МОЙДАХ, ЈАЙИАВХ 11, 1869 TELLING TALES OUT OF SCHOOL. Our Radical cotemporary, Col. Fitzgerald, of the Philadelphia City Item, continues to "tell tales out of school" in a manner very mortifying to his fellow-Radicals. He speaks follows: THE NEXT GOVERNORSHIP.

of the renomination of Governor Geary as made—to forestall the regular action of the nine. But even in this contest the great goRepublican party in the selection of a candinhead principle of Yankeedom has already data for Gubernatorial honors. The small and displayed itself, until instead of copying from weak faction that has possession of the Execulive Chamber at Harrisburg, has been working desperately to secure a renewal of its lease of power. All that begging letters and persistent personal appeals could do, has been done, and, as a certain means of forestalling opposi-tion, the Governor and his satellites have de-termined, if possible, to have the Convention called at an early date—in March, if it can be arranged-before an organization is arrayed mot, and this is the opinion of our most saga-clous and best informed politicians. For proof, walk in Chestnut street, any fine day, and ninety out of every hundred Republicans you meet will tell you they are opposed to his re-nomination. The country people to be found daily at our hotels tell the same story of want of confidence in Genry and his surroundings.

Geary, we know, professes to be an advanced Republican—he says he is for the suffrage to all men, whether white or black—but, can he be trusted, he who has so often been found wanting in principle, whose tone was never high, who employed newspaper correspondents during the war to write of his valor, who had then the contempt of the brave and honest in his command, as he has now of the pure and disinterested in the Republican organization. With a standard bearer so ignorant and pompous' and corrupt, we shall fail signally, and this will be construed into a distrust, or disapproval, of the policy of General Grant. Now, who will take the responsibility of arraying the great State of Pennsylvania in opposition to the administration on important questions that may arise during General Grant's term?

Such language as the above may do for the Oily Rem, but if uttered by a Domocratic journal it would be disloyal and treasonable in the extreme, and would be almost certain to cause a grand rising of "the spirits of '61." We have heard much of "the harmony of the Republican party," but from present appearances there must be some very lively family quarrels in that "loil" organization.

MONEY WANTED.

We are informed that the conferees of the Nationalunionrepublicanparty in this city attempted to hold a meeting at the League Room on Saturday evening, but they found the door locked and the room unlighted. To the great disgrace of the loil men of Reading, the Radical treasury had been permitted to become eptirely empty, (as the city treasury will be if the radicals obtain control of the municipal government,) and the wire-pullers were denied admittance until one of their leaders had made himself personally responsible for the rent of the room. No wonder the Radicals want to get their hands into the city treasury. Their private fund has run out, and they must have money. This explains their anxiety to carry the city election. Let the tax-payers make note of the fact, and keep these leeches out of Ax undivided one half interest in the offices of the Lycoming Standard and Williamsport Daily Standard and Job Department is offered for sale on reasonable terms, on account of the declining health of the senior partner, Col. Levi L. Tate: The Standard is the official organ of the Democracy of Lycoming county. Possession will be given at once, if desired. Both these papers have a good reputation, and no doubt will do well in the hands of enterprising and able men, as they have done under the good management of the present firm. We regret the proposed withdrawnl of our able fellow-laborer, the veteran Col, Tate, from the editorial ranks, and wish him restored health and future prosperity.

TAXATION is like a ball rolling down stairs. It bumps upon all, but finally rests upon the lowest step. The nearly sixteen hundred millions of dollars collected from the people of this country during the last three years, have mainly been collected from the pockets of mechanics, farmers and laborers. "Let us have

Hon. John Scott, Simon Cameron's candidate for U. S. Senator, was an active Democratic politician up to 1863. When the Radicals want a man with brains, they always select one who has been a Democrat. Why is it? Have they no men fit for office among their own

"OLD JOHN BURNS, the hero of Gettysburg," who was assistant doorkeeper of the Ponnsyl vania Senate last session, has been left out in the vold, and a new man appointed. How the "Republicans love those who fought for the Union"-before election day!

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald charges that an alleged spurious railroad company has obtained $6,000,000 and an enormous amount of land by grants from Congress, and that two distinct corporations are claiming the subsidies granted to the castern division of the Union Pacific Railroad.

The recent decision that the marriages of certain parties in Alabama were illegal because the ceremony was performed by a disloyal (a term applied by radicals to any one who believes in the existence of a Supreme Being and a future-condition of rewards and punishmonts) Justice, gave the Czar a precedent for the first of the above measures, while the recent speech of "Honest John Covode," in the House of Representatives, shows that we are not behindhand in our opposition to religious tolération.

How sad must be the feelings of every true American when he remembers that we dare not, as a nation, express sympathy for the oppressed countrymen of Kosciusko and Pulaski! The American republic has indeed fallon, when the body before which Henry Clay declared the noble sentiment, "I have no commiseration for princes, my sympathies are reserved for the great mass of mankind," has become a school of instruction for foreign tyrants.
