SAYLOR AND BLAIR,

BOYLE AND ENT.

FRIENDS OF THE UNION TO THE [illegible]

Let [illegible] Not [illegible] elevates them above [illegible] oppressed the mechanic and the plowholder; their workingmen and gentlemen; his [illegible] our country and will cause a wail of misery [illegible]

Leave your shops and anvils, your ploughs and axes, and join in the grand chorus of the Union.

Who would never freedom's shrine?
Who would draw the despot's line?
Though by birth one spot be mine,
Dear to me is all the rest.
Dear to me is Erin's fair land,
Dear the sunny mountain band,
Dear New England's rocky strand,
Dear the prairied West.
