

FIRST EDITION—12 1-2 P. M.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—The drum and fife, followed by political organizations, entering Penn street tonight. A lively fight occurred between a white man and a "colored brudder," in Washington street, between Third and Fourth, yesterday afternoon. The white man got the worst of the fight, leaving the ground with several cuts in his head. Martin is again in the ascendancy, and the number of heavy couples linking hearts and hands for "better or worse," is on the increase. Yesterday afternoon two quite small children got out of a window of a house, corner of 7th and Spruce streets, which was three stories high, on to an adjoining roof. They were seen just in time by a lady, who reported it to Mr. Michael (feizer, who snatched them from their perilous situation. Hotels are looking up with patronage, and the countenances of landlords are brightening. Improvements all over our city are beginning to be pushed forward with rapidity, and the winter will witness a large addition to our growth and prosperity. The business of the Express offices is increasing wonderfully. Merchants are laying in full goods, which taxes the resources of the companies. There must have been a migration of the recent influx of hand organs to other localities, for there is a perceptible decline in their number in our city. The greatest portrait painter—one of our fashionable belles, she paints her own face. Apples were quite plenty in market this morning. Says a tasteful editor: "The first nine hundred and ninety-five thousand times we heard 'Champagne Charlie' we liked it; but now we are beginning to tire of it." Visiting cards, business cards or any other kind of cards, printed at short notice, at the Eagle office. Two soap men held forth at 6th and Penn streets last night. One of them played the banjo while the other took in the stumps. The buildings in Cherry alley, which were recently damaged by fire, have been repaired. Excluding Philadelphia, Reading has the best fire department in the State. New apple-butter has made its appearance in our market at 50 cents per quart. A new song has appeared called "Little Tom." It is said to be popular. Stocks that are always up—those around the neck. The weather is gradually growing cooler—and soon the trees will drop their gorgeous autumnal tints of storied garb and ornaments. Many hogs have recently died in various sections of Dauphin county. There is a disease prevalent among them known as "hog cholera."—Merchants are now beginning to brush up their harvest in their hands. There has been, and still is, considerable sickness prevailing in our city and neighborhood—although not of a serious or alarming nature. Stewart is still holding forth and draws large audiences nightly. Butter, on market this morning, sold at from 40 to 45 cents per pound. A hungry dog stole a large piece of beef this morning at market. A man carrying a bucket of mortar on his head must be a sub-limo character. Break bread in small pieces and soak in cold milk; when soft add one teaspoonful of salt, one of salt and flour for a good batter—and you will have splendid bread cake. The Radical leaders are doing a great deal of low lying about these dignitaries, but they will have to "lie lower" after the election. Considerable damage was done by the heavy shower on Monday in the vicinity of Hamburg. One of the most unwelcome truths is to show up wickedness in high places. Fifth and Penn (north-west corner) seems to be a loafing place for certain young men. The latest swell of vanity is real coral buttons on a white vest. Young men who go home at the proper hour of the night, are not so liable to get into trouble. One of the victims of the enlightening age—medicine. The Boston Express and the Reading Dispatch are quarrelling about a woman named "Sarah" to get into. On Saturday night last, the store of Miller & Co., at Shoenaker'sville, was entered and robbed of a silver watch and $8. The large shaft which was broken at the Mahanoy Plains, Schuylkill county, a few days ago, has been brought to this city for repairs. Pig-tail soup with how-now trimmings has become a dish at the leading saloons of the large cities. Owing to the unaccountable absence of the cook this morning, Mrs. Fay Tidious was compelled to go in to the kitchen and get breakfast. Hopes are entertained of her recovery. Oysters are coming in favor again, and the yield will be immense. Printing is called the "black art," but it sheds more light over the world, than all others. The most sultry place, where the heat is oppressively felt during the warm days, is at the railroad. During the summer it is the hottest, and in the winter the coldest locality, in this vicinity. Stove dealers are polishing up. A society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals should be formed in this city. Now and then we see dumb brutes treated in the most merciless manner. Soon our advertisements to-day. The election is fast approaching—so is the downfall of Radicalism. Never take anything for granted if you can get it any other way. Pocket-knives and pen cases, just the thing for travelers, agents, and secretaries of meetings, for sale very cheap at the Eagle bookstore. A grand ball to-night at the Military Garden. See advertisement.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.—The third annual celebration of the Shoemaker'sville Sunday School, will be held in Joshua Reber's woods, near Shoemaker'sville, on Saturday next, September 12th. The Shoemaker'sville Cornet Band will attend, and addresses will be delivered by several able speakers. On Saturday morning last, between two and three o'clock, the wife of Mr. Ephraim Weidner, living in Colebrookdale township, Berks county, attempted to commit suicide by cutting her throat with a razor. She is lying in a very critical condition. She had been laboring under depression of spirits for some weeks past without any assignable cause. MASONIC REUNION.—An excursion party composed of Knights Templar and Royal Arch Masons, is going to St. Louis next month. All the principal cities of the Eastern States will be represented. It is stated that the excursionists will take passage on regular trains to Pittsburg, from which point a special train conveys them through to St. Louis. The fare for the round trip will be a trifle less than half the regular figures. WISN TO FISH.—An old fisherman states that if a man wishes to catch fish, let him not pick the full moon day to do it. He gives a philosophical reason for the advice; whether sound or not we cannot decide. He says, when the moon is full, the night being bright, enables the fish to do all their foraging in the night time. Of course, having their wants supplied, they do up all day, and consequently there is a scarcity of "bites." Under the new moon season, the fish have to sleep at night, and work by day; that makes the difference in the fisherman's string. If our friends will use preparations for restoring gray hair they should use the best in the market. Our attention has lately been called to an article which has an extensive sale and a very high reputation, known as King's Vegetable Ambrosia, and we are inclined to think that it possesses more desirable and less objectionable qualities than any food hair to its original color in a most remarkable manner, and by its invigorating and soothing properties removes all dandruff and humors from the scalp. Give it a fair trial and you cannot fail to like it. aug 18 1 m

