—On Thursday, 17th ult., at Lackawanna, a boy named Daniel Boone (no doubt a descendant of the famous Daniel), 13 years of age, while skating on the ice near the residence of his parents, heard his mother scream, and immediately repaired to the spot, when he observed a large wildcat about attacking her.—Quick as a flash he darted into the house, secured a loaded gun contained therein, and returned just in time to put a load of buckshot into his catship as it was about to make the fatal spring. Not killing the animal at the first shot, the lad followed it, and re-loading as he ran, fired two more rounds into his body and then dispatched it with the butt of the gun. The animal is said to be the largest of its species in this country.

—The Suez canal is to be about one hundred miles long. The sea water now reaches fifty miles inland. The canal is finished to its full breadth for this distance, one hundred yards, but not to the intended breadth, twenty-six feet. The last fifty miles is in every possible state of progress.

—A gentleman being asked by a clergyman why he did not attend the evening prayer meetings, said he could not leave the children. "What! have you no servants?" "Yes," he replied, "we have two servants who keep the and board us, but we are allowed few privileges."

—A boy of 17 and a girl of 14 made a runaway match at Marine City, Mich., recently, but on the way home after the ceremony, the bride's father met them, lifted the young husband out of the sleigh by the collar and drove his daughter off to a convent.

—Quite recently an Iowa hog merchant bought stock on the Strength of a dispatch from Chicago, which erroneously gave the price of dressed hogs as the price of live hogs. He lost money, sued the telegraph company, and has recovered the amount.

—Great quantities of Maine lumber will be floated to market next spring. Tracts of land in Aroostook county, thought to be nearly worthless two years ago, are now valuable by reason of the increased value of spruce lumber.

—A new candidate for a place in Grant's Cabinet has sprung up in Peoria. He drank in one day forty-nine glasses of whisky, and was still sober enough to say "let us have peace."

—Mr. Eschelberger, of Ocala, Fla., has gathered five hundred lemons, a good proportion of them weighing more than a pound each, from a tree reared from the seed of the small Sicily lemon.

—One of the combatants in a recent Indiana prize fight was knocked down seventy-four times. He finally had to be held up to the "scratch," and yet won the battle by a foul blow.

—In Uruguay there is said to be a kitchen covering a half acre. They make "extract of meat" in it, and dispose of 80 head of cattle per hour, whilst they are able to dispose of 400 head hourly when trade is brisk.

—A wife of a banker at Troy recently presented her husband with four babies at one meeting on the board. All doing well. A good deposit for one cradle, if not an over issue.

—A bridal party in Newport, R. I., indulged in so much liquid festivity on the way to the clergyman's that both bride and groom spent the night, unmarried, in the station-house.

—The post surgeon at Fort Randall, Dakotah, claims to have invented electro-music, by which one performer can play a brass band in half a dozen different cities at once.

—The Wisconsin lumbermen are worried by mice, which overrun their camps in hosts. They are importing large invoices of cats to remove the plague.

—A New Yorker advertises his church pew for sale, adding that it is a "very desirable pew, and in great demand before Protestantism became a failure."

—"Why, isn't my shirt clean?" quoth one Bohemian to another. "Well, yes," was the answer, "it's clean for brown, but it's awful dirty for white."

—An enterprising young lawyer of Louisville has provided himself handsomely with wives by marrying two widows and one woman who was single.

—An ardent youth in Chicago was poisoned the other day by the cosmetic bloom which his lips absorbed from the cheek of his sweetheart.

—An infant child has been poisoned in Columbus by putting a piece of green paper, in which candy had been wrapped, into its mouth.

—At Mendota, Wisconsin, lately, two men caroused, quarrelled, and one cut the other up with a butcher's knife. Such is Western life.

—A young man in Oshkosh was fined five dollars the other day for winking at ladies in the street. They are moral at Oshkosh.

—A Broadway barkeeper claims he is a philanthropist on the ground that his life is devoted to the "elevation" of his race.

—Nearly fourteen million dollars in gold have been derived in one year from the sale of ecclesiastical property in Italy.

—Sam Houston's grave, at Huntsville, Texas, has no stone or monument, and a general contribution to erect one is suggested.

—Disappointed office-seekers need not starve in Washington. Soup houses are to be established there.

—A Maine man has sued the husband of his daughter for tea, cake and candles consumed during the courtship.

—A method of sewing boots and shoes with copper wire instead of common thread has been patented.

—Elotow, the musical composer, was lately divorced from his sixth wife in order to marry her sister.

—Forty-five thousand dollars worth of carriages were made in the Maine Penitentiary last year.

—In 1852 Wisconsin did voting to the extent of [illegible]; now she votes 193,642.

—Stockholm is said to dispute the palm of immorality with Paris and Chicago.

—Last year the damage done to the crops in France, by insects, exceeded $105,000,000.

DR. JOHNSTON,

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL,

OFFICE, No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,

THE ONLY PHYSICIAN ADVERTISING

Has discovered the most Certain, Speedy and Effectual Remedy in the world for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Relief in Six Hours! No Typhus! Private Matter by Ignorant Pretenders, Or that Dreadful Poison, Mercury, should apply Immediately.

A CURE WARRANTED OR NO CHARGE, IN FROM ONE TO TWO DAYS.

Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Weakness, Weakness in the Back and Limbs, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those Terrible Diseases arising from the solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates, with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

These are some of the sad melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

MARRIAGE.

Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., should apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCY, IMPEDIMENT TO MARRIAGE.

By Dr. Johnston's marvellous treatment, weakness of the organs is speedily cured and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous, debilitated and impotent, who had lost all hopes, have been immediately relieved.

All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Trembling and Weakness, or exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

DR. JOHNSTON,

OFFICE, No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET, Left-hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe the name and number.

Letters must be paid and contain a stamp. The Doctor's Diploma hangs in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the reporters of the "Sun," "Clipper," and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
