THE DAILY EAGLE.

READING, PA.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1868.

REFORM NEEDED.

The shameful extravagance of those who pretend to represent the interests of the tax-payers, in our State Legislature, is attracting much attention at present, and we are glad to see that a few Republican papers are honest enough to denounce the lavish expenditure of the public money by those who should make it their especial business to prevent such waste.

Page 112 of the Adjutant General's report for 1867, shows that the amount paid to "pasters and folders" for the House of Representatives alone, during the year, was $20,012.10. Messrs. Rauch & Cochran, of Lancaster, offer to do the same work for the coming year for both houses, for $5,000. The estimates show that about twenty-eight persons were employed to do the pasting and folding for one hundred members.

On the same page it is shown that James McDermott received $857.10 for four months services as "Marshal of the Rotunda," and George Wright received $835.50 for services as "Assistant Marshal of the Rotunda"—about seven dollars a day for each!

Why is it that Adjutant General Hartranft fails to call attention to this useless and extravagant expenditure of the people's money? And why is it that Governor Geary, in his high-sounding proclamation of the alleged reduction of the State debt, says nothing about the vast amount of money wasted at the State Capital? Is it because those who thus rob the tax-payers are "loyal" members of the Republican party? It seems so.

We call upon our members of the Legislature from Berks county to use their utmost efforts, during the coming session, to check the stupendous fraud and bold robberies now so prevalent at the State Capital. As the minority, they may not be able to accomplish a reform at present, but they can at least call the attention of the people of this Commonwealth to the shameful manner in which their money is being lavished upon personal or political favorites, and thus pave the way for a reform in the future.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE!!

Those Republicans who deny that their party is in favor of negro suffrage, are requested to read the following, from the Philadelphia Morning Post, a Radical organ:

CONGRESS AND SUFFRAGE.

Before the Fortieth Congress closes, we expect that it will crown its labors by submitting an amendment to the Constitution forbidding State Legislatures to deny the right of suffrage because of race or color. Bills have been introduced in the House extending the suffrage, but an act of Congress is not sufficient, for what is passed by one party another may repeal. The principle of Impartial Suffrage should be incorporated in the Constitution itself, there to remain forever.

To leave this question to the States is to defer indefinitely its settlement. Harmonious action is not to be expected from them. Pennsylvania will not move before New York. The only way to obtain the general consent of the North to Impartial Suffrage is to submit it through Congress, to make it a strict party measure, and carry it through as an amendment to the Constitution. For this the country is ready.

In the next Congress the Democratic party will gain thirty-four members. This is one reason why during this session the amendment should be passed. There are others more important. The settlement of the suffrage question, as far as Congress is concerned, should be effected at once, that the new administration may have a fair and honest start. The Republican party is bound to give the colored man in the North the ballot, and we want the Fortieth Congress to lead the way.

What do you think of that, "loil" members of the National Loonyunrepublican party? You are not in favor of negro suffrage, are you? Oh, no; of course not. And yet you would vote the Radical ticket to-morrow, if you could. The man who votes the Republican ticket, and then denies that he is in favor of negro suffrage, is either a fool or a knave.

GRANT'S CABINET.

It is thought that General Grant cannot find men enough of the same kind to make a harmonious Cabinet. A lively and facetious contemporary, the Concord (N. H.) Patriot, says he is determined that it shall be a "unit"—is bent on "peace," and his "bobbing around" from Dan to Beersheba and back again, and "swinging round the circle" from Washington via Boston to Chicago, is said to be not only to "avoid the politicians and office seekers," but to find uniform material for his Cabinet. To cut the "Gordian knot" and make sure thing of it, some bright genius has suggested the following:

Secretary of State—E. B. Washburne, Illinois.

Secretary of War—W. D. Washburne, Minnesota.

Secretary of Treasury—C. C. Washburne, Wisconsin.

Secretary of Navy—W. B. Washburne, Massachusetts.

Secretary of Interior—C. A. Washburne, California.

Attorney General—H. D. Washburne, Indiana.

The rest of the family, which is extremely prolific and very extensive in its ramifications, can be disposed of as vacancies occur, or else be assigned to the important European missions. "Let us have peace!"

The Cuban revolution still continues, and the unsettled state of the country is causing much distress and apprehension for the future.

SUBSCRIBE for the EAGLE.

Some of our cotemporaries oppose female suffrage because they are "afraid the country will eventually be ruled by strong-minded women." Under the rule of strong-minded, respectable women would be any worse than that of weak-minded, dissolute men?

Reminiscences of "Loyal" Government.

