If hone's Abe then, he is honest Abe now? Workying and Laughing .- A clerical friend, at a celebrated watering place, met a lady who seemed to be havering on the brink of the grave. Her checks were hollow and wan, her manner listless, her step languid, and her brow wore the severe contraction indicative both of mental and physical suffering, so that she was to all observers an object of sincerest pity.

Some years after he encountered this same lady, but so bright, and fresh, and youthful, so full of healthful buoyancy, and so joyeus in expression, that he questioned bimself if he had not deceived himself in regard to her identity. 'Is it possible,' said he, 'that I see before me

Mrs. B., who presented such a doleful appearance at the Springs several years ago " ' The very same.'

And pray tell me, madame, the secret of your cure. What means did you use to attain such vigor of mind and body, such cheerfulness and rejuvenation?

'A very simple remedy,' returned she, with a beaming face. 'I stopped worrying and began to laugh-that's all.' ASKING FOR A PASS .- A good story is told by the Ruffalo Courier of a certain prominent rail road gentleman of that city, who is equally ranowned for making and taking a joke. A railroad employee, whose home is in Avon, came one Saturday night to ask for a pass down to visit his family.

"You are in the employ of the railroad?" in quired the gentleman alluded to.

"You receive your pay regularly?" " Yes."

"Well. Now, supposing you were working for a farmer instead of a railroad company, would you expect your employer to bitch up his team every Saturday night and carry you home?"

This seemed a poser, but it wasn't. "No," said the man promptly, "I wouldn't expect that; but, if the farmer had his team hitched up, and was going my way, I should call him a darned mean cuss if he wouldn't let me ride."

Mr. Employee came out three minutes after wards with a pass in his sock, good for twelve months.

Two Good 'Une .- A lady made her husband a present of a silver drinking cop with an angel a the bottom, and when she filled it for him, he used to drain it to the bottom, and she asked him why he drank every drop.

"Because, ducky," he said, "I long to see the dear little angel." Upon which she had the angel taken out, and had a Devil engraved at the bottom, and he drank it off just the same, and she again asked him the reason.

"Why," replied he, "because I won't leave the old devil have a drop."

AN OLD WRITER says that to make an entirely beautiful woman, it would be necessary to take the head from Greece, the bust from Austria, the feet from Indostan, the shoulders from Italy, the walk from Spain, and the complexion from England. At that rate she would be a Mosaic, and the man who married her might well be said to have "taken up a collection!"

WHAT is the difference between a pawn broker's customer and a political speech maker ! One spouts to live, and the other lives to spout.

Dr. G. H. Markley Deur Sif: For many years I was the victim of Dyspopsia in its most aggravated form; my system having become so much deranged and debilitated, that I was unable to perform any kind of labor. I had resorted to the best dectors within reach, without relief. I used some of the most popular remedies of the day, but n'ne of them did me any good. My sufferings caunot be described in words. I was then living at Hopewell, Chester county, and in 1877, as a last recort, I commenced the use of your medicines. They soon afforded me relief from the most polatic kyraptones which I had scarcely heped to obtain; and in a surprisingly short time I was completely restored to health, and I have enjoyed the best of health ever since—not a symptom of my old complaint remaining. Since then, I have always kept your medicines in my family, and would not be without them upon any consideration, as they have never faited to do what you claim for them.

Respectfully yours,

A. D. CAMPBELL.
