

THE DAILY EAGLE.

READING, PA., NOVEMBER 28, 1898.

CITY AND COUNTY.

FIRST EDITION--12 1-2 P. M.

D. L. Mead Second, 74--all.

Notice is given to the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Sinking Springs, that an Assessment of one dollar is levied on every thousand dollars insured.

The Directors of the Reading and Wilmington Railroad, give notice that a ninth installment of five dollars per share is to be called in and paid, on or before December 14th, 1898.

A VALUABLE RELIC.—Hon. William M. Hester, of this city, has in his possession an autograph letter of Thomas Jefferson, dated Washington, Oct. 10th, 1802, and addressed to Gen. Muhlenberg, who at that time was Collector of the Port of Philadelphia.

We would advise all in want of a good Parlor Stove, or Office Stove, to call at D. C. Schneider's Stove Store, No. 414 Penn street, and purchase the Revolving Light of 1898, the most perfect base burning and illuminating stove of the age. Call and see it.

AN OLD ALMANAC.—A friend yesterday handed us a curiosity in the shape of an old Almanac. It was printed in 1822, thus being nearly 40 years old. The Almanac predicted snow on the 28th of November, 1822, but whether it did snow we are not able to say.

MIDNIGHT TRAIN.—We learn that there is some talk of a midnight train to run from Philadelphia to this city. It is unnecessary to say that such an accommodation is very much needed, and none will appreciate its convenience more than the business men of Reading.

TURKEY THIEVES.—On Tuesday night some burglars entered the premises of Mr. Amos Hartman, residing on the Pike, a few miles above the city, and stole three large turkeys. At the same time they entered the yard of Mr. Miller, in the same neighborhood, and carried away a number of geese.

NOTICE TO TAX COLLECTORS.—The Tax Collectors of the several districts of the county of Berks, who are in arrears on their duplicates up to January 1st, 1899, are requested to make settlement by January 1st, 1899. After that date suit will be brought against them and their bond will be for said arrears.

"TONGUE" BROKE.—This morning about 7 o'clock, as one of Mr. Frederick Lauer's teams, with a load of lumber, was coming in Third street, when crossing the gutter at Third and York streets the tongue of the wagon broke off, which, no doubt, deprived some of their fresh glass of beer for a short time this morning.

TRUE.—No saying was ever truer than this: "If you want to keep your town from thriving, turn a cold shoulder to every young mechanic or beginner in business—kill him off if you can. Look up to every new comers with a scowl and discourage him all you can; if that won't do, decry his work; and go abroad for words of his kind rather than to give him your money."

H. B.—"A stitch in time saves nine," that is to say, by attending to your business in the season of it, you will prevent much trouble and expense.

A. J.—We have never had any dealing with lotteries, but we do know that most of them are frauds. Use your own judgment.

C. H.—We have no time to rummage through the old Legislative Records, and hence cannot answer your question.

THE attention of the committee on street cleaning is respectfully directed to the filthy condition of Cherry alley, above Seventh street. The occupants of the "Old Baracks" at the corner of Seventh and Cherry, deposit all their ashes and refuse matter in the gutter, thereby causing and causing the overflow of the refuse water, which is so foul a smell that it is dangerous to the general health of the neighborhood. We hope it will be remedied forthwith.

STRIKE OUT.—Young men, you have no business to be idle. There is honorable and profitable employment in the world, many times more than all the people in it can perform. You have no business to be idlers, or to be idle, and learn that the true combination of intellect and capital will enable any man with even a moderate share of brains to make for himself an honorable name and a competence.

FREE READING ROOM.—We publish this afternoon a call for a general meeting to be held at the Library (late Old Fellows') Hall, on Monday evening, to consider the establishment of a free Reading Room for young men, mechanics, and citizens generally. This is what Reading has long needed. It can be supported at a very small expense, and will do a great amount of good. It will be a valuable adjunct to that excellent institution, the Reading Library, and the two together will give a new impulse to intellectual and moral culture in our city. Let there be a full attendance of all who desire to promote the best interests of Reading.

THE POOR BOY.—Don't be ashamed, my lad, if you have a patch on your elbow; it is no mark of disgrace. It speaks well for your industrious mother. For our part we would rather see a dozen patches on your jacket than hear one profane or vulgar word from your lips, or to smell the fumes of tobacco in your breath. No good boy will shun you because you cannot dress as well as your companions; and if a bad boy sometimes laughs at your appearance, say nothing, my good lad, but talk on. We know of many a rich and good man who was once as poor as you. Fear God, my boy, and if you are poor but honest, you will be respected a great deal more than if you were the son of a rich man, and were addicted to bad habits.

