NEWS ITEMS.

—George Longine, sheriff of Brown county, Wisconsin, shot and killed a professional burglar named M. Tebbill, at Green Bay, on Monday, while he was attempting to escape from him. He had been arrested by the sheriff in a stage coach on the authority of a telegraph dispatch from Marquette. Three or four shots were exchanged between the sheriff and the burglar before he was brought down.

—George Francis Train has been set at liberty, the plaintiffs in the case against him having withdrawn the suits. Train has issued writs against the Marquis of Abercorn, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, for $100,000 damages for false imprisonment, and against the Ebbervale Steel Company for $20,000. Train will sail in the Australasian, from Queenstown, to-morrow, for New York.

—Mr. James Fisk, Jr., the Erie Railroad Director, has commenced action against the New York Tribune and the Springfield Republican, for alleged libel, claiming $100,000 from the former and $50,000 from the latter as damages. He also threatens, it is said, to serve a similiar "summons for relief," upon the other New York morning papers.

—An English paper illustrates life in the Staffordshire mining districts by this conversation: First collier—"There's been a foire (explosion) at Jackson's pits." Second collier—"My feyther worked there." First collier—"Yes, and he's blowed all to pieces." Second collier—"By gum, he'd got my knoife."

—A woman named Encarnacion Oquento recently died in the Potrero de la Langosta, in Mexico, at the alleged age of one hundred and forty-five years, six months and twelve days. Her age was proved by the baptismal certificate found in the archives of the city where she was born.

—Professor DeLesseor, of Kingston, who, a long time in advance, announced the days on which the earthquakes would visit Southomas, Chili and Peru, announces that there would be an earthquake in California in the vicinity of 9th and 11th of December. He was mistaken this time.

—A New Mexican millionaire, travelling East by the overland route, was recently robbed of $89,000 by the Indians in Kansas. He was shot besides, and after getting to Omaha was five days without food or lodging. He at last met an acquaintance, and was provided for.

—Messrs. J. L. Tate, Chas. D. Emory, A. B. Tate and J. L. Reese, editors of the Williamsport Standard, who were recently convicted of libel in the court at that place, were, on the 4th inst., sentenced by Judge Bentley to pay a fine of $40 and costs of prosecution.

—On Thursday night last a safe belonging to John K. Malone, living at Pennington ville, was blown open by burglars, and fifty dollars taken therefrom. The thieves, in their haste, overlooked five hundred dollars that was also in the safe.

—Grant's latest speech was at Providence. Some one in the crowd called out, "Say just two words, General?" Grant replied, "No, sir!!" He intends to constantly repeat that speech to office seekers during the next six months.

—Lake Tully shot his wife at Worcester, Mass., on Saturday, inflicting a severe wound. He then cut his own throat so badly that he is not expected to live. He had been absent from his wife for a couple of years.

—A Boston paper tells a story of an old lady in that town who got exceedingly angry at a horse-car driver, because he would not drive up to the sidewalk and take her and her bundles aboard.

—The Washburn manufactory at Worcester, Massachusetts, is the only establishment in America for casting and rolling steel locomotive tires. The furnace can melt six tons of steel a day.

—The city of Elgin, Illinois, situated about half and half on opposite sides of a river, has been left in an embarrassing predicament by the fall of the only bridge between the two sections.

—Maggie Wiseman, chambermaid at the Adams House, in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, was burned to death on Wednesday night by the upsetting of a kerosene lamp.

—Mrs. Gatewood, who committed suicide in New York, the other day, while under arrest for larceny, was a niece of Hon. James Guthrie, of Kentucky.

—A league of those favoring the repeal of the union with Canada is to be organized in Nova Scotia, with headquarters at Halifax.

—Chang and Eng, the Siamese twins, have sailed for Europe, where the ligament that unites them will be severed.

—On Friday afternoon, J. S. Martin hung himself to a doorknob, in the State Capital Hotel, in Harrisburg.

—The colors in the Spanish flag are to be changed for the principal colors of castile soap—yellow, red and violet.

—Thomas Gill, of St. Louis, aged 65, has made himself half a pint by marrying Margaret St. Clair, aged 65.

THE READING FIRE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY OF BERKS COUNTY.

Organized, July, 1867. Capital, $150,000.

Office, Reading Insurance Building, No. 19 North Fifth street, South-East Corner of Court Street.

OFFICE HOURS FROM 8 A. M. to 8 P. M.

DIRECTORS:

J. Pringle Jones, James McKnight,
Henry Z. Van Reed, Jacob Shaffner,
J. T. Jackson, D. E. Stout,
Jonas Shalter, J. T. Valentine,
George Risser,

THIS COMPANY INSURES ALL kinds of property against loss or damage by fire at rates as low as any other reliable Company and upon every plan known to Stock Insurance Companies.

Perpetual Policies issued requiring no renewal and upon which the amount of premium paid can be reclaimed at any time, less a deduction of five per cent. The advantages of this method are worthy of the attention of farmers and others having first-class dwelling houses, barns and other buildings, in town or country, as being the cheapest and safest.

Policies for one, two, three, five or more years, or for less than one year, issued and no charge made for Policy and survey when renewed or when insurances are transferred from other companies.

The citizens of Reading and vicinity, hitherto dependent mainly upon foreign companies, have now the privilege of effecting their insurances in a home institution, well organized, with an adequate paid in and guaranteed capital, presenting as strong a basis of security as that of any other company. The advantage of doing business directly with the Company and the importance of keeping some portion of the large sums paid for insurances, in circulation at home, will be appreciated by all.

WILLIAM BRIDEGAM,

No. 242 Penn St., Reading

The undersigned respectfully invites public attention to his newly invented Heater, named the

REYSTONE HEATER!!

BEST HEATER EVER INTRODUCED.

THREE SIZES.

It burns less coal, makes more heat, takes up less room, and gives better satisfaction than any similar invention ever introduced to the public.

The advantage of this superior heating apparatus will be fully explained by the Proprietor, who guarantees that he will be able to satisfy all who give him a call that it is superior to any one invented. The advantages are so manifold, and so easily comprehended, that it needs only to be seen to convince the most skeptical. In proof of this he respectfully refers the public, by permission, to the following named persons who are now using those Heaters:

Geo. K. Frill,	Mrs. J. Stevenson,
C. D. Geiger,	Sell & Co.,
G. A. Nicolls,	Henry Johnson,
