THE DAILY EAGLE.

READING, PA.

MONDAY, JANUARY 4, 1869.

Reading is greatly in need of a large public hall. It is a disgrace to our beautiful city that it has not a hall large enough to accommodate a paying audience for any good theatrical or musical performance. We have some well built and comfortable public halls, but none of them are large enough for the purpose, and for this reason many of the best lecturers, musicians and theatrical performers refuse to visit our city, while those who do come here are obliged to leave after a single night's performance, on account of the impossibility of securing a suitable hall.

Some of our capitalists should build a large hall, and have it fitted up as a theatre. We have no doubt the investment would be a profitable one. The building need not be an expensive one. Let it be built on the plan of Niblo's, in New York—the whole building back from the street, with merely an entrance on a public thoroughfare. A height of one story would be sufficient, and standing back from the street, it would require no expensive outside adornment. By all means let it be on the ground floor, or at most, in the second story. The system so prevalent in Reading of building public halls on the third or fourth floor, should be discouraged. Besides the great inconvenience of climbing up and down several flights of stairs, such halls are extremely unsafe, not only on account of the tremendous strain and shaking to which the walls are subjected when the hall is crowded with dancers, but on account of the panic which would ensue in case of an alarm of fire. We have never yet heard of the cry of "fire!" being raised in a hall in the third or fourth story of a building which did not result in serious injury to some one of the audience, and sometimes in the death of several persons. Delicate women frequently become ill from fright on such occasions, and with sufficient reason; for the idea of being in a third story hall with a fire burning away the stairs at the bottom, and a crushing crowd between one's self and the door of the room, is rather disagreeable to the boldest man. We hope this system of building halls so far above the ground will be discontinued.

There are in Reading many capitalists who have shown by their works that they feel an interest in the prosperity of our beautiful city. Why do they not combine and build a neat, plain hall, large enough for any audience which is likely to assemble in Reading at any time for years to come. It need not be extravagantly fitted up or furnished—a plain, large hall, properly heated and ventilated, and so arranged that the voices of speakers can be distinctly heard throughout its entire area, is all that is required. Besides the traveling theatres, &c., the patronage of the political parties during campaigns would amount to a considerable sum; and no doubt our friends of the Mannerchor and other musical societies would favor us with their splendid concerts quite frequently, to the gratification of the public and the profit of themselves and the proprietors of the building.

Which of our capitalists will start the movement, and give us a hall suitable for a city of the size and prosperity of Reading?

WE MUST HAVE THEM ALL.

The Journal of Saturday recommends one of the political friends, and personally, a very clever fellow, for three different positions in the House of Representatives at Harrisburg. As we are for the interests of Reading and Berks county all the time, we say let him have them all. And as a thousand moons may wax and wane, and as many years roll away, ere the Radicals of Berks county elect even an Auditor, by all means let the Radicals at Harrisburg award three positions to the jolly, good-natured proprietor of the Gen. Taylor House. John, adopt the motto of "Old Whitey!" at Buena Vista, and "never surrender" until the grim monster Death, ends the battle. But we must let the Journal have its say:

"Mr. John D. Shaeffer, a zealous and active Republican of Reading, is a candidate for Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, Assistant Doorkeeper, or Postmaster of the Penna. House of Representatives, which meets next week. Mr. Shaeffer is well qualified for either of the positions named. His appointment would give great satisfaction to the Republicans of Berks, and as they do not often ask favors of this sort, we trust their representative man will not be sent away empty-handed."

THE WORKING PEOPLE.—The co-operative building associations in New York city are vigorously carrying on their operations. The German association, composed of cabinetmakers, numbers 400 paying members, and has a fund of $10,000, raised by the disposal of 65 lots. The First Union Co-operative Building Society has a bank account of $10,947. The Second Society has a bank account of $4,215. The Co-operative Building Lot Association has 700 members, and has already distributed 177 lots in Brooklyn, 160 in Middle Village, Long Island, and has 112 acres in Westchester county ready for allotment. There are six co-operative associations in New York, five aiming to give homes to working men, and one to take building contracts.

Abraham A. Abrams, recently arrested in St. Louis, of receiving stolen goods, and pardoned by the Governor, has been again arrested, and held to answer for a fraudulent return in bankruptcy.

CHRISTMAS SPORTS IN LANCASTER COUNTY.

REVIVAL OF THE "BRITISH" GAMES—THE FIRE-FOOTED ACHILLES OUT-RUN.—We have been favored by our neighbors across the Lancaster line, about the rural sports and pastimes during Christmas week in the country districts of Bucks, and a good deal of ignorance and moral depravity has been ascribed to our people by reason of them. It is also generally supposed that such a thing as a Common School is unknown, and, of course, reading, writing, and speaking good English, are perfect myths. But we think Lancaster county occasionally furnishes a bill of public entertainment for its intelligent yeomanry, quite remarkable, and instructive to outside barbarians. Read the following bill:

"SPORTSMEN ATTENTION! WILD HOG CHASE!!!

The subscriber has purchased a wild hog, directly brought from the West, will make a chase of the same, at Voganville, on Saturday, the 26th of December, 1868, between 11 and 1 o'clock P. M., weighing between 200 and 300 pounds. The public is invited to attend, to witness the wild disposition and speed of this animal. Some of the citizens of this county, are somewhat familiar with this animal, as the same a few weeks ago, broke loose from the owner, and visited the villages and neighborhoods of Blue Ball, Fairville, Beamestown, Adamstown, &c."

December 17, 1868. EDWARD HIXDORF.

