WILL ADDRESS

THE MECHANICS AND WORKINGMEN

of Reading, this evening at 7½ o'clock, from the balcony of the Keystone House.

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR IN READING.

The reception of Hon. Horatio Seymour in Reading, last evening, was a perfect ovation. The special train arrived from Harrisburg about 7½ p. m., having been delayed about an hour by the anxiety of the people of Harrisburg to see and converse with Mr. Seymour.

A large crowd of persons had assembled at the depot, among them a number of the Democracy, mounted and on foot, with torches and lanterns. On the appearance of Mr. Seymour he was greated with the most hearty applause. He was accompanied by the Committee on Reception and Escort, consisting of the following named gentlemen:

Hon. William H. Gernaud, Hon. Hiester Clymer, Hon. J. Lawrence Getz, Hon. S. E. Ancona, Col. J. D. Davis, Edwin Shalter, Esq., F. B. Laucks, Esq., Jeremiah Hagenman, Esq., William Rosenthal, Esq., Dr. H. M. Nagle, Jesse G. Hawley, Esq., Frederick Lauer, Esq., John Keppleman, Esq., Dr. W. Murray Weidman, Maj. C. P. Muhlenberg, H. L. Jones, Esq., Evan Mishler, Esq., Alfred Sanderson, Esq., and A. J. Darlington, Esq.

Mr. Seymour was escorted to a handsome barouche, drawn by four white horses, with their heads decorated with plumes of red, white and blue. The turnout was driven by the proprietor, Mr. Howard B. Boyer, and presented a splendid appearance. Daniel Ermentrout, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic Standing Committee, Frederick Lauer, Esq., and Hon. Hiester Clymer, occupied the carriage with Mr. Seymour, and the other members of the Committee followed in carriages. A detail of the D. L.'s, with torches and lanterns, marched on each side of the carriage containing Mr. Seymour, and the procession moved off, led by the Chief Marshal, Calvin B. Rhoads, and aids, followed by the Ringgold Cornet Band. Next came a company of mounted men, then the barouche and carriages, followed by men on foot with torches and lanterns, and an immense crowd of persons, all struggling to get near the carriage and obtain a glimpse of the distinguished visitor.

Mr. Seymour was frequently greeted with cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs by ladies, and many houses on the short route down Sixth street to the Keystone House were illuminated. On reaching the hotel, the crowd was so dense that it was with difficulty the police could force a passage for the party in the carriages to the side door, which the party entered and retired for refreshments and a brief interval of rest.

The crowd in front of the Keystone increased every moment, until the whole of the Square opposite the hotel was blocked up by the moving mass, among whom were many ladies. When Mr. Seymour made his appearance the applause was deafening, and the vast crowd swung and swayed from side to side in their efforts to get near the balcony, while it was almost impossible to move inside of the hotel, on account of the pressure of the immense throng.

Mr. Seymour was introduced to the audience by Daniel Ermentrout, Esq., and delivered an eloquent and impressive address, which was frequently interrupted with applause. He is an easy, graceful and fluent speaker, and the Democracy may well be proud of the fact that they, unlike the Radicals, have a candidate who can make a speech. We hope to give his address in full, very soon.

Mr. Seymour was followed by Hon. Francis Kiernan, of New York, and Gen. Patten of Bradford county, who were also heartily applauded.

After the close of the speaking, which was followed by uproarious cheers for Seymour and Blair, a reception took place in the dining room of the Keystone House, when a large number of ladies and gentlemen took advantage of the opportunity to take Mr. Seymour by the hand. His easy and unaffected manner won the hearts of all, and the Democracy left his presence more than ever devoted to their candidate for a position which he is so well qualified to fill.

Mr. Seymour was then escorted to the house of Hon. Hiester Clymer, where he passed the night. He left for Philadelphia to-day in the 10.30 train, accompanied by the following named committee from that city, who came up in the 6 o'clock train last evening: Hon. Wm. L. Hirst, Richard Vaux, Lewis C. Cassidy, John O'Byrne, Geo. R. Berrell, Chas. Magarge, Dr. E. Morwitz, Gen. Wm. B. McCandless, Vincent L. Bradford, Chas. Donnert, Mr. Budd, and Gen. John D. Miles.

