BEWS ITEMS. -Constable Dable, of Winslow township Camden county, New Jersey, received information a few days since that a gang of strolling thickes were encamped in aswamp in the vicinity, and proceeded with a posse to arrest them. The thioves succeeded in making their escape, but all their equipments and goods were captured, consisting of one bay marc, a black horse, a light market wagon, two sets of harness, a coat, lot of flannel, pantaloous, grain bigs, five blankets, lanterns, and quite a large lot of dry goods. The people had been much annoyed for some time past with petty thieves. —A new locomotive for city railways has been successfully tried in Philadelphia. In this engine the necessity for a fire-box, smoke stack, &c., is done away with by sub stituting a strong tank or reservoir for holding water previously, heated to a high temperature in a stationary boiler. The water and is capable of giving off an amount of working steam for a considerable length of time, sufficent to drive the engine and draw one or more cars. -The Army and Navy Journal tells a good story of one of Sherman's soldiers, who, at the close of the war, when he returned home, never was able to accustom himself to the soft luxury of a feather bed, and had to stretch himself, if he would sleep at all, on mother earth. Tone night a chance pistolshot woke the veteran; when he instantly turned over and began to entrench himself, scratching up the ground with his hands.

so heated is forced into the locomotive tank.

The tobacco crop of Cuba for 1868, it is now reported, will be twenty five per cent. less than that of last year, while the price will be twenty to twenty five per cent. higher. The quantity of tobacco shipped from Havana since the first of January, 1808, is about four million pounds, of which about two million seven hundred thousand went to the United States.

-A German peddler, named Stein, was found dead in his room in Birmingham, Pa., last Saturday. The Coroner held an inquest, at which Dr. Roberts announced it as his opinion that death resulted from the want of proper nourishment. His faithful dog was howling by his side. God help the poor under Radical rule!

-The body of Mr. Pable Felien, one of the latest victims of negro mob violence in Louisiana, was found among the ashes of his dwelling at Torro aux Bœufs, his charred hand still grasping the gun with which he endeavored to defend his family against the truly loyal murderers.

This Company insures all kinds of property against loss or damage by fireatrates as low as any other reliable Company and upon every plan known to Stock Insurance Companies.

Perpetual Policies issued requiring no renewal and upon which the amount of premium paid can be reclaimed at any time, loss a deduction of five per cert. The advantages of this method are worthy of the attention of farmers and others having first-class dwelling houses, barns and other buildings, in town or country, as being the cheapest and safest.

Policies for one, two, three, five or more years, or for less than one year, issued and no charge made for Policy and survey when renewed or when insurances are transferred from other companies. The citizens of Reading and vicinity, hitherto dependent mainly upon foreign companies, have now the privilege of effecting their insurances in a home institution, well organized, with an adequate paid in and guaranteed capital, presenting as strong a basis of security as that of any other company. The advantage of doing business directly with the Company and the importance of keeping some portion of the large sums paid for insurances, in circulation at home, will be appreciated by all;
