

Democratic National Nominations

FOR PRESIDENT: HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: GEN. FRANCIS P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

Electon, Tuesday, November 23, 1868.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

Democracy, be up and doing. This is no time for despondency. Because you have been cheated out of your fairly earned victory in Pennsylvania, is no reason that you should sit down in despair.

A RADICAL SLANDER REPEATED.

The soldiers of the First United States Infantry, stationed in New Orleans, are much excited over a statement which has been going the rounds of the Radical press, to the effect that the regiment is composed of ex-Confederate soldiers who are in sympathy with the "rebels" against the "loyal" blacks.

NO NIMM CANDIDATE!

It is not a mere party triumph we seek. We are trying to save our country from the dangers which overhang it. We wish to lift off the perplexities and the shackles which, in the shape of bad laws and of crushing taxation, now paralyze the business and labor of our land.

NEIGHBOR KNAB, of the Journal, Chairman of the Republican County Committee, who can see as far into a millstone as the man who made the hole in it, is terribly frightened.

MAKE WAY. Radical papers are publishing accounts of "the arms of the Grant family," with a description of "their crest and motto."

TAXPAYERS, you have trusted the Radicals with the entire control of national affairs for eight years, and their rule has brought you nothing but debt, taxation, high prices, prostration of business, crime throughout the land, and general demoralization everywhere.

EXAMINE your tickets carefully before you vote next Tuesday, and see that they correspond with that published at the head of this paper.

IF every Democrat in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana will do his duty from the present time until the close of the polls next Tuesday, those three States can be carried for Seymour and Blair.

THE next election will turn upon this question: Can the Congressional party succeed in their efforts to excite and array the industrial and money interests against each other, or will these unite and turn out the authors of the mischief under which they are all suffering?
