HE LATEST-BRAGG RETREATING-THE VICTORY COMPLETE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25, 1863. The following was received here this afteron from a responsible source:--

CHATTANGOGA, Nov. 25-11 A. M. We have had a brisk engagement this morning, set have driven the enemy entirely off of Look at Mountain, a considerable portion of which the held up to this morning.

We have also taken Missionary Ridge from the morning and the troublesome rifle for the state of which we dered to a new the state of the state o All firing has censed for a sufficient time to the conclusion that Bragg has retreated, our in'y leaving all the ground and strong points in

DETAILS OF WEDNESDAY'S BATTLE.

CHATTANDOGA, Nov. 25, 1863. We are completely victorious. The enemy is orally routed and driven from every position. For loss is very small, and the enemy's is heavy finding General Hooker so successful in his respense against Lookout Mountain, the enemy fracuated that position during the night.

manded by their artillery—had to descend into a falley, and then make another ascent to the position held by the enemy. Two unsuccessful assaults were made by General Sherman, but with the co-operation of the centre, he ultimately Exided the position and completed the great viclory.
The brigade of General Cary, with a portion origade of General Lighthews' brigade composed the Horming party in the last assault. They were repulsed with quite a heavy loss, after an attack Persisted in for an hour; but being reinforced they were enabled to hold a part of the hill. In this attack General Cary was wounded quite everely in the thigh. The Thirty-sevent Ohio and Sixth Iowa and One Hundred and Third Ilnois regiments were in the attack. A second assault was made at half-past one, in which Mathias', Loomis' and Paul's divisions Fere engaged. The force reached within twenty Fards of the summit of the hill and the works of the enemy, when they were flanked and broke, retiring to their reserves In this assault General Mathias was wounded, lonel Putnam, of the Ninety-third Ohio, silled. Their persistent efforts compelled the enemy to mass heavily on his right in order to hold the position of so much importance to him.

About three o'clock General Grant started two columns against the weakened centre, and after an hour's desperate fighting succeeded in break ing the centre and gaining possession of the ridge on which the enemy was posted. The main force was driven northward toward General Sherman, who opened on them, and they were forced to break and seek safety in disordered flight down the western slope of the ridge, and across the western ridge of the Chickamauga.

We have taken not less than 5,000 prisoners, and perhaps 10,000. There are reports that we have taken a whole corps.

Ganeral Hooker will probably intercept the Sying enemy in the vicinity of Rossville and the Among the casualties are Lieut. Col. Espy, of he Sixty-eighth Indiana regiment; Major Mc Cawley, of the Tenth Iows; Colonel Omars, of the Ninetieth Illinois; Lieut, Colonel Stuart, of The Mineteth Illinois; Lieut, Colonel Stuart, of the Minetieth Illinois; Major Walker, of the Tenth Minnesota; Major Welsh, of the Fifty—sith Illinois; Major Innis, of the Sixth Iowa, wounded, and Major Irwin, of the Sixth Iowa, killed.

Full reports of the killed and wounded cannot te obtained, as most of the killed were in Gen. Sherman's corps, and remained at dark in the hands of the enemy; the list will be telegraphed by-morrow

The prisoners say that Bragg was on the ridge Just before they were taken.

The successful storming parties consisted of Mood's and Baird's divisions on the left centre, and Sheridan's on the right centre.

Some of our wounded were left in the hands of the enemy after General Sherman's unsuccessful assault, but were ultimately recovered. CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 25 .- 10 P. M.

The captured artillery is reported at about forty pieces. General Hooker captured five boxes.