MEETING OF LODGES AND ASSOCIATIONS.—The following named organizations will hold their regular stated meetings this (WEDNESDAY) evening:

- Metamora Lodge No. 147, I. O. of O. F., at Odd Fellows' Hall. Continental Lodge, I. O. of O. F., at Temperance Hall. Minnehaha Council No. 69, O. U. A. M., at Ballada's Hall. Lady Jefferson Home Communion, Brotherhood Union Hall. Maria Conclave No. 8, D. of M., 703 Penn street. Sinking Spring Council No. 77, O. U. A. M., at Sinking Spring. Order of Seven Wise Men, Yeager's Hall. Concordia Chamber, No. 2, O. K. F., corner Fifth and Washington.

"EMINENT WOMEN OF THE AGE" is the title of a new work published by S. M. Betts & Co., Hartford, Conn. This is one of the most interesting books we have seen for a long time. The sketches of "Eminent Women" are from the pens of the best writers in America, and the book is illustrated with fourteen steel engravings, portraits of the following distinguished ladies: Hester B. Bonhour, Florence Nightingale, Lydia H. Sigourney, Margaret Fuller Ossoli, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Mrs. Emma Willard, Mrs. Victoria Childy Stanton, Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth C. Dickinson, Mrs. C. S. Lozier, M. D., and Harriet G. Hosmer. Besides the sketches of these ladies, the work contains the lives and deeds of many other distinguished women of the present age, written in the most entertaining style. Miss E. A. Grath, Principal of the Malo Grammar School, Third Section, in this city, is Agent for this excellent work, which should be in every library, public or private, in our country.

THE MILK TRADE.—The milk trade, along the line of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, is becoming an important branch of business. The farmers and dairymen along the line send down their milk by the Pottstown Accommodation Train, which leaves here at 6:45 in the morning, and receive their cans from their city customers by the return of the same train in the evening. The total quantity of the lactical fluid taken to Philadelphia daily by this train is nearly 2,500 gallons. Of this, the heaviest shipment from one station is from Pottstown—about 600 gallons; the next largest quantity is from Perkiomen Junction, about 400 gallons, and Limerick Station comes next, with about 400 gallons. The remainder to supply comes from Sanatoga, Moyers' Park, and other stations below.

