

D. L.—Blue, meet Sixth, 7, No. 1. Pink, meet Sixth, 7, No. 1. Black, meet Sixth, 7, No. 1—all.

Cour.—The regular term of Common Pleas will commence on Monday next, the 21st inst.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD are crowded out to-day, on account of their great length. They will appear to-morrow.

The arrangements for the Ladies' Fair, for the benefit of the Reading Library, are complete, and we can expect to see the largest Fair ever held in this city.

The improvements at the Sheet Works of Seifert, McManus & Co., are progressing finely, and it is expected that the mill will be in running order in four weeks from now.

THE BAPTISTS.—The Baptists, it is said, have added over 64,000, by baptism, to their communion during the present year. They now number in this country over 1,000,000.

APPOINTMENTS.—Col. William A. Sands and Mr. Dietrich, of this city, and Major Heidenreich, of Hamburg, have been appointed gaugers of liquors of this (the 8th) district.

WANTED.—A lamp post should be placed in Washington street, below Third. It is a dark road to travel, and one runs the risk of breaking a limb down the hill over the rough pavement.

AN OLD P. M.—Mr. John Seiberling, Postmaster at Lynnville, Lehigh county, now eighty-five years of age, has held his office for an unbroken period of forty-eight years. He is said to be the oldest Postmaster in the United States.

ALMS HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—The Board of Directors held a meeting on Monday last. The Board, by ballot, re-elected the present Board, the Engineer, Clerk, and Dr. Heister M. Nagle and James C. Shearer, as Physicians.

WILLIAM FRODOCK, who was thrown out of his buggy on Friday evening last, is in a fair way to recovery. He received a heavy fall and was a good deal bruised about the head and shoulders. He is still unable to leave his bed, but is improving slowly.

We understand that J. Dutton Steele, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Wilmington and Reading Railroad, intends to remove to Pottstown, next spring. He is now residing in Brooklyn, N. Y., conducting the affairs of the Sterling Mountain Iron and Railroad Company, of which he is President.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that yesterday, while a little son of Mr. Simon, residing in North Tenth street, was left alone in a room, he caught hold of a pot of boiling water which was on the stove, and pulling it over it upset and scalded him severely. The little fellow was suffering much this morning.

"GYRATES WARNING."—We saw yesterday a wagon load of gypsies pass over the Harburg bridge, bound for we don't know where. Anyhow it would be well for people to watch 'em wherever they fly pitch tents, as they often appropriate things in such a manner as would justify their arrest.

BIRDSBORO.—The building of the Wilmington and Reading Railroad, which terminates at Birdsboro, and the new Foundry now in course of erection, will give an additional impetus to that place. The large Furnace, Rolling Mill and Nail Works of Messrs. E. & G. Brooke, are in a flourishing condition.

SNOWBARRING HINTS.—See that the pipes for your pumps, sinks and roof are all in good condition. Arrange them, so that none of them will freeze. It will help greatly for this purpose if the pipes are placed as nearly perpendicular as you can. A pump frozen up, or a pipe burst in winter, is a great annoyance.

Our fair correspondent, "Lizzie," assails male bipeds savagely, in an article on our first page, on account of their ridiculous style of dress. While pleading that all men do not so strictly follow the fashions, we must admit that there is much truth in "Lizzie's" statements, and that a fashionably dressed dandy of the present day is as ridiculous in appearance as a woman with the "Grecian bend." Both styles badly need "reconstruction."

A CHANCE.—It is reported that after the first of April next, the Royer's Ferry Hotel, at Royer's Ford, Berks county, Montgomery county, is no longer to be kept as a public house. The property is owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, and if Mr. Roeholtz, the present very obliging landlord, is obliged to remove at all, the only reason is that the Company desire the building in order to enlarge their depot accommodations. The place has been kept as a hotel nearly thirty years, Capt. David Gow being its first landlord.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, it is stated, has been in existence for about two years, has spread over the United States and Canada, and is rapidly increasing in numbers and influence. The object of the association is to elevate the standard of education and of moral character of locomotive engineers. It issues a monthly magazine, giving an account of the improvements made in locomotives, and by organizing the members in divisions endeavors to make the certificate of their positions a sufficient guarantee of their qualifications.

RAILROAD CROSSING.—The Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad has devised a plan for an iron bridge, by which Broad street, in Philadelphia, crosses the Reading Railroad, and not be much of an obstruction to the street. The bridge will cost about $70,000, of which the Railroad Company proposes to pay one half. Some such plan as that will have to be adopted at the crossings in all the cities, or the cars prohibited from running along the streets, for people will soon become tired of being killed and maimed as they are now.

