FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT, OF DUBLINIA COUNTY.

Election, Tuesday, October 13th, 1868.

Democratic County Nominations

For Congress: HON. J. LAWRENCE GETZ, of Reading.

For Assembly: HENRY S. HOTTENSTEIN, of Hazleton; HENRY BOBBEY, of Tulpehocken; RICHMOND L. JONES, of Reading.

For District Attorney: EDWARD H. SHEARER, of Reading.

For County Commissioner: WILLIAM S. YOUNG, of Reading.

For County Surveyor: DANIEL S. ZACHARIAS, of Reading.

According to the Radical papers in Lancaster, "one hundred copperhead rowdies" thrashed "twenty thousand Republicans," last Tuesday.

It has been proved that the editor of the newspaper called "The Irish People," in New York, was bought over, for $5,000, by John G. Wilkin, a leading Radical politician. All those Irishmen will disown such an unprincipled knave.

The New York Tribune says the Democrats have carried Idaho by 802 majority. At the last election they had 718 majority. Keep the ball rolling! Wonder if Grant's visit to the West had anything to do with the change?

REPUBLICANS, the watchword from this hour at home in the State and in the Union, is "Work! Work! Work!" Without it we will fail.—Elihu Abraham.

The rail-splitter is frightened, and he certainly has good reason to be.

We hope our Democratic friends will refrain from any offensive demonstration, by words or otherwise, during the Radical parade this evening. Every man has a right to his own political opinions—and the Republicans enjoy their parade, and then let us beat it next Tuesday!

GEN. KILPATRICK asked for leave to come home from Chili "on private business." The private business is making political speeches to Radical mobs, for which the people have to pay him nine thousand dollars a year. Meanwhile, the interests of Americans in Chili who suffered by the late earthquake are neglected. "Kill" should do his duty or give up his position to a better man.

WORKINGMEN, if any one attempts to intimidate or discharge you from your employment on account of your political opinions, remember that the election laws of the State will give you full redress. Read the following extract from "the election laws of Pennsylvania":

"If any person shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly, or otherwise, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months."

A word to the wise is sufficient.

A TORCH FOR THE MIBWORTH MISSIONARIES.—Under the head of "Starring Discoveries," Rev. Geo. Brinckhurst, of this city, in the last number of the Evangelist, gives some of the most alarming facts which we have yet heard of, in connection with the inveigling of young females into a life of vice and ruin. It appears that, in more than one instance, the Sunday school has been made to subserviate the charge of a Sunday school class, to use it for the stocking of a house of infamy. This has occurred in more than one instance. Worse even than this, in one case a scholar, young, pretty, and as a scholar bright, was discovered in this notorious agency, and it was found to be the purpose for which she entered the school.—Philadelphia Evening Star.

THE WASHINGTON LABOR CONVENTION.—The Labor Convention, which recently was held in New York city, contained in its resolutions, representative from 400,000 workingmen. This estimate is not considered to be exaggerated, since the census report of 1860 gives the following statistics as to the number of persons engaged in the following trades, of the United States and Territories:—Printers, 28,104; carpenters, 242,000; joiners, 8,228; bricklayers, 14,811; masons, 48,824; blacksmiths, 118,267. Making a total of 441,234. As there were many other occupations represented, the estimate is within the bounds of probability.

Among the many ways of spending the money of the tax-payers of Pennsylvania, the Legislature passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That (if the House of Representatives concur) the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and he is hereby directed to compile the election laws of the State, and have the same printed, and furnish a sufficient number to the commissioners of the several counties for distribution to the several election districts therein; and that ten thousand copies of the same be printed in pamphlet form for the use of the Senate and House of Representatives."

This resolution was concurred in by the House on April 7th, 1868.

In pursuance of this resolution, and at the expense of the tax-payers, the Secretary of the Commonwealth has published a pamphlet which is calculated to mislead and embarrass the election officers, rather than enlighten them.

For example, in note A, at the bottom of page 18, the decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania is quoted in the case of Catlin vs. Smith, 2, S. & R. p. 207.

"To enable a citizen, otherwise qualified, to enjoy the rights of an elector, it is necessary that he should, within two years next before the election, have paid a State or county tax, which had been assessed upon him personally at least six months before the election."