But for the very brief notice of Mr. Seymour's visit, the meeting, large as it was, would have been much larger. It was an unmistakable evidence of the affection of the masses of the people for their leader in the great battle for constitutional rights and civil and religious liberty.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, of Wilkesbarre, accompanied the Committee of Reception to Harrisburg, and introduced Mr. Seymour to a vast crowd at Lebanon, where he was enthusiastically received.

Mr. Seymour will speak in Philadelphia this evening, when an immense turnout of the tax-payers may be expected.

A condensed report of his speech will be found in our second edition to-day.

TEXAS.

A Gessler at the Head of the United States Military.

General Reynolds, the military commander in Texas, is going it with a high hand in his district, endeavoring to out-Sickle Sickles and out-Gessler Gessler. He has issued many orders lately, and each successive one seems to be worse than the preceding. The latest exploit of the General is a direct interference in the business of a civil court, without any appearance of cause or justification. President Johnson has received the following dispatch from Texas:

"RICHMOND, Texas, Oct. 26, 1868.

"His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:

"The following order was received here by telegraph:

"To Judge McFarland, Richmond, Texas:

"For reasons made known by the Governor and Attorney General you will continue until next term the causes involving the question of heirship to the estate of J. C. Clark, deceased.

"J. J. Reynolds, Brevet Major General.

"We regard this order as a great military usurpation. It is addressed to a judge of a civil court, directing him how he shall decide the question of continuance. Both parties are present and represented by counsel—case ready for trial. Shall the commander of the district control the judiciary? We ask you to revoke the order. Answer.

"R. C. Trigg.

"John T. Harcourt, plaintiff's counsel."

The President has replied that he could do nothing, as his hands were tied, and matters only could be bettered by the General-in-Chief.

"THE STUMPER STUMPED."

Gen. Forrest denounces Gen. Kilpatrick very bitterly in a published letter, and refers him to Gen. Basil Duke, of Louisville, who will receive any communication which Kilpatrick may deem proper. Forrest objects to the abusive language of Kilpatrick, and is willing to give him "the opportunity to fight a rebel," which he professes to wish for. As Kilpatrick is too much of a blackguard to be much of a fighter, however, it is not probable that he will take the hint for "pistols and coffee for two." Pushing cavalry into action, dismounted, with long range rifles, suits Kilpatrick much better than meeting "the rebels" personally.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN BALTIMORE.

The local election in Baltimore on Wednesday, for members of Councils, resulted in a complete victory for the Democracy. In some wards the Radicals made no opposition. Everything passed off quietly, as has been the case everywhere this fall where the Democracy have had control.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

FRIDAY, Oct. 30th, 1868.

William Walmsley, a laborer, choked his wife to death in Philadelphia on Wednesday night, because she would not give him some money which he wanted to spend, as is supposed, for liquor.

The official return of the recent election in Indiana gives a Republican majority of 961. The vote was—Republican, 171,575; Democratic, 170,616.

Judge Williams took his seat on the Bench of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, at Harrisburg, last Tuesday.

Governor Geary, of Pennsylvania, and Fenton of New York, have designated November 26th as a day of Thanksgiving.

The Episcopal General Convention at New York adjourned yesterday.

J. W. Simonton, agent of the New York Associated Press, has sued the Tribune of that city for libel.

The buildings Nos. 37 and 39 Wooster street, New York, occupied by several business firms, was yesterday destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $250,000. A flour mill at Waterford, N. Y., was burned on Wednesday night. Loss $30,000. A fire at Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday morning, destroyed over $50,000 worth of property.

A skating rink and several other buildings, at Fond du Lac, Wis., were burned yesterday. Loss $20,000.

Five men were killed by a locomotive explosion near Louisville, on Wednesday night.

Matters were quiet at New Orleans yesterday. General Steadman last evening resigned his Superintendency of the Police, but the Board would not accept it. Major Conway ordered Adams, the Superintendent removed by General Sheridan, to resume the position, but he was unable to obtain possession of the office.

Governor Scott, of South Carolina, has issued a proclamation in which he congratulates the people of that State upon the good effect of recent manifestoes of Wade Hampton and the Democratic Committee in restoring harmony, and counsels the co-operation of the Republican party in the pacific policy thus inaugurated.

Appeal of the Disfranchised Irish of the South to their Irish Fellow-citizens of the North.

FELLOW COUNTRYMEN OF THE NORTH: To you who were born on the same soil. To you who, like ourselves, are natives of oppressed, trodden-down, and sorrow-stricken Ireland.