Reading, Sept. 2d, 1868.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

THIRTEENTH DAY.—MONDAY. Adam M. Meyer by his father and next friend Daniel Meyer, vs. Dr. Adam B. Durdore; and David Meyer vs. same. Continued on application and at cost of plff. David McKnight, Committee of Henry Klohs vs. Anton Klohs. Continued on application of def. John P. Miller and Wm. Rowe vs. Patrick O'Reilly; 152 Aug. T. 1865. This was an action of covenant. The plffs. were the owners of a lease from Elizabeth Miller of a tract of land on the southern slope of Penn's Mountain near Reading, on which was an iron ore mine. This lease they assigned to P. O'Reilly, in December, 1863, he undertaking to pay them two hundred dollars in orders to be drawn upon him, and six hundred dollars out of the profits of the ore to be mined. He was also to erect a steam engine, &c., for raising the ore. O'Reilly worked the mines for a short time and then abandoned them. The suit was brought by the plffs. to recover the damages they sustained. The defendants contended that there was no ore on the premises, and that the defendant was therefore excused from prosecuting the work. They also alleged that the lease had been surrendered to the plffs. at their request in April, 1861, and that the def. was therefore released from any further responsibility. William Rowe, one of the plffs. was examined, and testified that the suit was brought without his consent; that he regarded O'Reilly as owing them nothing; that the lease had been surrendered to the plffs. by O'Reilly, at the request of Miller, and that Miller had afterwards entered on the premises, taken away the fixtures and sold them. He further testified that he did not think there was any ore on the premises worth mining for, and that he would not take the mine holes as a gift. Other witnesses were examined as to the value of the mine holes—some thought them worthless and others thought them valuable. It was shown that the Derby Iron Company had taken three thousand tons of ore from the premises after O'Reilly left, but the defts. contended that it cost them more than it was worth. It was also contended that Rowe was hostile to Miller, and had right no compromise his claim. Verdict for plff. for $28, 17, J. Ross Miller, Hawley and Young for plffs. Hagenman and J. S. Richards for def.

FOURTEENTH DAY.—TUESDAY.

Jonathan L. Klopp vs. The Bernville Live Stock Insurance Company. 238 August T. 1866. Case to be stated. Van Reed for plff. Boyer for def. Jacob Stub vs. Jonathan Dundore. 115 Jan. T. 1866. Action of trespass. On trial.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE Board of Controllers are crowded out to-day. They will appear to-morrow.

A regular old-fashioned country moving, passed our office, between 11 and 12 o'clock this morning. There were some half a dozen wagons, on one of which sat some half a dozen ladies.

MEETING OF SYNOD.—We are informed, the East Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod, composed of the English Lutheran Churches, will convene in annual session in Lancaster this evening.

As most people are anxious to get a little more light on the subjects now under consideration, we would advise them to get a set of the new Lamp Shades, at McKnight's Hardware Store, Third and Penn streets.

POCKET BOOK FOUND.—Officer Kemp found last night, in South Fifth street, a lady's portmanteau, containing a small amount of money. The owner can have the same by calling at the Mayor's office and proving property.

THE members of the City Councils, Mayor and other official dignitaries of Reading, had a pleasant trip yesterday visiting the reservoirs of the city. They wound up at the Mineral Springs, where they partook of a supper. They returned to the City about 6 o'clock, P. M.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—William H. Lenhardt was arrested last evening about 9 o'clock, by officer Lewis, at the corner of Seventh and Franklin streets, for drunkenness. Fined $3.25 and discharged.

OFFICER BOONE arrested a small boy last evening at market, charged with the theft of cantelopes from a huckster stand. Case settled this morning, and the boy discharged.

RAN OFF THE TRACK.—The engine Atlas, belonging to the Reading Railroad Company, ran off the track at Harrisburg, on Monday evening sustaining considerable damage. The cow catcher and bumper were broken, and a number of cars badly damaged. The accident was caused by a misplaced switch, and it required several hours to restore the engine to its position on the track.

AXLE BROKE.—Last evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock while Mr. Reuben Adams was driving down Penn street, below Fourth, the axle of his carriage broke, putting a stop to the further locomotion of the rigging. The one corner of the vehicle came down with a thump. Fortunately, Mr. Adams was driving a light horse, also a serious accident might have resulted.