George D. Prentice gives some interesting reminiscences of Fort Lafayette. He says that in 1861 Dr. Gwin and Messrs. Bowden and Brent were arrested "on suspicion" and sent to that Fort, and as one of these gentlemen was a relation of Mr. Prentice, he set about securing their release. Applying to President Lincoln, he was referred to Secretary Seward. Mr. Prentice called on the latter, was received kindly and asked to tea. After tea he again broached the subject, when Seward replied with, "I shall be glad to see you at tea, or breakfast, or dinner any day, and we will talk the matter over." After several meals Mr. Prentice succeeded in obtaining a promise of the release of his friends, but found that to be diplomatically interpreted as only a permission for him to see them and "ascertain their feelings and intentions." At last he applied to Mr. Lincoln, who said, "I will set your friends free. They may go as much at large as any other citizens of the United States." Mr. Prentice requested him to put this declaration in writing. He said, "No, it is a very delicate subject, and Seward will be very mad about it. I will not touch your prodder in regard to it. Tell your friends what I have told you, and tell them further that I shall be glad to see them." So they came out, no charges having been made against them, and no explanation offered by prosecution attempted.

The Working Men's Party.

The working men of Baltimore have recently held a mass meeting to promote the interests of the "labor reform movement." The attendance of representatives from the different trades unions was large, and the platform of principles of the National Labor Reform party and accompanying resolutions passed at Chicago on Sept. 25th, 1868, were adopted. The working men of Boston, Mass., held a meeting last week, to organize a working men's party to vote at the polls irrespective of party politics and to secure the establishment of the eight-hour system. The question of pay under the eight-hour law is not considered settled at the Springfield Armory, and the men are being paid only four-fifths of the wages they claim. Col. Benton, the Superintendent, decides that the interpretation Congress gives to its own law, touching the eight-hour question, must be received before he can settle the vexed question.

The difficulty at Westfield, Mass., among the cigar-makers, is not yet settled. The trouble arose from the employment of a female, in consequence of which the hands refused to work and were discharged. Other cigar makers were obtained to fill the vacant positions, and the opposition to the strangers has become so violent that it is feared the militia will have to be called out.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

SATURDAY, Dec. 10.—John W. Jones and Solomon C. Powell have brought a suit against the Northern Missouri Railway Company of Missouri, for $10,000 damages, having in December, 1868, shipped $15,000 worth of hogs from Jacksonville station to St. Louis, the company agreeing to deliver them within a certain time and in good condition. It is claimed that the servants of the company, and the company itself, were guilty of gross negligence as common carriers. The complainants also claim that they were compelled to spend $7,000 in feeding the hogs, and that their loss on them was $10,000, and they ask damages to that amount.

The decision in the legal tender case now before the Supreme Court of the United States, which involves the constitutionality of the law called Legal-Tender act, will not be announced for a month or two.

On the 8th inst., in latitude 40 deg. 30 min. north, longitude 19 deg. west, the steamship Cimbria, just arrived, passed a ship abandoned, water-logged, with all rigging standing. She had iron masts and bright forecastle, with both anchors on. She had an Indian for a figure-head, a high poopdeck with a high companion-way, all painted white. The Cimbria could not make out her name. The crew had taken off the boats.

Forged checks, amounting to $60,000, purporting to have been drawn by the National Bank of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, were presented for payment at the Suffolk Bank of Massachusetts on Thursday morning, and refused. Similar forged checks were presented about a year since, the same having been negotiated in Charleston, South Carolina.

Mr. Menard, negro member of Congress from Louisiana, has received his certificate of election from Governor Warmouth. His seat is contested by Colonel Hunt, a white man.

Rich silver deposits are reported to have been discovered in Nevada.

The Senate yesterday confirmed Commodore Charles H. Poor as Rear Admiral.

Gen. McCook, U. S. Minister to the Sandwich Islands, has arrived in San Francisco.

Sandwich Islands advices state that a severe earthquake occurred at Hawaii, on Nov. 16th, and the volcano of Mauna Loa had resumed its activity. There was a torchlight parade and general display of flags in Honolulu, on receipt of the news of Gen. Grant's election as President. Malo Keknauoa, father of King Kamehameha, died on Nov. 27th.

Governor Wise's farm, in Princess Anne county, Va., has been restored to him by the Government. The owner of Libby Prison is also to be paid three years' rent for the use of that building by the U. S. authorities.

The town of Augusta, Arkansas, the scene of the late conflict between citizens and militia men, is nearly deserted by its inhabitants. An attack on the militia in the town is expected.

A cable despatch from Havana says the Government troops in Cuba are about to make a combined movement from four different points against the rebels.

General Rosecrans has arrived in the city of Mexico, and been cordially received.