Fellow-Irishmen, to you we appeal in this our day of distress and trial, of oppression and misrule. Like you of the North, we were once citizens of the United States; we had a share in the election of the men who administered the government, and of those who made the laws. We were recognized as an internal part of the body politic, and the most honored and respected of our fellow-countrymen were elected to positions of trust, honor, and distinction.

Now all this is changed.

We are no longer citizens.

We have been deprived of our right to vote, and in many places have been driven from the polls.

The Radical Registrars have refused to enter our names on their registration lists.

Thousands and tens of thousands of our fellow-countrymen in the Southern States have thus been disfranchised, while every negro who presents himself is admitted to the rights of citizenship.

We are to-day regarded by the Radical party as the inferiors of the negroes, and we have no rights, political or otherwise, which they are bound to respect.

Hundreds, yes, thousands, of Irishmen have been deprived of the official positions to which they were elected or appointed in different cities throughout the South. We need only refer to the cases of Mobile and New Orleans, where Irishmen have been ejected from offices, which were afterwards conferred on negroes.

Fellow-Irishmen of the North, all this has been done by the Radical party, which now asks your support, on the ground that it is the friend of the adopted citizen!

Trust it not! Radicalism is Know-Nothingism in another form. If that party gets into power another four years they will disfranchise you, Irishmen of the Northern States, as they have disfranchised us, Irishmen of the Southern States.

To you we are now earnestly, anxiously, eagerly looking for political redemption.

Save us, by your votes, from negro supremacy!

Save us, by your votes, from the rule of the bayonet!

Bear in mind that every Irishman who votes with the Radical party, votes for our enemies.

We entreat you, by all you hold most dear, not to be misled by so-called Irishmen in your midst—traitors who have sold out to our political enemies and yours, renegades who have accepted the ever-ready bribe for the advocacy of a policy that has made us aliens in the land of our adoption, and subjected us in this country to all the injustice and outrages inflicted upon us in the land of our birth, downtrodden and oppressed Ireland!

Restore to us, through your honest, manly, honorable, unbought suffrages, the rights of citizenship—those rights of which we have been deprived, that we might be degraded by the Radical party below the level of the negro!

Fellow-Irishmen, we appeal to you, by the wrongs and sufferings we now endure, by the love you bear to your wives and little ones, to save us from the blighting, withering curse of negro rule and negro domination.

Remember that every vote you give to the Radical candidates is a vote given to keep us in political bondage, and to subject our families to all the horrors of negro equality.

Remember that it was here in the South that Know-Nothingism received its death blow—from Henry A. Wise, in Virginia, Alexander H. Stevens, in Georgia, and Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee.

As you would free us from political bondage and negro supremacy, vote against the party that has deprived us of our citizenship. Vote against the party that has made us the political inferior of the negro. Vote against the party that is now making of the South another oppressed, downtrodden Ireland.

We are now looking to the success of the Democratic candidates, Horatio Seymour and Frank P. Blair, to free us from political bondage and the curse of mongrel rule.

Your fellow-countrymen, now on a visit to the great Metropolitan city of New York,

JAMES G. MOORE,
JOHN COLLINS,
BERNARD M'CABE,
ANDREW M'GUIRE,
of New Orleans,
MICHAEL TREANOR,
OWEN MULLINS,
HENRY O'TOOLE,
of Mobile,
THOMAS O'CONNOR,
EDWARD O'NEILL,
PATRICK FLYNN,
of Savannah,

And many others, in behalf of the disfranchised Irishmen of the Southern States.

NEGROES IN LINE.—A regiment of negroes marched in a grand Radical torchlight procession in Boston, on Wednesday night, and were loudly cheered by the "loil" people of "the Hub." 'Rah for Grant and Sambo!

MAJOR GENERAL JOHN E. WOOL, the veteran of 1812 and the Mexican War, supports Seymour and Blair. So does every good soldier who loves his country more than party and plunder.

GRANT'S "PEACE" is being exemplified in Louisiana. Voters, do you want any more of such peace. If not, vote for Seymour and Blair.

THE Radicals are quarreling among themselves in Tennessee. There is not always harmony among thieves.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic,

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach, or Digestive Organs.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or as they are medicinally termed Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixtures will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Consumption, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Pa

Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY.

Resulting from any Cause whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. George W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, writes

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours, truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1868.

"I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it

Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility, or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Phila.

DR. JACKSON.—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
