GOT WHAT HE WARTED .- A young gent is discovered surrounded by his friends, who are testing with him regarding his attentions to a certain young lady.

Young Gent .- " Boys, I'll tell you how it is You see I care nothing for the girl-it is the old man's pocket-book that I am after.

Chorus of Friends .- " Ha, ha!" Second scene.-A parlor. Time, 11 P. M. Young lady seated. Young gent rises to depart; besitates as if bashful, and then slowly remarks: "Miss Matilds, excuse me, but you must be aware that my frequent visits, my attentions, cannot have been without an object.' Young lady .- "Ah, yes, so I heard and shall be only happy to grant what you desire. (Takes from the table a paper parcel, and unfolding it, displays a large, old-fashioned and empty mor rocco pocket-book.) This I have been informed is that object. Permit me to present it to you, and congratulate you that you will have no further occasion to renew these visits and atten-

Two YEARS AGO (writes a correspondent,) at the Spring term of the District Court at Topeka, Kansas, Judge Rush Elmore presiding, a witness was called upon the stand. After being sworn the counsel for the defence said to the witness-a tall, green specimen, and somewhat embarrassed-

'Now, sir, stand up and tell your story like s preacher.

'No sir!' roured the Judge, 'none of that; I want you to tell the truth!" Just imagine the sheriff, deputies and bailiffs trying to keep 'order' and 'silence.'

A Hir.-The private Secretary of Governor -is a wag. The other day a young man decidedly insbristed, walked into the executive chamber, and asked for the Governor. "What do you want with him?" inquired the Secretary. "Oh, I want an office with a good salary-sinecure.' "Well," replied the Secretary, "I can tell you something better for you than sinecure -- you had better try water cure."

A new idea seemed to strike the young inebriate, and he vomcosed.

Ar one of the stations on the Aquia road. where the subsistance is received and delivered a very faithful man was fatally injured, and died one day not long since. The commissary wrote the following epitaph, which marks the spot where he is buried:

"Here lies the body of Michael Farrell, Who lost his life in rolling a barrel; Life is sweet, but he gave up his existence In furnishing the army with needful subsistence.

been to have a Horse Power that would run light enough to serve well when only a single horse is required and yet be strong enough for four horses. Twenty-eight are in use and all give full satisfaction. This Horse Power is warranted to run light and to be more durable than any other Horse Power in the country.

The subscriber has also a New UNDER SHOT THRESHER, which he has invented since last season, which is warranted by far superior to any other kind. The dust flies under the Thresher in place of flying in the feeder's face. Different kinds of Shakers are made to the above Threshers. His TREAD POWER and OVERSHOT
THRESHERB are so well known that there is no use to say anything about them.

The subscriber has a lot of the most improved HORSE
RAKES on hand, also STRAW CUTTERS, CLOVER HULLEES and a vaniety of other Agricultural Implements.
All Machines and Implements are warranted to be made of the best materials and to give full satisfaction in avery
