

READING, PA., OCTOBER 14, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT: HON. HORATIO BRYMOUR, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: GEN. FRANCIS P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. The Democratic Party... The New York Times reports that the official result of the recent election in Ohio, about a Democratic majority of 884, last year the Democrats had 718 majority.

THE WASHINGTON REPORTS... The Washington reports say thirty men and boys have been employed during the past few weeks in the States following reading and teaching... The Democratic Party... The Republican party deserves the support of the nation because, in all its history, not one of them was ever known to lift his hand against the flag of his country.

THE ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES... The Army of the United States, according to the Register for 1868, consists of five artillery, ten cavalry, and forty-five infantry regiments, which, with the staff companies of the enlisted men, and 2,097 commissioned officers, the latter including one General, one Lieutenant General, five Major Generals and nineteen Brigadiers.

THE PHILADELPHIA EVENING HERALD... The Philadelphia Evening Herald publishes a letter from a noble gentleman in New York, dated September 20, in which he writes that he is a member of the G. O. P., and a follower of Dan Stables, advised him not to bet on a Democratic majority in Pennsylvania.

THE STATES OF TEXAS IN THE UNITED STATES... This States of Texas in the United States in the years 1860 and 1868 will be given in an interesting table, now in course of preparation by the Bureau of Statistics at Washington.

THE STATES OF TEXAS IN THE UNITED STATES... This States of Texas in the United States in the years 1860 and 1868 will be given in an interesting table, now in course of preparation by the Bureau of Statistics at Washington.

THE ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT... The order of the President in relation to this matter has been published. He quotes the law and the Constitution, forbidding the army to interfere in elections, and warning the military commanders of the penalty due to such interference, viz.: $5,000 fine and imprisonment.

UNLESS PREVENTED AT THE POINT OF THE BAYONET... Unless prevented at the point of the bayonet, the people of Texas, Mississippi, and Virginia will therefore proceed to choose Presidential electors, and we hope the President will be sustained in his just action by every good citizen of our country.

THE REVOLUTION... The Revolution, Mrs. Oddy Stanton's paper, published this afternoon a letter of a lady in regard to the Presidential nominees. In private conversation Governor Seymour is instructive and interesting, and, possibly, more remarkable for his elegance of manner and graceful courtesy in the drawing room than for his manliness and sagacity in the public speaker.