ANOTHER TAX ON CIGAR DEALERS.—By a provision in the late Revenue Law all Hotel and Restaurant keepers who sell cigars at their bar are required to take out a retailer's license, the same as if they dealt in cigars exclusively. When the bill was before Congress, Mr. Getz tried to get small Hotels and Restaurants exempt from this tax, and offered an amendment that all whose sales did not amount to $100 per year should not be required to take out a separate license, but it was voted down by the Rump, showing their determination to wring every dollar from the poor man in the shape of taxes that they could.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—Last evening Deborah Franklin H. C. No. 9, of this city, was visited by the G. C. W. of Penna., and the following officers installed: P.—Thos. Jones. Plt.—Daniel Matzberger. Pt.—Isaac Whitman. Pltess.—Maria E. Wilson. Pstess.—Matilda Boudon. S. K.—James L. Hobson. R.—Lizzie E. Gabriel. I.—Richard Whitman. W. D.—Rosa Ely. W. N.—H. W. Molyneux. Rep. to G. & S. C.—James L. Hobson.

A NEW CHURCH enterprise has been commenced at Annuville, under the auspices of the Lutherans. On last Sunday the cornerstone was laid with appropriate ceremonies, conducted by Rev. B. Schmauk. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Rev. A. J. Shantz of Myerstown, and Rev. Dr. Johnson of this borough. The services, which were held in a barn, were concluded with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hyster of Annuville. The congregation who have embarked in this movement are united and zealous, and are strongly attached to pure Lutheranism, as founded upon the Augsburg confession, and their prospects are very encouraging.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Peter Dobbins, a well-known colored citizen of Reading, and captain of the canal boat "Tornado," was arrested early this morning at the Little Dam, about two miles below Reading, by officers Cullon and Priestley, and bound over before Alderman Richards for a hearing at Court, charged with assault and battery on a white man by the name of John C. Kaiss, yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock in Washington street, near Third. It appears that words passed between the parties in a beer saloon in Washington street above Fifth, previous to the assault, after which both happened to pass down Washington street, where the former struck the latter on the head. The latter fell into the gutter and received a terrible gash in the head above the left ear. It is supposed he was struck with a billy, or a stone, carried in the hand of the assailant.

DELEGATE MEETINGS.—Meetings were held last evening by the Democracy of the First and Second wards, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the County Convention, to be voted for on Saturday next.

In the First ward, the meeting, which was large and enthusiastic, was held at the public house of Jacob Conrad. The following gentlemen were nominated: George Boyer, A. Strohecker, Richard Ridwine, John Kelley was President of the meeting, and H. E. Keffor, Secretary.

In the Second ward the meeting was held at the public house of Jacob Wentzel. It was the largest delegate meeting that has ever been held in this city. It is estimated that at least six hundred Democratic voters were present. The delegates nominated are as follows: Joseph J. Clay, William Fix and John Horn. The meeting, notwithstanding the large attendance, orderly and harmonious.

THE CONSPIRACY CASE. WHY THE TESTIMONY IS NOT PUBLISHED. During the past few days, a hearing in the case of Alexander vs. Barto, Getz, et al., has been going on before Alderman Mengel, and it has been asked why the testimony has not been published in the EAGLE.

We answer, because we do not recognize the validity of the hearing. We know that this hearing was brought about, and the testimony published, through the influence of designing Radicals, for the purpose of injuring the Democratic party in this county, and for no other purpose.

In proof of this, a prominent Republican, in speaking of this hearing, said, in effect, that they (the Republicans) "didn't care a t—n how the case went, if they could only make mischief in the Democratic party!" Now, as our mission is to create unity, and not mischief, in the ranks of the gallant Democracy of Berks, we decline assisting our Republican friends in making mischief by the publication of testimony which is all on one side, and in which no cross examination or other participation of the counsel for the defence has been had. The publication of evidence thus taken, without contradiction or cross-examination, will only tend to mislead the public mind as to the true state of the case.