What must be thought of the christianity, morals, intelligence, and spirit of a community, that will encourage an enterprising individual to go to the labor and expense of importing a wild hog, for the purpose of enabling the men, women and children of Lancaster county to wind up the festivities of the season, on the day between Christmas and Sunday, by chasing it full cry, the fields through, the villages and neighborhoods of Blue Ball, Fairville, Beamestown, Adamstown, &c." We have some recollection of the days when certain old gentlemen, living in the aforesaid villages, used to take delight in following the fox, with their hounds, but a hog chase! That beats cock-fighting, which, by the by, was a favorite sport, too, in the neighborhood at one time. How the latter came to an end, those interested know best. What becomes of the Great National Game, the Regatta and Cricket? Not so manly as a hog chase. We suppose that the ladies in the aforesaid villages will even dispense with croquet. La! Indeed! Just a trifle, compared with the refined and exciting enjoyment of a run after little "piggy," and when some vigorous heroine shall have captured the squeaking prize she will deposit it in the capacious folds of her pannier and parade the streets of Voganville, the Queen of the county, cheered by the boys and girls, adored by the gentlemen and envied by the less fortunate of her rivals.

We observe that sportsmen are invited to attend, and the hand-bill generally indicates that the dogs are not expected to participate in the sport. Whether the breed has been spoiled by too great an admixture with the Beartown hounds, so famous in the sporting annals of Lancaster, for a peculiar habit of dropping the trail, and leaving the fox alive, to regale themselves upon any carrion they might chance to meet in the hunt, or, whether, even with that bad blood in them, they turn up their noses at a hog chase, and leave that intellectual and exhilarating recreation to the backwoods of the neighborhood, we leave to Mr. Steinman, of the Intelligencer, to explain.

It is to be hoped that the manners, as well as morals of the "citizens" were improved, both by the grace and style with which the hog behaved himself in the chase, and the "familiar visits" which his lordship is described as having made in certain "villages and neighborhoods." We should not be surprised to hear of an increased Radical majority next fall, from the home of Stevens. We understand that the preachers have already been forced to leave.

A STRUGGLE WITH A BURGLAR.—A burglar named Daniel Sly, (a fitting name) with some accomplices, sneaked into the house of Thomas Grace, in Philadelphia, early on last Thursday morning. Grace threw his boot, the heel of which struck Sly on the head, knocking him down stairs. Sly was arrested by some policemen who were in the street, and locked up. He had "striking" evidence that his search for plunder had not been "bootless," though his head, strange to say, was much the worse for his experience in this new application of the "healing art."

LATEST FROM GEORGIA.

[From the Savannah News, Dec. 31.]

We published yesterday the statement of a citizen who was called to the Ogeechee country on business, and who was stopped and interfered with by armed bands of negroes. This morning we present to our readers a detailed statement of the conduct of these ignorant, lawless blacks, who appear bent and determined upon murder, plunder, and rapine. On all the Ogeechee plantations the negroes appear to be banded together, thoroughly organized and armed, judging by the statements of respectable and reliable citizens and planters. They will not work, and by threats and violence prevent those who are willing to labor from serving their employers, their object being to prevent the rice crop from being secured by day, that they may steal it at night. To put an end to these depredations a number of white men were employed on many of the plantations to watch the fields by night. Last Monday night a band of negroes appeared in the fields of Southfield and Prairie plantations, owned by Captain John F. Tucker and Maj. J. M. Middleton. They fired a volley at the watchmen, wounding two of them. One, a colored man, named George Bunyan, was shot in the hand, and a white man in the back, both with buckshot. About fifty shots were fired, and the watchmen driven off. The negroes then proceeded to steal sixteen sacks of rice, about one hundred and sixty bushels. Previous to that they had at frequent times stolen a greater portion of the crop made this year. At night they picket the roads and allow no white man to travel in that section. The negro women fear to go into the fields by reason of threats of being shot at, and can only be got to work by providing them with an armed guard. We are also informed that parties in this city are daily sending new muskets and ammunition to that section, which they exchange for rice, stolen by these negroes. The white watchmen, owing to their having been frequently shot at, have become completely demoralized, and the planters say that they will either have to be protected by the law or abandon the country. The negroes have become emboldened, and threaten to drive out the whites. They drill regularly, are armed, equipped, and organized in regular military style. They live mainly by plundering the plantations of poultry and stock, stealing the horses and selling them, and ranging the woods for game. One of the ringleaders goes about at all times with an armed body guard, and puts on as much style as an army brigadier. In that section of the country there appears to be no longer any security for life or property, and the necessities of the people imperatively demand that the laws shall be enforced.

FROM THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 30.—The sheriff of the county and two assistants, on Tuesday, went to Hayward's plantation, on the Ogeechee River, eleven miles from the city, to arrest seventeen negroes, charged with shooting a watchman on the plantation and carrying off the crop of the planters. They made five arrests at Station No. 1, on the Atlantic & Gulf Railroad. They were surrounded by about one hundred armed negroes, who disarmed and robbed the sheriff and destroyed the warrants, threatening to kill him if he ever served a legal process again in that vicinity. The negroes then separated into squads and marched back to the plantations, avowing that they would have the heart's blood of every white man on the Ogeechee River, and saying "the war has commenced." One negro watchman is supposed to be murdered. Two white men were badly hurt, and all the white men were obliged to flee from the city to save their lives. The women and children are in the hands of the mob and have been carried off into the woods. Great excitement exists in this community, and a sheriff's posse of between 300 and 400 citizens will leave at daybreak to-morrow to rescue the women and children. The military decline to interfere until the powers of the civil authorities for preserving order are exhausted.