The Home Journal, which is good authority on the subject, says that visiting cards will be, for this season, rather large than formerly, and of the finest engraved Bristol board. The new sizes will tend rather to the square than otherwise. The shape of the card may be varied, according to taste, the proper adaptation to the size of the lettering being maintained. Among the various texts in use, nothing will supersede the English script, and those imitable styles of old English text, the most novel being those with dropped capitals, and the extremely neat, extra shaded.

SUBSCRIBERS FOR THE EAGLE.

Young Men.—It should be the aim of young men to move in good society—we mean not the rich, nor the proud, nor the fashionable, but the society of the wise, the intelligent, and the good. If you find men who know more than you, and from whose conversation you can gather information, it is always safe to be found. It has broken down many a man; by associating with the low and vulgar, where ribald songs were inculcated and the indecent story told to excite laughter, or influence the bad passions. Lord Clarendon attributed success and happiness in life to associating with persons more learned and virtuous than ourselves. If you wish to be wise and respected and desire happiness we advise you to associate with the intelligent and good. Strive for excellence and strict integrity, and you will never be found in the sinks of pollution, or on the benches of revilers and gamblers. Once habituate yourselves to a virtuous course, or once secure a love for good society, and no punishment would be greater than to be obliged by accident to associate for half a day with the low and vulgar.—Selected.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—In the Police Court everything had been quiet up to last evening. Yesterday afternoon officers Priestly and Lawrence brought in a man and wife, and a little girl. They were on a tramp, and not having arrived at a conclusion where to go, they had tramped through the city, occasionally taking a "bit of the cratur," until the husband—who by the way was a one-legged husband—became indignant and lay down at the corner of Seventh and Penn streets. His wife Catharine did not like this, and persuaded him to get "up and walk," but there was more whiskey in James than walk, and hence he remained at ease. But Catharine became vexed at his disobedience and hit James over the head with a "brick bat," and then—ungrateful woman—began to pound him over the head with his crutch, inflicting several wounds from which the blood began to flow quite freely. At this stage of the proceeding the above officers came along and took them both into custody and placed them in the lock-up. They had a hearing this morning, but as neither had money enough to pay the sum asked, they were sent back to the lock-up.

Three loafers found shelter in the station house last night.

CHARGE OF TRAFFIC.—Louis H. Bell came to the office of Alderman Mengel and made complaint against Valentino Ruffert for feloniously taking his horse. Bell purchased a blind mare from Ruffert for which he gave him a note, payable at some future date, and took the mare and put her to a livery stable to board. After the mare had been in the possession of Bell some time, Ruffert came to the stable where she was and took her away and looked her up in his own stable, without Bell's knowledge or consent. Officer Dehli arrested Ruffert, and he gave bail in $200 to answer the charge at court.—Gazette.

DANIEL B. LORAH, Esq., succeeds Elias Obold, Esq., as a member of the Board of Poor Directors of the county. As now constituted the Board consists of Joseph M. Lohr, Silas W. Fisher, and Daniel B. Lorah, Esqs.—All the parties interested in the Alexander et al case are now before the Grand Jury of the District Court of the United States at Philadelphia. Yesterday thirty-four years ago a most heavy snow fell in our city. The ground was covered to the depth of twelve inches.—Col. Alexander, on Monday, entered bail for his appearance at the District Court of the United States at Philadelphia, in the February term.—Times.

THE EAGLE is an excellent advertising medium, because everybody reads it. Give it a trial, and be convinced.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—Three or four balls are on the tapis between now and Christmas.

Fashionable ladies are like aristocratic houses—both have high stools.

A number of small boys amused themselves yesterday by tearing boards off of a fence down town. Bad boys.

First comes a cold, then a cough, then a croup.

The United States will take Turkey on the 20th of this month. The attack will be made with knife and fork.

A young man had a "beautiful" fall last night at Fifth and Penn streets. Always look where you step.

Sweet potatoes and sweet girls are plenty hereabouts. The sweetness isn't wasted.

A large number of boats are coming down the canal just now—burry up to make a few more trips before the canal freezes up.

The passenger travel over the Railroads centering here is uncommonly large for this season of the year.

