DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS. FOR GOVERNOR:

GEORGE W. WOODWARD, OF LUZERNE COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT: WALTER H. LOWRIE,

OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

Election, Tuesday, October 13, 1863.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETING.

The Democratic Citizens of the County of Berks, are re-spectfully invited to assemble in general County Meeting, ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 4th, 1863,

At 1 c'clock, P. M., in the Court room, at the Court House, in the City of Reading, for the purpose of preparing fo the approaching election, and considering all matters re-lating to the general welfare of the Democratic Party.

WM. B. ALBRIGHT, Chairman

JUDGE WOODWARD'S SPEECH.

We reprint, on the first page, the admirable speech of Judge Woodward, the Democratic nominee for Governor, delivered at the great Union meeting in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on the 13th of December, 1860. The calm, sensible, and patriotic remarks of the distinguished epeaker will be read with peculiar interest at the present time. At the period they were delivered they elicited the warmest commendations, and they are now invested with increased interest on account of the position in which Judge WOODWARD has been placed by the Democracy of Pennsylvania. The attentive reader will see that he comprehended fully the causes which brought about the sectional division that has resulted in rebellion and civil war, and that his sagacity and statesmanship suggested the remedy which, had it been applied in time, would have averted the dire calamities under which the nation has suffered for the last two years, and morð.

nee waters home has been expected Va., with the 1st Army Corps, under General to date the commencement of the terms of all troops, whether volunteers or drafted men, from the day they are mustered into the service of the United States, and not into State service. This rule is applied to all the drafted Regiments that were raised in this and other States last fall, and has not been departed from, except in cases of Companies on detached duty, whose services were no longer required. The reports that the 167th had been forced to serve a month beyond their time, on account of some alleged act of insubordination, are altogether untrue. They, with the other nine months' Penna. Militia. will be honorably discharged on the 15th of this month.

DEATH OF JOHN J. CRITTENDEN .- The Hon. John J. Crittenden, of Kentucky, died at Frankfort, in that State, on Sunday last, in the 77th year of his age. He was a distinguished statesman of the purer days of the Republic, when both the great political parties had a national organization and cherished national feelings, however widely they might have differed on measures of internal policy. Mr. Crittenden never was a member of the Democratic party, but no man labored harder to induce his former political associates, who are now in the Abolition party, to abandon their fanatical schemes, and save the country from the calamities that have since befallen it. His carnest, though unsuccessful efforts, in the Senate of the United States, during the memorable session of 1860-61, to avert the dissolution of the Union by measures of fair and honorable compromise, will be long remembered by the large number of his countrymen who appreciated his high and patriotic motives.

THE COUNTY MEETING.

The Democrats of Borks will hold their annu il County Meeting on Tuesday next. That the attendance will be large, we are assured, from the fact that, through the instrumentality of the the fact that, through the instrumentality of the several township Clubs, our county is now thoroughly organized, and the people more keenly alive than ever to the importance of maintaining the principles of the Democratic party. All hope the principles of the Democratic party. All hope of a speedy peace and a restoration of the Union, is now centered in that party, and the coming elections will decide the fate of our beloved country. The present administration is now fully committed to the unconstitutional policy of prosecuting the war for the abolition of slavery, and we have no encouragement to hope that, however successful the Federal Armies may continue to be, any overtures of peace will be made by the party in power until they feel assured that their revolutionary scheme of abolition can be enforced. This must necessarily protract the war to an indefinite period, and pervert it, from a righteous struggle for the maintenance of constitutional authority and unity of government, into a vindictive and barbaric war of conquest, subjugation and extermination; for it is idle to hope for submission from the people of the rebellious States, upon any terms short of a restoration to all their rights under the Constitution, upless they can be compelled to it, and held to it, by the power of superior force alone. And that this once benign Government, whose very corner stone and vital principle is "the consent of the governed," should ever be transformed into that huge monster of oppression, a military despotism, no true patriot can desire. The Denocratic party, and it alone, is capable of saving ns from the incalculable evils of an interminable war, and the destruction of free institutions. It is for this, then, that we call upon all who wish their country well, to hold fast to the organization of that party, and aid in the good work of securing the triumph of its truly national principles and policy. This can and will be achieved, through the peaceful, orderly and lawful channel of the ballot box, if the people will only be patient, resolute, and faithful. Preliminary to the great and decisive trial of 1864, we have before us the scarcely less important duty of rescuing our State from the hands of those who have misgoverned it, and degraded it into a mere abject dependent upon Federal power. Pennsylvania once redeemed, and placed under the protection of that party which, while it is crupulously exact in the fulfilment of all its onstitutional duties to the Federal Government, s ever watchful in guarding the rights of our citizens from encroachment and usurpation—the work that remains to be done, will be comparaively easy.

