THE DRAFT.

A time for the Draft in Berks county is again fixed, and this time, it is authoritatively stated, there will be "no postponement on account of the weather," or for any other cause. By the Provost Marshal's announcement, in another column, it will be seen that the Draft will commence with Albany township, on Wednesday next, the 26th inst., at 6 o'clock, A. M., and end with the Fifth Ward, Reading, on Saturday. The drawing will be conducted on the platform in front of the Provost Marshal's office, within sight of all who may have the curiosity to witness it, and in the immediate presence of the Committee (whose names were published last week) who have been invited to seal upon the platform.

THE DRAFT. We learn from the Lancaster Intelligencer that, on Thursday evening last, after an address by the Democratic Central Club of that city, by Mr. D. E. Schaeffer, of Berks county, and as the audience were about leaving the hall, an armed force consisting of ten or twelve men belonging to the Invalid Corps, so-called, appeared at the foot of the stairs, where, with fixed bayonets and loaded muskets, they attempted to prevent any egress from the building unless Mr. Schaeffer was surrendered to them as a prisoner. This insolent demand was promptly refused, and the crowd of Democrats increasing every moment, the military (who refused to show any authority for their interference and attempted arrest, when requested to do so) thought discretion the better part of valor and retired. The Provost Marshal, to his credit be it said, disavows any participation in this high-handed interference with the citizens in the exercise of their undoubted rights; and the inference is that the soldiers, who are all strangers in that city, were instigated by some violent Union Leaguers, with the intention of provoking a disturbance, so as to furnish a pretext for placing the city under martial law. A meeting was to be held in reference to this outrage.

THE 104TH.—Our latest news from the 104th Penna. Volunteers, is up to the sailing of the Arago, which left on the 10th. The brigade of Col. Davis was then camped at the head of Col. Davis, and hard at work on the siege operations. The men are on fatigue duty nearly all the time, day and night, either building batteries or guarding the trenches on Morris Island. Often the same men are sent over two nights in succession. The guns will throw the heaviest balls ever used in siege operations. Our correspondent says the heat is intense, and but for the cool sea breeze the men could not endure it. The health of the Regiment continues good, and the sick list is small.

MASS MEETING AT STRAUBTOWN.—The first of the series of Democratic Mass Meetings appointed by the Standing Committee of this county, was held at Straubtown, in Upper Tulpehocken township, on Saturday last, and was well attended. Solomon Bolz, Esq., acted as Vice President; George Degler and Michael Long, as Vice Presidents; and Wm. Reber and J. Y. Shearer, as Secretaries. The meeting was addressed by Jesse G. Hawley, Esq., of the Borough of Columbia, Lancaster county, commanding the First Division of the Ninth Army Corps, died in Cincinnati on the 14th inst., of congestive fever, contracted during the campaign in Mississippi. Gen. W. was a brave and accomplished officer, and had rendered efficient service to the Government in its struggle with rebellion.

DEATH OF GENERAL WELSH.—Brigadier General Thomas Welsh, of the Borough of Columbia, Lancaster county, commanding the First Division of the Ninth Army Corps, died in Cincinnati on the 14th inst., of congestive fever, contracted during the campaign in Mississippi. Gen. W. was a brave and accomplished officer, and had rendered efficient service to the Government in its struggle with rebellion.

ADDRESS OF THE STATE COMMITTEE.—The first address of the Democratic State Central Committee to the people of Pennsylvania, will be found in our columns to day. It is a masterly production, from the pen of the distinguished Chairman, Col. CHARLES J. BIDDLE, and will command universal attention from its clearness and strength of style, its directness of argument, and the dignified tone which pervades it. We consider it one of the ablest political papers that has ever emanated from our State Committee, and it deserves to be read attentively by every citizen who desires to be correctly informed with regard to the true issues now presented to the people.

JACOB SCHLEIBERMAN has been re-appointed Collector of School taxes in the borough of Hamburg for the present year.

THE LASH FOR WHITE MEN!

