THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

An Appeal from Democratic Soldiers to their Fellow-Citizens.

The following appeal comes from true ar and soldiers of the Army of the Potomac, who will not be furloughed to come home and vote. his genuine, forwarded to us by as brave a man si ever faced an enemy.

Headquarters, Army Potomac, Near Culperper, Va., Sept. 28, 1863. is the Voters of Pennsylvania: Fillow-Citizens of Pennsylvania:-We ask prattention, while we say a few words in relation to the election soon to take place. The Democracy of the Army of the Potomac enter their solemn protest against the course parsued by the friends of A. G. Curtin in the Siate canvass. A certain class of newspapers are filled, weekwith resolutions purporting to have their tigin in this army, endorsing the actions of Gov. Curtin, and urging his re-election, on the ground that he is the "soldiers' only real friend." the most of them are manufactured at home for political effect." The manner in which the vote is taken on the

The offire who get them up know what they are about. ney know very well that, if the question was ceperly put, they would be voted down, and it is necessary to couple them with other resolves order to blind the eyes of the unsuspecting

Way were not the resolves published with the sues of the officers who were instrumental in citing them up and passed? Are they afraid are they ashamed of the deed? This looks

We denounce such acts as unfair and frauduent. No good can result from such cutrages fon the "right of suffrage" as exercised by in the field.

Fellow citizens, be not deceived; these reso ticas endorsing Curtin and recommending his election, are not the true, untrammeled sentimen the soldiers—they are forced from them—not ertained or voluntarily given.

Had we the legal and constitutional right to the here in the field, thousands of the votes that ave been fraudulently recorded for the Curtin tsolves would be cast for Judge Woodward for

Judge Woodward comes up to the full requireents of the Jeffersonian creed—" He is hones he is competent."

Can this be said of A. G. Curtin? Has not urtin sold the honor of your State for his own ersonal and political advancement? We pause or a reply. Curtin, it is said, has done a great leal for the Pennsylvania soldiers; but has he one more than the law required him to do? Every man in the State who pays his taxes has lone as much for us as Curtin has. We know fery well that he claims to have done more than My Other Covernor in the Union for the army.

We appeal to you, fellow-citizens-to all true overs of the Union and the Constitution-all who love law and order, and all who are willing eacrifice time and money, and life, if need be, r the preservation of the old fabric-to vote for he great statesman and patriot, the soldier's be friend, George W. MASS MEETING AT THE YELLOW HOUSE. The eighth Democratic Ratification Mass Meetreplies that are sent from the army is this: "All ing in Berks county, was held on Saturday, Oct. of total to the resolutions step to the front of ad, 1863, at the Yellow Tavern, in Amity town-or fosed to the resolutions step to the front of the company."

Is there anything fair in this way of taking a vote? Is it an honorable way? Is it not an imposition on the good judgment and intelligence of the soldiers comprising our army?

Why was not the "affirmative" of the questions from Boyerstown and Muhlenberg townships, were also very large, and each of them was headed by a Brass Band. There were then yoted upon first? Why are they linked in by the election of SOLOMON L. CUSTER, Esq., of Amity, as President; and Ezekiel Rhoads, David Herner and Abraham H. Vanderslice, of David Herner and Abraham H. Vanderslice, of Amity; Benneville Griesemer, Daniel Laucks and Martin Yoder, of Oley; John Herner, Thomas Bickel and Caleb Harrison, of Union; Solomon Dunkel, Gideon Snyder and Solomon Close, of Exeter: David Davidheiser, John Wise and Philip S. Mathias, of Earl; Augustus Levengood, Mathias Levengood and Samuel Hatfield, of Douglass; Nathan Bower, Gideon Butz and Fayette Sheedler. of Kutztown; Henry Smeck, Dewalt Kutz and William Markel, of Maxataway: Dewall Kutz and William Markel, of Maxatawny; Doct. The delegations from the several townships, came in their large farm teams, decked with evergreens and flowers, and with floor sping coulty in the breeze. Mr. Amos L. ueuneu with evergreens and nowers, and with flags flying gaily in the breeze. Mr. Anos L. Dick, of Cumru, was chosen President of the meeting, with a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries, whose names, we regret, have not been reported to us. Addresses were delivered by Jesse G. Hawley France. by Jesse G. Hawley, Esq., J. Lawrence Getz and Hon. S. E. Ancona, which were received with repeated and hearty applause.

PERRY TOWNSHIP CLUB. A respectable portion of the citizens of Perry township, assembled at Shoemakersville, on Sat-urday last, October 3d, for the purpose of hold-ing the regular monthly meeting of the Demo-cratic Township Club

The meeting was addressed in a stirring and interesting manner, by Wharton Morris, Esq., of Reading.
The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the previous meeting:

Resolved, That the nominations made by the County Convention, for County Officers, meet our County Convention, for County Univers, meet our hearty and unqualified approbation. And that the men, who have been nominated, are of such undoubted integrity and reliability that it becomes a cheerful task for every Democrat, to exert himself to his utmost, not only to elect them, but to elect them with a greater majority than Old Books has even before size or any than Old Berks has ever before given on any occasion.

J. W. HOFFMAN, Secretary.
