As well as his shoe-thread. And while he sowed not what he reaped, lie ripped what he had sewed; And almost apostolic care For way-worn soles he showed.

The Boss a doctor never was, Though often did he heel; And kips and calfs he did cut up All for the public weak.

While he could neither write nor read, The shoeless were aware That for the understandin' he Did exercise a care.

No evil fortune, small or great, Could make his spirits fall ; He even sang right metrily When once he lost his awl.

And even to his dyin' day, Of Bagshaw be it told. He never sold a leaky boot, Though such he oft half soled.

Once he, from too much drink, was in A state of lether-gy, When thieves made booty of his shoes,

And with them they did fice. When he came to, says he, "If I Get once upon their tracks, For havin' stolen of my stock They'll get shoemaker's whacks."

That afternoon one thief he caught." That quickly came to grief; For Boss he went from weltin' shoes To weltin' of the thief.

The M. P's got another one A makin' out of town: And when thief was taken up He seemed quite taken down.

Boss alled his trade for forty year', Or somewhere thereabout; For he, though long a peggin' in, Was longer peggin' out.

But Bazshaw couldn't always live, Like cobblers in the past, He one day from his last did go To come unto his last.

HERE IS A SPECIMEN of paradox that may amuse the young folks. There is one way in which 45 may be deducted from 45, and 45 will be the remainder. - Lock :

.Put all the numerals down in reverse order Then put them down underneath, in the right order, and substract. The sum of all three of the lines will be the same, viz: 45. Thus:

9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1—45 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—45 6 4 1 9 7 5 8 2-45 WHEN STEETCHED upon his bed, in the agony of the gout, it was reported to Chatham that one of his official subordinates pronounced an order impossible of execution. "Tell him," said he, rising up and marching seross the room on his swollen feet, his face streaming with perspiration from the excruciating effort, "tell him it is the order of a man who treads upon im-

IT IS WELL KNOWN THAT THIS COMPARY, in the few years since the construction of the Medical has sold a large number of Farms to estiers, which has no the large number of Farms to estiers, perity, which is sufficient evidence of the quality of the soil, and the facilities for disposing of its produce. The numerous villages which have sprung up in this short time also induces the abundant resources of the country. The land is rich PRAIRIE SOIL, often thickly wooded. Woodland can generally be purchased at short distances and low prices—sometimes of the Company. The various kinds of grain are successfully cultivated. Fruit, Grapes, &c., grow rapidly, and yield abundantly and of amprior quality. The fruit market is probably the best in the West. For the raising of Cattle there is no better country to be found. Considering the infancy of the settlements, much has already been done for Schools.

The Company offers to sottlers great advantages. The lend is sold—Wood or Praitiq—at from $5 to $12 per sere, according to its distances from the Eastroad. At he time of perchase, only the Interest of the purchase money is required. For the 3 first years, like arise only the interest, at the end of the fountly year and the shree following, each one-quarter of time capital; thus after the expiration of seven years, the whole amount is paid. On each payments a liberal discount is allowed. Furchasers are exampted from faxes on the land for seven years.

Dr. G. H. Markiny—Dear Mjr. For many years I was the victim of Dyspopsia in its most aggravated form; my system having towner and dolilitated, that I was mable to perform any kind of labor. I had rested to the bost doctors within reach, without relief, itself was mable to perform any kind of labor. I had rested to the bost doctors within reach, without relief, it was some any good. My sufferings cannot be described in worn as my good. My sufferings cannot be described in worn as They soon afforded me railed from the most paint as my sood. My sufferings cannot be described in worn as They soon afforded me railed from the most paintal symptoms which I had scarcely hoped to obtain and in a surprisingly short time! was completely restored to health, and I have enjoyed the best of health ever since—not a symptom of my old complaint remaining. Since thes, I have always kept your medicines in my family, and would not be without them upon any consideration, as they have never failed to do what you claim for them.

Respectfully yours,
