A HIGHLY interesting entertainment was given on Saturday evening last by Pianoli-no, the celebrated Illusionist, at Tuckerton Hall, Tuckerton. The hall was well filled by an appreciative audience. ' The performances were frequently applauded, and all seemed highly delighted by the manner in work done for other parties, and he cautions persons from paying any bills due him which may be presented to them, excepting they are presented by himself.

Resolved, That we bespeak for the candilates that may be presented to the county convention from Amity, for nomination, that same courtesy and generous support from our neighboring townships that we have on former occasions accorded to them. Resolved, That we call upon all Democrats of the townships not to lose sight of the great importance of the State election, and we appeal to them, by all that may hold uear and dear, to bring out the full strength of the party on the 13th of. October next. Resolved, That the members of the Club town their success of the Club tender their sincero and hearty thanks to Aug. S. Sassaman, Esq., for his very able and interesting address. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in all the Democratic papers of the city of Reading. On motion the Club adjourned, to meet again at the public house of Donnis O'Brien, at Douglassville, on Saturday ovening, Sept. 5th.

PAINTS, oil and building materials will be found cheaper at J. L. Stichter's than at any other house in Reading. j 18-tf

DR. LIGHT has just received a large lot of pure, fresh drugs and medicines, of all kinds. Those who desire the pure article (and who does not?) we would advise them to go to him. His prices are reasonable, and he waits upon all his customers in a prompt and gentlemanly manuer. All prescriptions are put up in the most careful manner, and there is no danger of any mistakes occurring. The Doctor has also all kinds of toilet articles for sale,—oils, washes, soaps,

We have no doubt grand meetings were held in different parts of country, per custom, in which they participated. The First Reformed and Lutheran Church steeples have been more or less covered each day for several weeks by the swallows, which were evidently taking a birds-eye view of matters and things previous, to their departure.

FALSE ALARMS.-There were two more false alarms of fire last evening. The yelling urching who create these alarms should remember that though it may be fun for them to see the apparatus run, it is death to the firemen in this hot weather. Persons wilfully raising false alarms of fire should be arrested and punished.