The Democracy of Berks are keenly alive to the magnitude of the issues before them, and determined to do their whole duty. Let them, therefore, turn out in their might, on Tuesday next, and show by their presence and their voices, that they still adhere to the old platform and walk in the old paths, and will, with God's help, labor with all their strength for the restoration of the old Union, under the old Constitution.

STATE POLITICS.

The Abolition State Convention will be held at Pittsburgh on Wednesday next, the 5th inst. Up to the present time, it was generally supposed that Governor Cuarin would be re-nominated; for, notwithstanding his official message o the Legislature, declining to be a candidate, ne has been, and is now, making every effort, and employing all the influence that his position gives him, to obtain a re-nomination. But, within the last few days, indications have appeared of a disposition, on the part of those who have hitherto been considered Governor Curtin's bosom friends, to drop him, and hunt up a new man. Forney's Press of last Saturday, in a savage article against Judge Woodward, which betrayed a wholesome fear of his election, significantly hinted at this change in the tactics of the Governor's body-guard, by declaring that "If it is necessary to postpone Governor Curtin, that should be done. We must have a candidate we can elect." Even the rate desert a sinking ship. It is evident that poor Currin, after hav-THE 167TH PREMSYLVANIA MILITIA.—This Re- ing been flattered and cajoled, and fed with the hone of a unanimous re-nomination, until it is for some days past, is now at Warrenton Junction, too late for him to do any harm, is to be sacrificed: and Forney, whose friendships are purely Meade. Its term of service, according to the selfish and only held by power and patronage, is computation of the War Department, will not paving the way for another act of desertion, expire until the 15th of August-the rule being under the hypocritical plea that "the good of the country " demands the sacrifice.

Governor Currin's most formidable enemy is Cameron, who, although not now in office, holds a good many strings by which he can pull the Abolition small fry this way or that, at his pleasure. He is bitterly bostile to CURTIN, and does not hesitate to declare openly that, if nominated, he will, and ought to be, defeated. But, so far, he has been at a loss for an available candidate to trot out against the Governor. With his usual tactics, he is trying to hunt up some one who has been a Democrat, to become the instrument of his revenge, in order to keep up the deception-now pretty well understood-of "nopartyism." Judge GRIER has been approached with the bait of an Abolition nomination, and so has Judge Thompson, but they are too shrewd to bite at it-knowing, as they must do, if they know anything of public sentiment at this time, that it would be certain death to them, politi cally. We also learn that very persuasive influ ences have been, and are yet being used, to induće Judge Strong to give his name to the Cameronian clan; but we cannot believe that one for whom the Democratic party has done so much, in the way of political rewards and houors, would allow himself to become the champion of its enemies, at this or any other time. His Democratic friends in Berks county would certainly be mortified to see him take a step at once so ungrateful and fatal-ungrateful to them, and fatal to his own public reputation. No-Judge STRONG will not compromise his present honora ble name and station with the vain ambition of a nomination for Governor by a sinking party. DAN DOUGHERTY, once a good Democrat, but who allowed Forney to seduce him from the right paths, is also mentioned, as likely to be brought forward, in an emergency. Letter from the Penna. Reserves.

CAMP 6TH REGT. PENNA. RESERVE CORPS, } UPPERVILLE, VA., July 22d, 1868. It may not be uninteresting to inform your many readers of the doings of the Penna. Re-Washington; the 2d remaining at Alexandria.
We marched almost day and night, and reached Frederick, Md., the first day General Meade was received, Md., the first day defects more. Of course we were highly rejoiced in it, for he was one of our old original Brigadier Generals, and the position he held the time he was placed in the course of the cour the position he need the time the secured through command of so large an army, he secured through the Penna. Reserves, whom he so ably led into various battles. We, however, were not allowed the Penna. Reserves, whom he so ably led into various battles. We, however, were not allowed to stop long at Frederick, but continued our march towards Gettysburg, where we arrived in the affernoon on the 2d inst. The Commanding General thought it prudent to rest us a little before putting us into action. No sooner was the command "rest" given, than some were running for water, others building fires to cook a little coffee; the battle was at this time raging furiously on our left, and before all were done cooking, the command "attention" was given. We proceeded to the left of the town, and before we proceeded to the left of the town, and before we came in line of battle, orders were given to un-sling knapsacks. The 2d Division of the 5th Corps were at this time coming out in great confusion; shells, canister, and Minie balls were flying thick and fast around us. We were ordered to "cover" till all of the 2d Division were out, and soon we had a clear field, nothing the command given—"forward, guide centre."