Peter Jones, Esq., Treasurer of the Reading School District, received through the Post Office, sometime ago, from an unknown person, $10.20, being amount overpaid, with interest.

Read the beautiful story on our first page to-day, headed "the poor washer woman."

A man who, in talking to a lady, lays his hands upon her shoulders, may be thought to be too touching in his remarks.

Editors and actors ought on general principles to be good ministers, since they do a good deal of preaching.

We understand that a special Detective Police force for this city is shortly to be appointed. We trust good and reliable men will be chosen to fill the responsible positions.

When a man is out of humor he should go out of the house. A little open air and a turn or two up and down the street will make him feel better, and likewise look so.

The man who came near bursting with rage was only prevented by having a hoop skirt thrown over him.

We understand that the Messrs. Bushong, of this city, have in contemplation the construction of a Railroad from their stone quarries on the Madocra property, through Barnhart's farm to intersect with the Reading Railroad. If the road is built it will cut out one of the handsomest fields on the Barnhart farm, diagonally.—Dispatch.

Scotch shawls, worn as a plaid, are a threatened fashion for gentlemen.

To discover how many idle men there are in a place, all that's necessary is to set two dogs fighting.

Half an ounce of alum in powder will purify twelve gallons of corrupted water.

It is often more damaging to be stage-struck than to be hit by a regular miller.

Night labing is said to make a red nose in time. So does a tight head much quicker.

"David's Brigade" is the title given those who range themselves in line before church doors Sunday evenings.

Bilster, on hearing that his friend News was laid up, remarked that he would probably lay there as long as the brandy lasted.

The way to get smashed—drink smashers.

One of the most popular hons in this country is Bourbon.

What's in a name? Very much if had.

SECOND EDITION.

5 1/2 O'CLOCK P. M.

Reading, Nov. 18, 1893. In Philadelphia, the money market was easier yesterday than for some time past, and obtainable on much more favorable terms than last week. The official statement of the banks made public yesterday, shows that these institutions are curtailing their discounts. The loans have been contracted $63,147, a decrease of $1,500,000 in two weeks. The legal reserve is a fallow of $68,000, a total decrease for two weeks of $1,533,000. The deposits for two weeks show a decrease of upwards of $2,000,000. This statement shows that the banks have greatly increased their strength, and it is highly probable in the future, will be able to extend greater accommodations to the mercantile classes. The largest borrowers at this time are the professional stock-jobbers and gold manipulators, who demand large discounts to prevent many of them from going over. The failure of several brokers in New York has caused distrust in the stability of some houses who are known to have operated largely in that market.

The Stock Market was feverish and unsettled, and the "bear" influence was in the ascendency. Government and State loans were inactive. City Loans advanced 1/4 per cent, and closed at 102 1/2 @ 103. Lehigh Gold Loan sold at 93, and was strong at this figure.

Reading Railroad sold down to 4 1/2—a decline of 1/4 from the highest point. Pennsylvania Railroad sold at 63 1/2—no change; and Minehill Railroad at 58—an advance of 1. 12 1/2 was bid for Canada and Annapolis Railroad; 4 1/2 for Little Schuylkill Railroad and Erie Railroad, and 2 1/2 for Philadelphia and Erie Railroad.

Canal shares were quiet. Lehigh Navigation closed at 2 1/2; Schuylkill Navigation proffered at 28, and Susquehanna 14.

Bank and Postoffice Railway shares were without quotation change.

MONEY MARKET.

Table with columns for various financial instruments and their prices, including Duabong & Bro., Bankers, No. 16 North 6th street, Reading, Nov. 18, 1893.

In Philadelphia, there is less activity in the Flour market, but holders are firm in their views. Sales of 500 barrels Wisconsin and Minnesota Extra Family at $7 50 @ 7 75; fancy lots at $11 @ 12 25, and Extras at $6 00 @ 6 75. Rye Flour is dull and cannot be quoted over $7 00 @ 7 75. In Corn there is nothing doing.

The absence of supplies of prime lots, which is the only quality wanted; sales of 1,200 bushels good and white Red at $2 12, Amber at $2 10 @ 2 18, and White at $2 50 @ 2 40. Rye is very quiet, and small sales of Pennsylvania at $1 48, and Southern at $1 40. Corn is very quiet, without change from Monday's quotations. Small sales of old yellow at $1 14 @ 1 15; now do. at $0 93 cents, and Western mixed at $1 10 @ 1 13. Oats are less active. Sales of 5,000 bushels at $0 70 cents, and light Southern and Pennsylvania at $0 65 cents, 2,000 bushels two-rowed barley sold at $2 02 @ 2 05.