As soon as the case is brought before the proper tribunal, the Court, which will be within a few days) we will give a fair and truthful synopsis of the evidence, on both sides, for the information of our readers. In the meantime we positively decline to assist the Republicans in "making mischief" in the Democratic party, by the publication of evidence which would only bowlder the public, and create false impressions without aiding the ends of justice.

THE CONSPIRACY.—The parties who were accused, upon the oath of Geo. W. Alexander, late Assessor for this district, of Conspiracy in effecting his removal from office, appeared before Alderman Mengel on Wednesday last, Aug. 26th, and gave the required bail for their appearance at the November Court, to answer the charge. Here, as the Alderman himself declared, his jurisdiction ended, and the case was properly referred to the Court. But, to the surprise of the whole community, a so-called "hearing" in the case took place on Monday. No notice of this proceeding was served upon the defendants, and the best lawyers at our Bar are unable to understand by what authority of law the magistrate acted. The counsel for the defendants took no part in the matter, but simply entered their protest against it, as an illegal and ex parte proceeding. The testimony of the witnesses who were examined, has been obtained, as we believe, for the sole purpose of diverting public attention from the real guilty party, and getting into print a mass of manufactured evidence against innocent parties which could not otherwise have been produced. Evidence so obtained, is of course worthless in a legal point of view, and would not be received by any Court of Justice in the land. —Gazette.

[From our Hamburg Correspondent.] HAMBURG, Sept. 1, 1868.

DEAR EAGLE.—A terrible thunder shower passed over our town on Monday afternoon. It was at its height about 2 o'clock. The water came down in torrents, the lightning was so bright that it was blinding, and the thunder so loud that it frightened the nervous. The lightning struck at four different places, without, however, doing much damage, except killing a cow belonging to Mr. Reuben Seidel. The water flooded the rolling mill, put out the fires, and required the men to suspend work. The oldest inhabitants say that they do not recollect ever witnessing such a terrific storm as that of yesterday.

The School Board of this borough is about to revise the course of studies in the schools, which will necessarily make some change in the grade, and create a regular system of promotion by holding examination about once a month, and this, too, doubt will make the schools more efficient and more advantageous to the pupils attending.

On Saturday next, there will be a combined picnic of the St. John's, Emmanuel, and the Methodist Episcopal Sunday Schools, in the beautiful grove of Senman's woods. The Hamburg Cornet Band has been engaged for the occasion.

STRUNG BY BUMBLERS.—The Pottstown Ledger of yesterday, states that at a picnic held by the Trinity Reformed Sunday School of that borough, on Thursday last, in a woods near Limerick station, a party of boys stirred up a bluebees' nest. The bees attacked a party of ladies near by, severely stinging Mrs. Roshon and a babe she held in her arms. Roshon and a babe she held in her arms. The insects were driven from her, and then not until a number of the party were badly stung. Mrs. Roshon, who is the wife of Philip Roshon, of that borough, was placed in a wagon and driven home by Mr. Jesse Gilbert. Among the other persons to whom the bees took a fancy was the wife and two daughters of Mr. M. Y. Schooley, a daughter of Mr. Zeno Dampman, of that place, and the two Misses Werner, of Reading. The most singular part of the affair was that nearly all who were stung, became immediately thereafter very sick.

[Communicated.] Mr. Enton.—It is very peculiar, indeed, that that always boasting paper, the Dispatch, is silent about the contents of the so-called masterly speech of Mr. Carl Schurz. It is a pity that no short-hand writer was there, to give to the public a full account of the dirty principles laid down by one of their best authorities. Not a sound idea has been pronounced that could stand a fair judgment, and in giving the speech a great circulation the people could see the foul play and rottenness of the governing party; and a full statement of the speech would convert still more Republicans to the Democratic party. Some straw-filled head styles himself "A Former Democrat," and as he can't say anything good about Mr. Schurz, he harks at every one who says the truth, and feels evidently very uneasy about the place where he belongs, to the asses or to the Radicals. REPUBLIC.

OLD SOAP.—Mr. Saml. Breuser showed to us this morning a large piece of home-made soap, which was boiled 15 years ago, in Robesonia, this county, by Mrs. Leah Fisher.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.