To show that this was no oversight or mistake of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and that it was inserted for the purpose of misleading the election officers, this same decision is again quoted on page 120.

"This case of Catlin vs. Smith was decided by the Supreme Court at March term, 1816, and arose from the following facts:—

"Charles Catlin, the plaintiff, brought suit against Samuel Smith, an inspector of the election, which was held on the 30th of October, 1812, for refusing to receive his vote at an election of electors of a President and Vice President of the United States. Catlin called upon the assessor less than six months before the election and caused himself to be assessed personally. The Court decided that on the 1st Section of the 8th article of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, the vote was rightfully rejected. The part of the Constitution referred to is in the following words: 'Every freeman of the age of 21 years, having resided in this State two years next before the election, and within that time paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least six months before the election, shall enjoy the rights of an elector.'"

There is no doubt that this was good law until the year 1868, when the Constitution was changed.

Article 3d, Section 1st, of the Constitution of 1868 declares "in elections by the citizens, every white freeman of the age of 21 years, having resided in this State one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election, shall enjoy the rights of an elector."

The difference between the old and new Constitutions is that under the old Constitution the assessment must have been at least six months before the election, while under the new and present Constitution the assessment must be at least ten days before the election.

Under the facts, can any impartial reader doubt that the decision of Catlin vs. Smith was quoted to mislead the election officers and electors, and this, too, at the expense of all the tax payers of Pennsylvania?

NATURALIZATION COURT, Monday, October 5th, 1868.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

SATURDAY, October 3.

Several political disturbances occurred in Philadelphia, yesterday, and several persons were injured.

The Georgia Legislature has passed a bill giving $3,000,000 in aid of State railroads. The House had passed a bill making election tickets uniform, to prevent fraud.

Gen. Stoneman has ordered an investigation of the recent accident on the Virginia Central Railroad, by which many soldiers were killed and injured.

The expenses of the Government for September, not including interest on the public debt, amounted to $28,486,889.

The Spanish Minister at Washington has officially notified the State Department of the downfall of Queen Isabella's Government.

The number of boys in blue on parade in Philadelphia, yesterday, is estimated by disinterested persons at from four to seven thousand. At Sixth and Pine streets a drunken man caused a row, when one of the Maryland delegation fired a revolver indiscriminately, wounding a merchant who had just come out of his store. A part of the delegation then went down Sixth street, assaulting several persons, and firing at random. They were not arrested.

The supporters of George Francis Train nominated him for Congress in the Fifth New York District, last evening.

The trial of Jas. O. Martin, former cashier of the Hyde and Leather Bank, on the charge of defrauding that institution of $500,000, began at Boston yesterday.

Memorandum to General McClellan.

New York, Oct. 2.—Gen. McClellan was surrounded this evening, at Fifth Avenue Hotel. The McClellan Legion, numbering 6000 or 8000 men, marched in procession to the hotel, bearing torchlights and accompanied by a band.

Madison Square was densely packed with citizens, who were waiting for Gen. McClellan, and there was a fine display of fireworks. The General's appearance, on the hotel balcony, was the signal for enthusiastic applause. He was introduced by Gen. John B. H. Ward, as the Great Commander of the Army of the Potomac.

Gen. McClellan said: I know, my friends, you will expect a speech, but be contented with an expression of my sincere thanks for this cordial greeting, on my return home. The Legion then passed in review before Gen. McClellan, and the vast assembly afterwards dispersed, cheering for the "Hero of Antietam."

FRIENDS OF THE UNION TO THE RESCUE!

Let us have Peace! Not the peace that arrays brother against brother; supports a large standing army; piles up an enormous debt; supports the black race in idleness and elevates them above our own; oppresses the mechanic and the plow-holder, the working-man and pensioner; has disunited our country and will cause a war of races; but

Let us have the Peace that will cheer the heart of every patriot and make our now down-trodden country smile in the sunshine of National Liberty and a Cemented Union.

Leave your shops and anvils, your ploughs and axes, and join in the grand chorus of the Union.

Who would sever freedom's shrine? Who would draw the despot's line? Though by birth one spot be mine, Dear is all the rest,— Dear to me the South's fair land, Dear the central mountain band, Dear New England's rocky strand, Dear the prairie West.