Whiskey is steady, with sales of duty paid at $1 08 @ 1 10.

READING PRICES.

Table listing various commodities and their prices, such as Wheat, Corn, and other goods.

This coal business of our city still continues brisk, though people do not buy more than they really need for a short time. It is generally believed that the highest point in prices has been reached, and hence people buy sparingly. We hope it will not be long before we can report a decline, as the coal winter is upon us, and as wages are low, there must naturally be much suffering among the poor. In New York this week have all recently taken a turn in favor of consumers, and no doubt there would be much of a reduction if the coal were not in the "clutches" of speculators, who a few weeks ago, bought up all the coal they could reach; and at the same time entered into co-partnership with the operators in a scheme to hold or raise prices; and now in order to hold their heads above failure, they hold on to present prices with a determination, like rats to the sinking ship. Speculation, as we have before stated, is at the bottom of the extortionate prices, we must now pay for everything we eat and wear, and we do hope a move will soon be made, on the part of the working classes, to have a law passed to prevent it.

The Coal Trade from Schuylkill county last week reached 31,000 tons, of which 65,214 tons were shipped by railroad, and 35,483 tons by Canal. The demand is slackening off a little at New York, and egg and stove coal have declined in price while the rates of transportation have advanced considerably.

Below we give the prices as were reported to us this morning:

Table with columns for various commodities and their prices, including Store, Egg and Broken Coal, and other goods.

The housekeepers' market this morning was not so well attended as on Saturday, yet there was an abundance of everything. Turkeys, of which there were a large lot, sold from $2 to $3 per pair, Pork, $14 per hundred. Beef at prices which we give below.

READING HOUSE KEEPERS' MARKET.

Table listing various household items and their prices, such as Butter, Eggs, Apples, and other goods.

DANIEL PARKER, 204 South 6th street, quotes fish as follows:

Table listing various fish and their prices, including White Fish, Yellow Perch, and other goods.

Let those who have detected the premature evidence of age—the tall-tale covering of the locks, the untidy hair, the hair which nature designed should be preserved to the period of dissolution, lose no time in securing a bottle of Barron's Vegetable Hair Restorer. The great antidote to baldness, gray hair and white hair. Sold by all druggists.

SECOND EDITION.

5 1/2 O'CLOCK P. M.

The weather.—After several days of charming Indian Summer weather, the wind suddenly veered, and from Monday until today nothing gloomier could be imagined. The bright, sunny days of the golden Autumn we fear, are soon to be garnered by the unfeeling and irrepressible harvester, Old Gloom. What a melancholy feeling spreads over all as the Autumn time passes swiftly by. How like unto the life of man. He has his Spring, his Summer, his Autumn, and then comes last of all the "King of Terrors" hoary-headed Winter, his birth, rise, fall and decline. In these are the seasons comprised: The "melancholy days" are here, with their beauty and at the same time their gloomy grandeur. We love the Spring and Summer time, the season of birds, flowers and sunshine, and have often wished that we could ever bask in the pleasures and happiness which they invariably bring. Still, Autumn has its delights as well. It is a time for reflection and meditation, and these will frequently make us better men and better women. Nature at this season assumes an entire new aspect of beauty. Of this how forcibly reminded are we by the golden-tinted leaves of the forest, and the silent and subdued murmuring of the streams. Go out into the country now, and perceive the change. The grassy slopes and green fields have become soot and yellow, and the mantle of green has been thrown aside, to be assumed when the Spring and Summer shall come again. But a trace to such thoughts, and let us hope that the dreary Winter now so near will be brief, and that lovely Spring and beautiful Summer will speedily roll around once more.

"These days are gone, But beauty still is here."

