

WAR NEWS!

INVASION OF PENNSYLVANIA!

A Rebel Force at Chambersburg.

THE STATE CAPITAL THREATENED.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS. The armed insurrectionary combinations now existing in several States are threatening to make incursions into the States of Maryland, Western Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, requiring immediately an additional military force for the service of the United States.

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy thereof, and of the militia of the several States, when called into actual service, do hereby call into the service of the United States 100,000 militia, from the States following, to-wit:

From the State of Maryland 10,000; from the State of Pennsylvania 50,000; from the State of Ohio 30,000; from the State of West Virginia

10,000; to be recruited into the several States forthwith, to serve for the period of six months from the date of such muster into said service, unless sooner discharged; and to be mustered in, in infantry, artillery and cavalry, in proportion, which will be made known through the War Department, which Department will also designate the several places of rendezvous. These militia to be organized according to the rules and regulations of the volunteer service, and such orders as may hereafter be issued. The States co-operating will be respectively credited under the provisions of the proclamation. The militia services rendered under this proclamation.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto set.

Done at the city of Washington this 15th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President: WILLIAM H. SEWARD,

Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR.

In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ANDREW G. CURTIN,

Governor of the said Commonwealth,

I do hereby believe that there are no rebel troops in this State.

The cavalry force, under Jenkins, was at Hagerstown last night. There is no evidence of any military force having been with him.

On leaving Chambersburg the rebels took with them a number of the most prominent farmers in that section of the valley.

HARRISBURG, Friday, June 19.

Two boatsmen who left Williamsport, Md., on Wednesday evening, report that at the time of their leaving, six regiments of mounted infantry were camped on this side of the river, and more were expected to arrive on the opposite side.

Gen. Rhodes's headquarters were on the opposite side of the river at Hagerstown. There were two regiments of infantry camped about two miles this side of the town.

At Williamsport, the rebels were paroling the citizens, and both the boatsmen had their papers.

This morning, Mealy's cavalry is eight miles from Chambersburg.

That portion of the rebel cavalry which left Chambersburg on the 14th of June, and which was reported to have been at Hagerstown on the 15th, is now at Hagerstown, and is reporting to be at Hagerstown, and is
