THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—The Grand Lodge of the Order of Harugari is now holding its sessions in this city. Much business of importance is before it.

The fire alarm of the 7th inst. evening brought out a greater portion of the fire department. There was some lively racing down Penn Square.

Mr. Henry C. Brown, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, is now in this city. He is expected to have some of the first-class cars.

The ancient proclaimed that Mermaids, Nymphs, Naiads, and the Graces, had long fished tresses which made them envied by their sisters of earth.

Corner loafing.—This subject has been so often alluded to and the habit so frequently reprehended, with no apparent success, that it seems almost unnecessary to bring it again before the offenders.

An Old Deed.—S. Cross Fry, Esq., of Philadelphia, has forwarded to the Reading Ledger a rare curiosity from among the papers of his father, the late Hon. Jacob Fry, Jr., of the Trappe, Pa.

Merchants and shippers of goods will be glad to learn that there is now a daily fast freight line between Reading and New York, via the Morris and Essex railroad.

Picked cucumbers.—To a gallon of water add a quart of salt, put in the cucumbers, and let them stay overnight.

BRICK POMEROY IS COMING!

MASS MEETING OF THE PEOPLE!

Following letter has just been received from Mark M. Pomeroy, Esq. (generally known as "Brick") Pomeroy, editor of the La Crosse Democrat.

Mr. Pomeroy will be welcomed by a GRAND MASS MEETING of the Democratic and Conservative citizens of Berks county, to be held in the city of Reading, on Friday Evening, Sept. 18th, 1868.

Attempted Murder in Boston. Boston, Sept. 9.—In North Russell street, last night, James Freeman, Jr., discharged a pistol at Frank A. Burnham, but without hitting him.

THE CONFERENCE of Schuylkill and Lebanon has not yet agreed upon a candidate for Congress for that district.

BARCLAY-MIESSER, On the 9th inst., in Pottsville, Pa., by Rev. L. D. Gehman, OYUNA N. BARCLAY, Junior Editor Potomac Standard, to MRS. CHRISTINA MIESSER, all of Pottsville.

LOCAL NOTICES. Fair and near throughout the Whole Country, the newspapers team with the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Russell's Magnetic Oil.

IF our friends will use preparations for restoring gray hair they should use the best in the market.

DR. LEON has just received a large lot of pure, fresh drugs and medicines, of all kinds.

THE DOCTOR has also all kinds of toilet articles for sale, oils, washes, soaps, brushes, combs, &c.

FISHING TACKLE.—Just received, a new lot of rods, lines, snoods, bait boxes, and the celebrated Carlisle hooks.

THE CAMPAIGN EAGLE. During the present campaign, from Sept. 12th to November 12th, a period of three months, the DAILY EAGLE will be issued to campaign subscribers at the following rates:

From Sept. 12th to Nov. 12th, 2 mos. 80. From Oct. 12th to Nov. 12th, 1 mo. 40. No subscription for the campaign EAGLE will be received unless accompanied by the cash.

Any person getting up a club of Ten subscribers, will receive a copy gratis. The EAGLE will keep its readers well informed on all the political topics of the day, and will labor zealously for the dissemination of sound Democratic doctrines.

It will also contain, in a condensed form, all the general news of the day, with a complete and correct account of all local matters in or connected with our city and county.

Every voter in Berks county should take the EAGLE for the campaign. Address RITTER & CO., Eagle Office, Reading, Pa.

PRIVATE SALE.—A TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE of Eight and Chestnut streets, in this city. This being a corner property, is suitable for a saloon or store, and is a good stand.

NOTICE OF CAUTION.—I hereby caution Nany and all persons against purchasing a certain promissory note given by me to J. Sullivan, Agent for the U. S. Lightning Rod Company, for two hundred and forty dollars, dated July 1st, 1868, made payable six months after date.
