THE SIEGE OF PORT HUDSON. OFFICIAL REPORT BY GEN. BANKS.

Washington, June 9, 1863. The following official report by Gen. Banks was received this morning:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE GULF, LEFORE PORT HUDSON, May 30. M.c. Gen. H. W. Halleck, Gen.-in-Chief, Washington GENERAL: Leaving Sommesport on the Atchafalaya, where my command was at the date of my last dispatch, I landed at Bayou Sara at 2 o'clock

ast dispated, I knowed as bayou sars at 2 o clock on the morning of the 21st.

A portion of the infantry were transported in tenaners, and the balance of the infantry, artillery, cavary, and wagon train moved down on the west bank of the river, and from this to Eayou Sara.

On the 23d a junction was effected with the advance of Maj. Gen. Augur and Brigadier Gen. Sherman, our line occupying the Bayou Sara road at a distance of five miles from Port Hudson. Major-Gen. Augur had an encounter with a portion of the enemy on the Bayou Sara road in the direction of Baton Rouge, which resulted in the repulse of the enemy with beavy loss. On the 25th the enemy was compelled to aban-

Gen. Weitzel's brigade, which had covered our rear on the march from Alexandria, joined us on the 26th, and on the morning of the 27th a general assault was made upon the fortifications. temporarily reduced by detachments to about a brigade, under command of Col. Paine, with two regiments of colored troops, made an assault upon the right of the enen y's works, crossing Sandy Creek, and driving them through the woods to their fortifications.

The fight lasted on this line until 4 o'clock, and was very severely contested. On the left, the infantry did not come up until later in the day; but at 2 o'clock an assault was opened on the center and left of center by the divisions under Major Gen. Augur and Brig. Gen. Sherman.
The enemy was driven into his works, and our troops moved up to the fortifications, holding the opposite sides of the parapet with the enemy on the right. Our troops still hold their position on the left. After dark the main body, being exposed to a flank fire, withdrew to a belt of woods, the skirmishers remaining close upon the

In the assault of the 27th, the behavior of the officers and men was most gallant, and left noth-ing to be desired. Our limited acquaintance of the ground and the character of the works, which were almost hidden from our observation until the moment of approach, alone prevented the Capture of the post.

On the extreme right of our line I posted the Ist and 3d Regiments of negro troops. The lat Regiment of Louisiana Engineers, composed exclusively of colored men, excepting the officers, was also engaged in the operations of the day. The position occupied by these troops was one of importance, and called for the utmost steadiness and beaver in those to whom it was confided. and bravery in those to whom it was confided. It gives me pleasure to report that they answered every expectation. In many respects their conevery expectation. In many respects their conduct was heroic, no troops could be more determined or more daring. They made, during the day, three charges upon the batteries of the enemy, suffering very heavy losses, and holding their position at nightfall with the other troops on the right of our lines. The highest commendation is bestowed upon them by all the officers in command on the right.

Whatever doubt may have existed heretofore as to the efficiency of organizations of this charas to the efficiency of organizations of this character, the history of this day proves conclusively to those who were in condition to observe th conduct of these regiments, that the Government will find in this class of troops effective support-ers and defenders. The severe test to which they were subjected, and the determined manner in which they encountered the enemy, leaves upon my mind no doubt of their ultimate suc-

FURTHER FROM PORT HUDSON. FURTHER FROM PORT HUDSON.

Later news from Port Hudson informs us that Gen. Gardiner, commanding the garrison, had bent in a flag of truce to Gen. Banks, offering to surrender under Pemberton's reported conditions, but the reply of Gen. Banks, like that of Gen. Grant, was unconditional. The rebels fought with great desperation, and whole companies were cut down at their guns. Gen. T. W. Sherman, wounded at Port Hudson, is hardly expected to recover, and among the killed was Major

LATEST FROM VICKSBURG.

Our latest advices from Vicksburg are to the 8th inst. They come from Gen. Grant himself to official persons in Washington. Up to that date the siege was progressing satisfactorily. On the 4th inst. Gen. Grant and Gen. Banks were in communication, Port Hudson at that time, which is the latest date we have, being closely invested. Gen. Grant expresses no fear either of the army in his front or rear, and regards the capture of Vicksburg as certain. The rebels are said to have made an attack on the 6th inst. at Millikin's Bend and Young's Point, and were re-Millikin's Bend and Young's Point, and were re

Dr. G. H. MARKLEY—Dear Sir: For many years I was the viotim of Dysoppels in its most aggravated form; my system having become so much deranged and debitiated, that I was unable to perform any kind of labor. I had resorted to the best doctors within reach, without realief. I used some of the most popular remedies of the day, but none of them did me any good. My smiferings cannot be described in words: I was then living at Hopewell, Chester county, and in 1837, as a last resort, I commenced the use of your medicines. They soon afforded me relief from the most painful symptoms which I had searcely hoped to obtain; and in a surprisingly short time I was completely restored to health, sad I have enjoyed the best of health ever since—not a symptom of my old complaint remaining. Since then, I have always kept your medicines in my family, and would not be without them upon any consideration, as they have never failed to do what you claim for them.

Respectfully yours.