At this time a yell was raised and a volley from our two Brigades followed, which threw the enemy into a panic and we after them poll mell—drove them about a mile and a half, where we were ordered to half, as our both fianks were then exposed. We remained on picket there that night and on the following afternoon we drove the enemy once more out of their position, cap-turing I cannon, 2 caissons, 1 stand of colors and one entire Regiment, and when the pursuit commenced, the Penna. Reserves were again some of the foremost ones; and at Williamsport, Md., or the foremost ones; and at Williamsport, Md., had they given us an opportunity, I am sure Lee would not have got off so easy. I never heard so much growling since I have been in the service as I did there at Williamsport on account of the disappointment of giving battle, as all were eager and ready to pitch in. But instead of giving battle to the enemy wascamment.

We came here yesterday, and I do not know how long we shall stay here, but I suppose as soon as the Cavalry has cleared the way we will make tracks again for the Rappa-I have received all your papers since I sub scribed for it, excepting one, and I think that fell into the Rebel hands, as we had a mail captured of about a week from our Division carrier. I can vouch for the truth which was stated in your paper of the 18th, of the story that was circulated that General McClellan was Chief ommander again, and every one felt good on it Commanuer again, and every one left good on it.

I am sure it made the whole army fight more desperately; although we put all confidence in General Meade, and our honest wish is that he may enter Richmond ere many weeks, which stead of giving battle to the enemy, we commend ed our pursuit again. We passed over the old Antietam battle field, crossed the Potomac at Berlin, 6 miles below Harper's Ferry and are now about midway between the Potomac and the Rappahanneck, at Goose creek. Our Cavalry drove the "Rebs" out of this place day before will be the end of rebellion.

I merely wrote this to correct false statements which are in circulation. A great many of the correspondents who want to describe a battle so minutely, mostly always travel with one certain Division or Corps, and when they hear a report, they sit down and write it to their papers, no matter whether it is true or not. They are employed to write and in time of battle I am sure they are far enough back out of the reach of shot and shell, and when the battle is over, here they are with their long details and lying reports, generally making an ill feeling among the soldiers, for a soldier wants the honor due him. As Berks county is well represented in the Reserve Corps, as before stated, this statement may prove interesting to our many friends I am. &c.

Sergt U. R. BURKERT, Company A, 6th Penna. Reserve Corps

THE RADICALS have just discovered that is not so easy to "bag" a whole army as they tried to make the people believe. They used to speak of it as the simplest thing in the world, and could find no milder term of reproach for a General who failed to do it, than that he was in heart a "traitor. But, after Burnside's inglorions defeat at Fredericksburg, and Hooker's disastrous failure at Chancellorville, they have become more moderate in their demands, and are not be able to "bag" them afterward. What was "treason" in McClellan at Antietam, is not allowed to detract from the glory that MEADE achieved at Gettvaburg.

THE TERR IS KNOWN BY ITS FRUITS .- It is pretty well settled in the public mind that the spirit of lawlessness which pervades the North. is owing to the revolutionary and treasonable teachings of the Abolition party. For many years past the Abolitionists have advocated resistand to a law which was passed by Congress in conformity with the Constitution of the United States. They treated the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case with sovereign contempt, they openly violated all statutes that interfered with the progress of their antislavery doctrines, and encouraged mob violence against all who dared to disagree with them. The whole responsibility of the recent fearful riots is upon them, and they will be compelled to meet the issue at the ballot-box.

Good News from a Far Country .- The sharp, nick click of the magnetic finger, brings us the brief news that "the election in Washington Territory has gone largely Democratic." There is nothing more—no particulars are given of the triumph of the Democracy in that far-off region. Yet the intelligence, meagre though it is, gives us great cause for rejoicing. It speaks of better things for the Republic. The ascendency of the Democratic party throughout the country is the only salvation of the nation; and the distant Territory that bears the name of Washington was a fitting spot for the work of political regeneration to commence.

A NEW COUNTY PROJECT DEFEATED .-- At the last session of our State Legislature, a bill was passed erecting a new county out of the northern part of Luzerne, to be called Lackawanna. The final decision of the question, however, as a recent amendment'to our Constitution requires. was left to a vote of the people of Luzerne county, to be taken at a special election. That election was held on the 21st ult., and the result is a majority of 3,737 against the new county. The vote stood, 3,450 for, and 7,187 against it.