Our contemporary of the Scranton Register "busts out" in the following style: "A city editor of a live and lively daily journal generally has his hands full. He is expected to have his eyes and ears open upon all occasions, and we believe some people labor under the hallucination that he sleeps with one eye open, ready to start at the first alarm of fire or cry in the street. He is expected to be grave, and funny, and wise, and discreet, and possess all the cardinal virtues done up in concentrated form. As to ideas, he is supposed to have them regularly cut and dried for all occasions, from the dedication of a lady's album to a solid leader, if the "boss" is "demoralized" or out of town. He is generally regarded as a man belonging to no particular age. He must be young with the young, a romp with the rompers, and steady and sedate with the growing old; with a taste for an agreeable flirtation when bright eyes and sweet lips are in question, or prepared to take a turn at politics or religion if occasion requires. Always ready for a feast, festival, funeral, foot-race, or fight, the city editor sees strange sights, many of which he is expected not to reveal. If he notices a small flirtation on the stairs, of course the last thing in the world for him to do is to mention it; and if he meets a deacon of a church coming out of a place of questionable repute, he must not by any means make it public. Still, the "local" meets with many strange and startling things in the course of his daily walk and conversation. Perhaps the strangest sight which has met our eyes since we have been in Scranton was encountered yesterday. As we were returning from our usual morning call upon our amiable friend Alderman Waters, we were confronted by a spectacle from which we thought our city would be free. We cannot describe it. It was like Barnum's "What is it," without a parallel. It puzzled us, as did the witches Macbeth upon the health. It looked like a woman, but as we were too nervous to institute a very close examination, we are prepared to speak from impressions only: We were "level," we remember on the 18th day of November, As we took a walk we'd often "fetched" before, We met in the sun light rambling, a figure queer and stumbling, Whence and who art thou? No human, though; thou look'st some like woman, And we scanned the hideous figure o'er and o'er, At thy troubled with the collar, or only melan- Jove, I never saw the like afore, "Only this and nothing more!"

We would only look and wonder, and ejaculate As the figure disappeared within a neighboring door, May the saints above defend her, for that "curve" she over-arched her forehead, We have "seen" a Grecian Bender! "Only this and nothing more!"

Special to the Daily Eagle.

POTTSVILLE, Nov. 18.—The Schuylkill County Teachers' Institute convened here yesterday. The attendance of Teachers is larger than ever before. A number of prominent educators are here, assisting to instruct. Among others, Prof. A. N. Raub, of your county; late Professor of Literature in the Keystone State Normal School, at Kutztown, who will lecture to-day.

Important from Cuba.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Mail advices have been received from Puerto Principe to Oct. 30th. Despite false reports from Havana the revolution has overpowered the whole Eastern Department, and the Central Department is almost ready to join in it. The leaders are men of high social position, great wealth, and talent, and have commenced the revolutionary movement by freeing their own slaves and marching to the front with them. The Spanish troops can barely hold the ground they occupy. An attack on Puerto Principe was daily expected, and many families were leaving for Nassau. They would go to the United States, but are not allowed to by the government.

DIED.

FROM.—In this city on the 17th inst., LAURA M. B., daughter of Isaac and Louisa From, aged 4 years, 2 months and 13 days.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, on Friday, November 20th, at 2 o'clock, P. M., from the residence of her parents, 339 Penn street, to proceed to the First German Reformed Church, and from thence to the Charles Evans Cemetery.

Why should I vex my heart or fast, No more shall I visit me, My soul will mount to her at last, And there my child I'll see, nov. 18-21.

FRESH DAUGS.—Dr. Light, No. 1 North Fifth street, Reading, Pa., has in his store one of the finest and best selected stocks of fresh drugs in this city. Dr. Light and his assistants are always ready to wait on persons who are in want at any hour of the day or night. Dr. Light and his assistants are both accomplished druggists and gentlemen, versed in Pharmacy.

REDUCTION IN PRICES.—Ladies desirous of purchasing Furs, should call at the store of Mrs. J. H. Light, No. 21 Penn street, three doors below the Eagle Office, where they will find a well selected stock of FURS, which will be sold at small profits.

A variety of fancy BLENDING and BUREAU COVERS always on hand.

All kinds of Ladies' Furs made to order, and delivered to the latest styles. oct. 16-1893

Advertisement for Sayer's Instant Pain Cure, featuring an illustration of a person in pain and the product packaging.

A positive, permanent, and immediate Remedy for Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, Headache, Rheumatism, Sores, Burns, Frost Bites, and all acute pains.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

Advertisement for Sayer's Instant Pain Cure, featuring an illustration of a person in pain and the product packaging.

A positive, permanent, and immediate Remedy for Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, Headache, Rheumatism, Sores, Burns, Frost Bites, and all acute pains.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists, No. 69 Duane St., New York.

"I am glad to say that I have used Sayer's Instant Pain Cure in my own case, and it has relieved me of a severe headache and a single application of the cure will relieve the most painful sufferer of the truly miraculous power."

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

E. MISHLER & CO., Sole Proprietors, Reading, Pa.