, he did not say, "Will you join a Demo-cratic Club?" There was a vast difference between inculcating Democratic ideas and making a false use of party feeling.

Mr. Jones said that the defendants were presented.

ent to answer charges under the law, and he himself was there as counsel in their defence He was not a member of the society. He spoke from information derived from his clients and from the testimony. His clients had been instructed by him to come without witnesses, inas." much as the proceedings would be entirely exparte. The question was, whether they were innocent or guilty; whether they had said or done anything that violated the law. It was due to them, as well as to himself, to state that not a single witness could be produced here or else-where, to prove that any member of the Society arrested had ever said that he would resist the Huber, Illig, Oxenreider, Reed, Filbert, Muthart and Seidel, charged with conspiracy against the could be so construed. Mr. Jones said that this was certainly true. As far as his knowledge went, nothing of the kind had been done. He here repeated what Huber had said in regard to here repeated what Huber had said in regard to loading their guns with salt.

Mr. Huber might have said what Miss Bauer had repeated as having come to her ears through the knot hole, but the fact of her father being an earolling officer might have made her ears particularly sharp. Mr. Jones pointed out the disparity in the testimony, all of them witnesses for the Government, regarding the form of the oath. One wilness had sworn that it was to resist, another, to support the draft. In his oninion. another, to support the draft. In his opinion, Mr. Seidel was only preparing for contingencies which might arise and threaten his own property and that which he held in trust for others. All the meetings held by him had been held in open day and in public places.

The assurance could be given with safety that the draft would not be resisted in Berks county.

No such intention had ever existed.

Mr. Jones repeated that there was an apprehension for the future; that the people were alarmed; they were fearful not so much of the present as of the tendencies of the future. The intention was not to resist the laws, but simply to protect their constitutional rights. The de-fendants are here to meet the District Attorney on any ground whatsoever.

Mr. Coffey said he insisted on holding the ground that a case of conspiracy had been made out. He had no idea on what ground they founded their apprehensions of the future.

Mr. Jones—They fear that the day may come in which they may be longer assembly the work. in which they may no longer assemble to express their opinions in a peaceable manner, and that the right of suffrage may be denied them or interfered with.

Mr. Coffey—Do you mean to say that people in Berks county are apprehensive that the right of suffrage will be taken away from them?

Mr. Jones did not vouch for what men said.

Their apprehension was they might not be altered. Inert apprenension was they might be ex-lowed to vote, or that such power might be ex-erted as would prevent them from voting as they wished. Such had already, many of them thought and said, been the case in New Hampshire, Connecticut and Delaware, and their turn might come next.

Oxenreider's; some time in April I was at two meetings; I do not drink; I was sworn in; others were: I know the oath; it was something about the emancipation proclamation, the con-fiscation law, and something about the conscripiscation law, and something about the conscrip-tion; it contained nothing more; I do not re-member all the signs; one was pointing the index finger down, another was holding the finger to the eye, another a grip of the hand; Huber in-structed me in the signs; one password was H. C., and B. D. was the other; do not know what M.C. meant. R. D. meant Richmond; they were M. C. meant; R. D. meant Richmond; they were standing while taking the oath, holding the right hand up; nothing was said about resisting the emancipation; do not think anything was said about confiscation or conscription; nothing was through a knot hole; they talked so much about the Republicans that I listened; Huber swore the men in; I cannot say how long he was in swearing them in; after that he showed the signs, and said that if "the secesh" should raise.

of Lieutenant Commander Walker, after taking possession of the forts at Haines' Bluff, was per-fectly successful. Three powerful steam rams were destroyed at Yazoo City. One was a monster, 310 feet long and 90 feet beam, to be covered with four-inch iron plates. A fine navy yard, with machine shops of all kinds, saw mills, blacksmith shops, &c., were burned up. The property destroyed and captured amounted to over $2,000,000. Had the monster iron ram been finished she would have given us some trouble. One battery was destroyed at Drury's Bluff. Our loss on the expedition was 1 killed and 7 wounded. DAVID D. PORTER, Acting Rear Admiral Commanding.

The Surrender of the City Demanded.

REPLY OF GENERAL PEMBERTON.

Washington, June 4, 1863.

Advices have been received by the Government from Vicksburg up to Sunday night, May 31.

They are of an encouraging character, but no specific intelligence is communicated. The Robel report that Grant had sent thither one corps, are incorrect. Our troops are in good health and spirits.

We are assured upon the highest authority that since the 22d no assault has been made upon the Rebel works; that since the 25th, up to the 31st, no fighting whatever had taken place; and that the Union loss in the assaults of the 21st and 22d has been greatly exaggerated.

Berks and adjoining Counties, that he has been experimenting with a LEVER POWER. One of his aims has been to have a Horse Power that would run light enough to serve well when only a single horse is required and yet be strong enough for four horses. Twenty-eight are in use and all give full satisfaction. This Iloree Power is warranted to run light and to be more durable than any other Horse Power in the conntry.

The subscriber has also a New UNDER SHOT THRESIIEE, which he has invented since last season, which is warranted by far superior to any other kind. The dust lies under the Thresher in place of dying in the feeder's face. Different kinds of Shakers are made to the above Threshers. His TREAD POWER and OVERSHOT THRESHER are so well known that there is no use to say anything about them.

The subscriber has a lot of the most improved HORSE
RAKES on hand, also STRAW CUTTERS, CLOVER BULLERS and a variety of other Agricultural Implements.

All Machines and Implements are warranted to be made of the best materials and to give full satisfaction in every respect. Farmere are respecifully jurited to come and of the best materials and to give full satisfaction in every respect. Farmers are respectfully invited to come and see his Machines before purchasing elsewhere.

All repairing done at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms. Orders will be promptly filled.
