GOOD ADVICE.

Eat only what is proper food;
Drink only that which does you good;
Spend only what you can afford;
Lend only what will be restored;
Then you will have no cause to say
I was a fool on yesterday.

☞ MAJ. JACK DOWNING,—who is a man of considerable sagacity and strong common sense, says he told old Lincoln and his cabinet, that so near as he could see how the land lay, they were all tryin to catch the South first, and then what to do with her afterwards is another question. Jack says the South seems to be a good deal like old Sam Odum, up in Maine, when he thought the Devil was after him. One night he got to dreaming, and jumped out of bed in his shirt, and ran like all possessed down the street. About half a dozen neighbors chased him until he ran up a tree, out of which they couldn't get him anyhow. He kept a screaming "the devils are after me," and would fite like a tiger if any one tried to get at him. Finally old Deacon Peabody cum along, and sez he, "Sam thinks that you fellers are the devils that are goin to ruin him; you jist go away and let him alone, and Sam will be hum and in bed afore morning." They tuk his advice, and sure enough so it was. Jack says it is his rite down solemn opinion that of these ere Abolishun Cabynet were to stop trying to catch the South, she would be hum an' in the Union bed afore mornin.

THE BLESSED ONES.—Blessed are they that are blind; for they shall see no ghosts.

Blessed are they that are deaf; for they never lend money, nor listen to tedious stories.

Blessed are they that are afraid of thunder; for they shall hesitate about getting married, and keep away from political meetings.

Blessed are they that are lean; for there is a chance to grow fat.

Blessed are they that are ignorant; for they are happy in thinking that they know everything.

Blessed is he that is ugly in form and features; for the gals shan't molest him.

Blessed is she that would get married but can't; for the consolations of the gospel are her's.

Blessed are the orphan children; for they have no mother to spank them.

Blessed are they that expect nothing; for they shall not be disappointed.

Blessed are they that do not advertise; for they shall rarely be troubled with customers.

☞ A WRITER in Godey's Magazine (Phila.,) says:—"A friend of mine advertised for a girl. She was called down to see a 'lady who wanted to see the person who advertised,' and went into the parlor. The lady wore a plaid silk, handsome cloak, richly trimmed bonnet, kid gloves, and a thickly worked black lace veil down; carried an embroidered handkerchief, and a mother of pearl card case. She made a great many inquiries about the place, which were politely answered, as my friend thought she wanted to recommend somebody. At last she said: 'Well, I'll inquire and see if any better place offers; if not, I'll come and try it. I'll leave my card, in case you wish to send me any word.' And throwing back her veil, disclosing a bright mulatto, she took out a card, courtesied, and left. The card was embossed, and written on it was 'Miss Lavina, Lady Attendant, Laundry Department, C. H.' Possibly "Continental Hotel."

THE NEW GOSPEL OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT.—Thou shalt hate George B. McClellan with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment, and the second is like unto it.

Thou shalt hate Horatio Seymour.

Upon these two commandments hang all the contracts and all the profits.

FLATTERING NOTICE.—A cotemporary, in noticing the presentation of a silver cup to a brother quill driver, says: "He needs no cup; he can drink from any vessel that contains liquor—whether the neck of a bottle, the mouth of a demijohn, the spile of a keg, or the bunghole of a barrel."

Desirable City Lots For Sale.

THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS AT PRIVATE Sale at moderate rates,

Five Building Lots on North Ninth street.

Five Building Lots on the west side of Moss alley, East of Ninth street.

Three Building Lots on the west side of North Tenth street, and Fourteen Building Lots on the east side of Moss alley.

The conditions will be made easy to purchasers, the proprietor being willing to leave two-thirds of the purchase money stand on the premises, if secured by Bond and Mortgage, and allow payment to be made in installments of 10, 20 and 50 Dollars, until the whole debt is paid, provided that one-third of the purchase money is paid on delivery of the Deed.

This is a rare chance for Laborers and Mechanics to secure homes, as the lots are in the neighborhood of the Steam Forge and Industrial Works; and as it is understood that all the Depots of the Junction Railroads will be put up near the property.

☞ Plans of the Lots may be seen at my office.

SALE OF LAND.

1,200,000 ACRES FARM LAND

OF THE

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY.

IT IS WELL KNOWN THAT THIS COMpany, in the few years since the construction of the Railroad, has sold a large number of Farms to settlers, who, mostly in a short time, enjoyed a degree of prosperity, which is sufficient evidence of the quality of the soil, and the facilities for disposing of its produce. The numerous villages which have sprung up in this short time also indicate the abundant resources of the country.

The land is rich PRAIRIE SOIL, often thickly wooded. Woodland can generally be purchased at short distances and low prices—sometimes of the Company. The various kinds of grain are successfully cultivated. Fruit, Grapes, &c., grow rapidly, and yield abundantly and of superior quality. The fruit market is probably the best in the West. For the raising of Cattle there is no better country to be found. Considering the infancy of the settlements, much has already been done for Schools.

The Company offers to settlers great advantages. The land is sold—Wood or Prairie,—at from $8 to $12 per acre, according to its distance from the Railroad. At the time of purchase, only the interest of the purchase money is required. For the 3 first years, likewise only the interest. At the end of the fourth year and the three following, each one-quarter of the capital; thus after the expiration of seven years, the whole amount is paid. On cash payments a liberal discount is allowed. Purchasers are exempt from taxes on the land for seven years.

☞ The undersigned has been appointed agent, and having personally examined the land, is able to give exact information. All communications to be addressed to

THE GREAT Dyspepsia Remedy and Blood Searcher.

DR. MARKLEY'S HEALTH RESTORATIVE BALSAM.—This celebrated Medicine is offered to the public as the best remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, Piles, Diseases of the Blood, Eruptions of the Skin, etc.

IT HAS CURED THOUSANDS!

IT IS A NEVER FAILING REMEDY!

TRY IT.

Read what Wm. Agnew, Esq., says:

[illegible] Agnew, Esq., of the firm of Campbell & Marshall, Boot and Shoe dealers, Centre Square, LANCASTER, PA., March 4, 1863.

Dr. MARKLEY:—Dear Sir: For many years I was the victim of Dyspepsia, and during that time my system became so much debilitated, that I was unable to perform any kind of labor. I had resorted to the best doctors within reach, without relief. I used some of the most popular remedies of the day, but none of them did me any good. My sufferings cannot be described in words. I was then living at Hopewell, Chester county, and in 1857, as a last resort, I commenced the use of your medicines. They soon afforded me relief from the most painful symptoms which I had scarcely hoped to obtain; and in a surprisingly short time I was completely restored to health, and I have enjoyed the best of health ever since—not a symptom of my old complaint remaining. Since then, I have always kept your medicines in my family, and would not be without them upon any consideration, as they have never failed to do what you claim for them.

Respectfully yours,

A. D. CAMPBELL.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alterative of wonderful efficacy is disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant: but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infected with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible in remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being piled with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and perman