Captain J. Heron Foster, a prominent Republican politician, formerly editor of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, and still its proprietor—a few years ago Clerk of the State Senate—and now, by President Lincoln's appointment, Provost Marshal of Allegheny county, has recently outraged humanity by an act of brutality which will render his name as infamous as that of the Austrian butcher Haynau. By the orders of this petty tyrant, a white man named Hagen, who is alleged to have deserted from the 63d Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, afterwards enlisted as a substitute, and then deserted again, was, without form or authority of law, lashed with a cowhide until his back was like a piece of raw flesh, and he sank down in utter exhaustion.

THE FACTS OF THIS BRUTAL ACT are fully proved by the testimony of several witnesses, one of whom was Dr. King, the Examining Surgeon on duty in the Provost Marshal's office, whose statement we copy:

DR. KING'S STATEMENT.—The first I knew of this affair Captain McHenry entered my office, which adjoins the Provost Marshal's office, and seizing the man Hagen, who was sitting on a chair near me, said, "God d—n you, you want your back whipped, don't you?" He then took out the foot of the stairs, where McHenry said to the Sergeant, "Take him up stairs and give him twenty-five lashes," and, after a pause, added, "Yes, God d—n him, give him fifty." He also told the Sergeant to put the handcuffs on him and get the cowhide. Hagen was then hand-cuffed and taken up stairs. I followed to the head of the stairs, but I could not bear the idea of seeing a white man whipped, so I turned and came down. I saw the man after he was flogged, and dressed his wounds yesterday and to-day. His back was all up, all over, and across. I should say from the appearance of his back that he received from sixty to seventy lashes. There were several persons by when the flogging took place, and McHenry told me himself to-day that he held the man while the stripes were being put on. This is all I know about the matter.

This affair has naturally caused some excitement in Pittsburgh, and Foster, in defence of his conduct, has published a card, in which he admits that he had the man whipped, and that he acted without authority of law, but undertakes to justify his act on the ground that he knew of no law under which to punish desertion, and is willing to submit to any penalty under the law for punishing assault and battery.

This outrage, cruel and totally unjustifiable as it was, need not cause much surprise under the present circumstances. When the supreme authorities at Washington set the example of inflicting cruel and unusual punishments, "contrary to Constitution and law, and under no more valid warrant than Executive Proclamations and Military Orders, it is not to be wondered at, that their egotistical underlings should imitate their bad example. If Burnsides may suppress newspapers, and seize and imprison free citizens, in violation of the civil law, by the power of the bayonet—let Stanton may order the arrest of editors and civilians anywhere, without formal accusation and without trial, and may keep them incarcerated in forts and dungeons at his own will and pleasure—if the President himself may, by a mere stroke of his pen, deprive of home and birthright a citizen of Ohio whose political opinions are obnoxious to him—why may not the Provost Marshal of Pittsburgh act the tyrant over a poor and friendless soldier who incurs his displeasure? These outrages, now of almost daily occurrence, are only the fruit of the pernicious teachings of "the higher law," and prove that, when once the example is set of substituting the will (generally anonymous with the whim and prejudice) of the magistrate for the rule and limitation of law, there is no extreme of wrong and arbitrary tyranny to which the people may not be subjected.

In the present case, whatever may have been the provocation, Foster's act was not only a gross violation of law itself, but an abuse of his office and a usurpation of power. The crime of desertion is a military offence, for which the laws of the United States provide the mode of trial by Court-Martial, and special punishment on conviction. No officer of the Government can usurp these powers, and, without prosecution and trial, condemn and punish at his will and pleasure. The outrage is greater in this case, because flogging is no longer considered a fit punishment for the United States service, and has been entirely abolished by act of Congress in our Navy. The moment a civilian puts on the gold lace of an officer, he seems naturally to fall into the tyranny of the profession, as if, by the abuse of his power, he would best entitle himself to the respect and consideration of his superiors.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATIONS.—The Cumru Sunday School will hold a harvest-home celebration on Saturday and Sunday, the 29th and 30th inst., in the woods near Mohrsville. There will be instrumental music on both days, and the Rev. Ephraim Ely and A. S. Leinbach will deliver addresses.

THE BRIDGE VALLEY SUNDAY SCHOOL will celebrate its anniversary on Sunday, the 23d inst., at the State Bridge, in Berks township. A Band of Music, and several invited speakers will be present.

