Quick-Knacks.

THE CRY OF COAL.—The high price of coal causes many a sigh among those who have not the means to provide supplies of this indispensable article of fuel. It is terrible to contemplate the suffering that scores of poverty stricken families will endure the present winter, unless something be done for their relief. One of our rural cotemporaries, amidst the cry for "copy," and with a sorry look at his empty coal bin, thus ventilates his feelings:

Coal! Coal!
To keep together body and soul.
The people are crying aloud for coal,
And they cannot pay what the cormorants ask,
And there is no sunshine in which to bask.

Coal! Coal!
Ye prodigals who in carriages roll,
Think of the poor ones suffering for coal,
And spare a dollar or two for those
Who have shoeless feet and threadbare clothes.

Coal! Coal!
Ye politicians who'd reach your goal,
Think of the voters who have no coal;
Think of the poor men in their homes of woes;
Think of the rude winter's winds and snows.

Coal! Coal!
Ye learned Divines who'd save the soul,
There are bodies to warm, and where's the coal?
Relieve the poor in their great distress,
And labors of love a Heaven will bless!

Coal! Coal!
Do something soon or the bell will toll
For those who have died for the want of coal—
Not so—no bell—but a single breath—
With a coroner's jury—"Frozen to death!"

WILLING TO MAKE IT RIGHT.—Mr. M., of Northern Vermont, is not distinguished for liberality, either of purse or opinion. His ruling passion is a fear of being cheated. The loss, whether real or fancied, of a few cents, would give him more pain than the destruction of our entire Navy. He one day bought a large cake of tallow at a country store at ten cents a pound. On breaking it to pieces at home it was found to contain a large cavity. This he considered a terrible disclosure of cupidity and fraud. He drove furiously back to the store, entered in great excitement, bearing the tallow, and exclaiming:—"Here you rascal, you have cheated me! Do you call that an honest cake of tallow? It is hollow, and there ain't near so much as there appeared to be. I want you to make it right." "Certainly, certainly," replied the merchant, "I'll make it right. I didn't know the cake was hollow. Let me see, you paid ten cents per pound. Now, Mr M., how much do you suppose that hole weighed?" Mr. M. returned home with the dishonest tallow, but was never satisfied that he had not been cheated by buying holes.

PURITAN WEDDING DISCOURSES.—The practice of wedding discourses was handed down into the last century, and sometimes beguiled the parties concerned into rather startling levities. For instance, when Parson Smith's daughter Mary was to marry young Mr. Cranch—(what graceful productions of pen and pencil have come to this generation from the prosterity of that union!)—the father permitted the saintly maiden to decide on her own text for the sermon, and she meekly selected "Mary hath chosen the better part, which shall not be taken away from her," and the discourse was duly pronounced. But when her wild young sister Abby was bent on marrying a certain Squire Adams, called John, whom her father disliked, and would not even invite to dinner, she boldly suggested for her text, "John came neither eating bread or drinking wine, and ye say he hath a devil." But no sermon stands recorded under this prefix, though Abby lived to be the wife of one President of the United States and mother of another. —Atlantic Monthly.

☞ PETROLEUM V. NASEBY writes that he had an interview with the President recently, which terminated thus:

"Is ther any little thing I kin do fer you?" sez he.

"Nothin' pertikler. I wood accept a small Post-orfis, if sitooated within ezy range uv a distilry. My politikle daze is well-nigh over. Let me but see the old party wunst moar in the assemdency—let these old ize wunst moar behold the Constooshin ez it is, the Union ez it wuz, and the Nigger ware he ought 2 be, and I will rap the mantel uv private life arownd me, and go in2 delirum tremens happy. I hev no ambishen. I am in the sear and yaller leef. These whithnin' lox. them sunken cheeks, warn me that age and whisky hev dun ther perteck work, and that I shell soon go hents. Linkin, scorn not my words. I hev sed. Adoo.

Five Building Lots on North Ninth street.

Five Building Lots on the west side of Moss alley, East of Ninth street.

Three Building Lots on the west side of North Tenth street, and Fourteen Building Lots on the east side of Moss alley.

The conditions will be made easy to purchasers, the proprietor being willing to leave two-thirds of the purchase money stand on the premises, if secured by Bond and Mortgage, and allow payment to be made in installments of 10, 20 and 50 Dollars, until the whole debt is paid, provided that one-third of the purchase money is paid on delivery of the Deed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

OWING TO THE WONDERFUL INCREASE in our business, and the want of sufficient room to accommodate the same, we have found it necessary to extend the boundaries of our yard, and have accordingly leased the LUMBER YARD, situated on THIRD STREET BELOW PINE STREET, which will be used exclusively for piling HEMLOCK and WHITE PINE JOIST, SCANTLING, RAFTERS, and BILL TIMBER, of all sizes and lengths. In our old yard, on the north side of Pine street, extending from Third to Fourth street, will at all times be found to contain a full assortment of seasoned BOARDS, PLANK, SHINGLES, &c.

Our facilities for supplying Lumber hereafter, will be such that they cannot be surpassed in this or any other market in the State, and our prices will be found to be lower than at any other yard in this city. It is our purpose to keep on hand every article that should be kept in a FIRST CLASS LUMBER YARD, and any article that may not be on hand when called for, will be procured at short notice.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alterative of wonderful efficacy is disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant: but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of BILIOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from OLD AGE, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it oper
