A faint rumor, whispered here yesterday, of dispater at Charleston, has taken the form of a dispatch to-day, and is telegraphed back here redited to The N. Fork Daily News. The whole story is false, no attack having been made upon Charleston by land, nor is it likely any such will be. The latest ativices received by the Govern- ment represent operations as going on favorably. The capture of Fort Wagner and Cummings Foint battery, and the reduction of Fort Sumter, are the immediate objects in view. THE REBELS DESPONDENT. The Richmond papers speak most despondently of the state of affairs in the rebel armics, both in the Wêst and in Virginia. The Richmond Whiy of the 9th inst. says that the intelligence from General Lee fails far short of the promise of the despatches of the provious day, and would prove a grievous disappointment of the high wrought hopes of the public, and that;	Billman, Affred Boyer, W Buttewsek, 8 Baney, P Bochtei, D.