RESISTANCE TO THE DRAFT.—In one of the Philadelphia barracks are confined two Quaker conscripts, coming from a wealthy family of Quakers named Smedley, who reside at West Chester, Pa. These men contend that they have conscientious scruples as to going to the war; they will not fire a musket or draw human blood, nor pay the commutation money nor furnish a substitute, because, in their opinion, it would be making an acknowledgment not consistent with the views of the Society to which they belong. And yet, if we are not mistaken, the Quakers generally have no scruples of conscience against encouraging others to fight for the abolition of slavery.

DEATH OF GENERAL WELSH.—Brigadier General Thomas Welsh, of the Borough of Columbia, Lancaster county, commanding the First Division of the Ninth Army Corps, died in Cincinnati on the 14th inst., of congestive fever, contracted during the campaign in Mississippi. Gen. W. was a brave and accomplished officer, and had rendered efficient service to the Government in its struggle with rebellion.

A DEMOCRATIC GAIN.—The Democrats have just gained a member of Congress in Missouri. In the Third District, which was represented by Mr. Noell, Republican, an election has just been held to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Noell's death, and has resulted in the triumph of John G. Scott, Democrat, by a handsome majority. The New-York Tribune blames the Administration for permitting his election!

Letter from Easton—The Democratic County Meeting of Northampton.

Editor Gazette and Democrat.

The Democracy of old Northampton held their usual county meeting at this place yesterday, and after transacting the customary business and passing a number of patriotic resolutions, (which you will soon see and endorse) were favored with a speech by that distinguished citizen of old Berks, Hon. HIRSHER CLYMER, who, having engaged to be with us on the occasion of our August meeting, fulfilled his promise, though obliged to leave his sick bed to do so, and coming in spite of the remonstrances of his physicians. Those of us who had never listened to him before, soon learned why HIRSHER CLYMER has not a hold upon the affections of the people of old Berks and other portions of the State. Gifted with eloquence of no common order, fearless in denouncing wrong, an earnest champion for "Union as it was and the Constitution as it is," the Democracy may well be proud of him. Mr. C. spoke about an hour and a quarter in our spacious Court Room, to an audience larger than had ever been assembled there, and composed mainly of the staunch and intelligent yeomanry of our county, who at intervals, applauded to the echo the truths uttered by the speaker. The Hon. gentleman reviewed, briefly, the career of the present Administration at Washington, showing, in language most forcible as well as severe, how unfaithful the President and his advisers and leading followers have been to the sacred trusts committed to their care by the people. The utter disregard shown by the dominant party to the Resolution passed by Congress in 1861, to the effect that this war was for the restoration of the Union, nothing more, nothing less, was commented upon in terms such as infamous acts of the kind should ever be commented upon. Well may we tremble for our liberties as long as they are in the hands of men who dare openly and unblushingly violate their most solemn pledges, as our rulers have done.

Mr. CLYMER spoke, in a fitting manner, of the arbitrary arrests and other illegal and high-handed proceedings of this Administration, and after alluding briefly to the nomination of the Republicans for Governor of this State, closed his able address by appealing to the Democracy to go earnestly to work at once to insure the success of Geo. W. Woodward, terming the coming election here as the skirmish preceding the grand battle to take place in November, 1864.

The Democracy of Northampton, Mr. Editor, are under deep obligations to your distinguished townsman for his able address of yesterday, and at some future time, when he becomes, as they expect he will, their standard bearer in the Keystone State, they will endeavor to repay him.

LEHIGH.