THE BALL.—The following match game of base ball came off on Thursday afternoon, on the grounds of the Schuylkill B. B. Co., on the West side of the river, between the Second Nine and the "Muffers" of the Schuylkill Club:

HIGH RENTS.—There is universal complaint made against the exorbitant high rents demanded in this city. It is owing, probably, to the fact that the supply of houses is still far below the demand, and, in consequence, landlords can find any number of tenants whenever they have a vacant house. And those in search of houses are driven to pay any price that may be asked of them, from the fact that they must provide some place of shelter for themselves and families. So that when a house is offered for rent, a large number of bidders are in the market, and he is the successful one who offers the largest price. Let our capitalists study their interests, and still erect more houses—neat and commodious dwellings, at a moderate rate. At present, men of moderate circumstances find it a difficulty, if not an impossibility, to secure a dwelling house at a price within the range of a tenant or suited to their pockets. The course now pursued will certainly drive mechanics from our city, and work injury to our city and its best interests.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—Christ Church.—A series of discourses on the "Seven Churches of Asia," will be commenced in this church on to-morrow (Sunday) evening, the 28th inst. Subject of the first: "St. John on Patmos." Service begins at 7 1/2 o'clock. Seats free. There will be services at St. Barnabas' Free Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Universalist Church.—Rev. B. Peters will lecture on "Swedenborgianism," on Sunday, being the sixth lecture of the course on the History and Doctrines of the various denominations. The public are respectfully invited.

Baptist Church.—Services in the Baptist Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning at 10 A. M. and in the evening at 7 P. M. Sunday School at 1 P. M.; Adult Bible class at 1 P. M. Weekly prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock; prayer and conference meeting on Friday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Evangelist M. E. Church, Fourth street, Rev. T. A. Fennell, Pastor, will preach (D. V.) to-morrow (Saturday) morning, on "How are the dead raised up, and with what body do they come?" And at night on the "General Judgment." Public always welcome.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—Business men should bear in mind that the Mason circulates more papers in the country surrounding Reading than any other daily in this city. We print two editions—one for the country and one for the city.

A handsome new barber shop has been opened at 311 North Eighth street, for the accommodation of the citizens in that vicinity.

A man got to "badly rooked" the other evening, that his friends placed him on a wagon, took him to his home, and dumped him into the window.

Though winter is upon us, many foundations are being laid for new houses.

Work at the new printing office of Messrs. Ritter & Hawley at Sixth and Penn streets, is progressing finely, and it will be under way in a week or so.

Some men will not shave on Sunday, and yet spend all the week in shaving their fellow men.

Does Josh Billings hit anybody you know when he says: "When a young man ain't good for anything else, I like to see him carry a gold-headed cane. If he can't buy a cane, let him part his hair in the middle!"

Coffee without milk is said to be used by the Turks as an antidote to the injurious effects of tobacco.

Young ladies should not scream unless they are frightened.

Two teams stuck in the mud yesterday at the new Furnace of Messrs. Dushong & Co. A large number of men had to be called to help them out.

A stranger says in Reading there are "Cross-eyed spinners, mischievous makers, grumbling old hangers, disappointed sailors, quarrelsome children, frowny and dirty wives and dirty postal currency." Said stranger must be a "crusty" old "back."

A young lady went to one of our photograph artists a day or two since and wanted him to take her with an expression as if composing a poem.

Welding cars, according to the latest fashion, should be issued three weeks before the event transpires.

The Unionville Harmonian Association will give one of their Concerts of choice music, at Douglasville School House, this evening, (Saturday), November 28th.

A friend of ours is very severe in his denunciations of the Grecian Bend. He says his wife has it, and gets her back up on often that it is unpleasant to live with her.

Unless applications are filed for the benefit of the bankrupt laws, on or before January 1st, 1899, they will not be entertained, unless fifty per cent. of debts is added.

Real Estate is still going up in this city.

Father Abraham was in this city yesterday, looking after Good Templar matters.

Industrious People.—The young lady who reads romances in bed, the friend who is always engaged when you call, and the correspondent who cannot find time to answer your letter.

Unpopular Personages.—The fat man in an omnibus, the tall man in a crowd, and the short man on a parade.

Strive to do good, and you will be looked upon with pleasure by the righteous.

The time tables of the Railroads have undergone their usual autumn changes. Travellers will take notice.

Timid People.—A lover, about to pop the question, a man who does not like to be shot at, and a steamboat company with a case of cholera.

Some smart statisticians say that the births since the creation of our world, have been 2,406,993,125,701,429,574,270,511,635,627,813,273,075,221, and you had better believe it than hunt proof.

Humble Persons.—The husband who does his wife's churning, the wife who blacks her husband's boots, and the man who thinks you do him much honor.

The hand that can make a pie is a continual feast to the husband that marries it.

Dreams are the novels that we read when we are fast asleep.

"Sassidoo" is trump in our market, and our citizens seem to be disposed to ask and ask no questions.

The Pennsylvania Railroad has 522 locomotives, a larger number than any other Railroad in the country.

Genial People.—The young lady who lets her mother do the ironing for fear of spilling her hands, the mis who wears thin shoes on a rainy day, and the young gentleman who is ashamed to be seen walking with his wife.

Five Fellow.—The man who never refuses to lend you money, and the fellow who is courting your sister.