THE "JOURNAL," although it gave Governor Curtin some hard kicks before the Pittsburgh Convention met, by calling for the nomination of a man "free from corruption—above the suspicion of being interested in contracts, or affiliations with knavish and selfish politicians," has now come back into the party traces as docile as if it had never shown the slightest symptom of being "balky." It "supports the nominees" with rim, and plunges at the Democratic candidates ferociously. Among other things, it is trying to make capital against Judge Woodward by repeating the stale story which has been refuted over and over again, that, when a delegate in the Constitutional Convention of 1858, he proposed that foreign-born citizens should not be allowed to vote or hold office in this State. Now, if this were true, the Journal should be the last paper in the world to abuse Judge Woodward for it; because it was only a few years ago that the Journal was one of the most violent Know-Nothing papers that the Dark Lantern party could boast of. Many of its readers will remember how bitterly it denounced all foreigners and Catholics during the campaign that placed Governor Pollock in the Executive Chair, and went for disfranchising them entirely. But, the Journal's charge is not true—it was shown to be false by Judge Woodward himself, in 1852, when he was a candidate for Supreme Judge, and the records of the Convention relate it, to the satisfaction of every fair-minded man, as the following extract from the Debates, which is taken from Volume 10, page 24, will show:

Mr. Woodward explained, that he did not wish to be slandered by any reporter, or misrepresented by any member on this floor, and he would not allow gentlemen to impute measures and sentiments to him which did not belong to him. He said he never did propose to exclude the foreigners now in the country, from political privileges, nor those who added at any time hereafter to the country. He presumed that the gentleman (Mr. Curtis), alluded to an amendment offered by him in Convention at Harrisburg, which proposed nothing more than to inquire into the expediency of excluding foreigners altogether from our soil; and the amount of it was to give the proposed inquiry a different direction from that proposed by the gentleman from Chester. The proposition of the gentleman from Chester being withdrawn, Mr. Woodward explained that he withdrew his amendment.

That is the whole story. Judge Woodward, by a common parliamentary maneuver, defeated a proposition to exclude foreigners from this State, by an amendment proposing an inquiry into the expediency of excluding foreigners altogether from our soil. His amendment proposed, the original mover to withdraw his proposition, and the subject was not again agitated in the Convention.

Upon this narrow ground the Journal has the impudence to attempt to prejudice citizens of foreign birth against Judge Woodward, the lifelong advocate of equal political rights and privileges, and to persuade them to vote for Andrew G. Gurin, who was one of the leaders of the bigoted and proscriptionist order of Know-Nothings. Is the Journal so foolish as to suppose that the people can forget that Governor Curtin was an active Know-Nothing during the short and inglorious career of that contemptible organization? That he was Secretary of the Commonwealth under the administration of Gov. Pollock? That he was a candidate for U. S. Senator before the Know-Nothing caucus at the session of 1855, and the principal rival of Simon Cameron for the honor of representing the principles of Know-Nothingism in the councils of the Nation? Surely, the Journal cannot hope that citizens of foreign birth have forgotten these recent facts in our political history, or believe that they can be so utterly lost to self-respect as to vote for a candidate who assisted in marshaling the bigoted host that a few short years ago sought their disfranchisement and abasement.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR will take place at Norristown, Montgomery county, on the 29th and 30th days of September, and the 1st and 2d days of October, 1863. The most liberal arrangements are being made with Railroad Companies, and some of the most important roads have agreed to carry freight free. Excursion tickets will be issued at reduced rates. The Premium list is very heavy, and the locality accessible by the Norristown and Philadelphia Railroad, and also by the Reading Railroad. For premium list and particulars, address to A. B. LORACKER, Secretary, Norristown, Pa.

STUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On Monday evening, 10th inst., a heavy thunder-storm passed over the town of Dr. Wm. Harris, the wife of Mr. Carl was working in the yard, and the storm was striking by lightning and fell dead on the woman. She was fortunately not injured beyond a few bruises. The barn was set on fire by the stroke, but through the timely exertions of the neighbors, was saved from destruction.

UNITED STATES JUDGES.—Messrs. Geo. M. LAMSON, John HOLLER, Andrew M. SALIDA, Andrew M. Doherty and Andrew Davis, of this city, were in attendance upon the session of the U. S. District Court, at Philadelphia, this week, in the capacity of Grand Jurors.

THE DEATH OF FREDERICK S. HUNTER, Esq., is a loss to the business interests of our city and county that will be long and seriously felt. Liberal in his ideas, enterprising in spirit, and energetic in action, he may be truly said to have been one of the main supports of the mercantile and business interests of this city, and the county, and the effects of his death will be felt in many of our important branches of trade.