Feast Reading.—Dr. Light No. 1 North Fifth street, Reading, Pa., has in his store one of the finest and best selected stocks of fresh drugs in this city. Dr. Light and his assistant are always ready to wait on persons who are in want, at any hour of the day or night. Dr. Light and his assistant are both accomplished druggists and gentlemen, versed in Pharmacology.

THE MARKET.

DAILY REVIEW OF BUSINESS.

READING, NOV. 28, 1898.

In Philadelphia, the money market has undergone an essential change.

The movements at the Stock Board yesterday were very small. Government and State Loans were without essential change. City Loans of the new issues sold at 102 1/2 to 103.

Reading Railroad was quiet at 49 1/2. Pennsylvania Railroad was strong and advanced 1/2, closing at 54 1/2. Little Schuylkill Railroad sold at 4 1/2, an advance of 1/2; Minehill Railroad at 5 1/2—no change; and Lehigh Valley Railroad, which was bid for Camden and Amboy Railroad, 30 1/2, for Catasauque Railroad, preferred, 23 1/2, for Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, and 31 for North Pennsylvania Railroad.

Canal Stocks were quiet. Lehigh Navigation advanced to 23.

New York Markets.

Week ending, November 26th.

WOOL.—There has been little doing in wool for the last week, and "dullness" continues to describe the condition of the trade. Purchasers have been few, and they were more inclined to seek parcels upon which a concession could be obtained than to buy at current rates. Holders, however, as a general thing, were firm, feeling continued confidence in the future of wool and believing as the condition of the money market improves a corresponding advance will take place in trade, and with an increased demand for woolen goods, business and higher rates may be fairly expected. The stock of wool continues light with small receipts, except in California, to which there have been considerable additions by recent arrivals of Fall Clip.

COTTON.—The demand was active and the sales again foot up large prices showing a further advance, and closing very firm with only small offerings; the scarcity of freightage interfered with the operations of shippers.

GRAIN.—The market for wheat opened strong under a good demand, and a falling off in the receipts, but subsequently, owing to an advance in freights, the demand abated, and to effect sales holders were compelled to submit to a decline, and the market closed heavy yesterday. The business of the week has been confined principally to Spring, in part speculative, though fair to export.

PROVISIONS.—There is again to note a very dull and unsettled market for Pork; prices have declined and have a downward tendency.

DRUGS AND DYES.—There was a fair jobbing demand for all articles coming under this heading, and the market ruled quite firm.

The Horse Market.

New York, Nov. 28.

After a fair Autumn trade the Horse market has gone into winter quarters. In other words business is nearly suspended, and is not expected to revive until after the holidays. There are few sales from the city railroad companies, paying at $140 to $160 for strong, serviceable, but not large horses, and a gentleman occasionally renews his stock of light horses for his own use, paying where from $800 to $1,200, or if style is much of an object, and he wishes to pass his competitors on the road, $1,500 or $2,000 for a span. Sales are rare, for with the high prices of feed, and an idea of economy during the coming Winter, most of the winter and spring work is now being completed, and there is a little demand for the West India trade, but take it all in all the trade is unusually quiet, owners with stable full of horses remaining absolutely idle. There is a good stock of stock in the street, among which is quite an infusion of the Morgan and Black Hawk blood in horses brought from Vermont, while Pennsylvania turns out some heavy draft horses.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

The demand for Beef Cattle this week was not very brisk, but prices remained about the same. The offerings from the city railroad companies, paying at $140 to $160 for strong, serviceable, but not large horses, and a gentleman occasionally renews his stock of light horses for his own use, paying where from $800 to $1,200, or if style is much of an object, and he wishes to pass his competitors on the road, $1,500 or $2,000 for a span. Sales are rare, for with the high prices of feed, and an idea of economy during the coming Winter, most of the winter and spring work is now being completed, and there is a little demand for the West India trade, but take it all in all the trade is unusually quiet, owners with stable full of horses remaining absolutely idle. There is a good stock of stock in the street, among which is quite an infusion of the Morgan and Black Hawk blood in horses brought from Vermont, while Pennsylvania turns out some heavy draft horses.

Is Philadelphia, the Flour market was inactive yesterday, but good brands, of which the receipts are confined, entirely to the wants of the home consumers, who took 38,000 bbls. at $7.50 to $7.75 for Northwest Extra Family and $8.50 to $9.10 for low grade and choice Pennsylvania and Ohio do. do. including some fancy lots at $11.25 to $13, and extra at $12.50 to $14.50. No Flour sales today at $7.50 to $7.75. In Corn Meal nothing doing.

The offerings of wheat are light, but there is not much demand; small sales of good prime Penna. and Western Red at $2.50 to $2.75 per bushel and choice Pennsylvania and Ohio do. do. at $1.50 to $1.75. The market is well supplied with Corn; we noticed sales of 2,000 bushels at $1.25 to $1.35, and 1,000 bushels at $1.10 to $1.20. No sales of Oats today. No sales of Rye today.
