

INVESTIGATIONS.

In the course of his Duties as Chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, the Secretary of State has cause why he repeats his former statement that no vessel, or vessel of any kind, has appealed to him, so far as he is concerned.

The Secretary of the Interior, in a communication to the Senate on Friday, recommended an appropriation of $17,120, in accordance with Treaty stipulations, to pay for lands, &c., of the Sioux for Indians; also $50,000 for the Otoe Indians.

A correspondent of a Cincinnati paper says that Artemus Ward sent $30,000 in American money when he was in London, and that his performances realized large sums all the time he was there. What has become of the money in the question?

Two thousand women, wives, etc., of the British of Sevres, lately set upon their charwoman, who was keeping the tub strictly, and beat him most unmercifully.

An injunction has been granted at the instance of W. S. C. Otis, Attorney of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, restraining the new Directors of that line from doing anything with the road.

A sleeping car was thrown down an embankment on the P. & L. Railroad, near Pittsburgh, on Tuesday morning. Three persons were killed, and four others seriously injured.

Another Galloper of 1500 boarding hours in Washington, was discovered on Sunday in the act of robbing a tea store on his premises. He soon after committed suicide with arsenic.

In Philadelphia soap-making is carried on by the burning gas from wells, at the depth of a few hundred feet, the constant stream of flames being made available for heating the kettle.

Frederick W., a son of Joseph Espenshade of Renovo, formerly a resident of Williamsport, died from the effects of poison administered to a servant girl.

Judge Polham, of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, Alabama, has decided that the Alabama State Government is illegal. The Judge in aid to be a Republican.

A bear, weighing 100 pounds, was killed on Shady Mountain, in Washington county, Luzerne county, by Charles Rough, and his father and brother.

A young woman, subject to epilepsy, in Kappa, Illinois the other day, fell across a hot stove, and no one being near, she literally roasted to death.

The Georgia Legislature met yesterday. It is proposed to submit the decision of the eligibility of colored members to the Supreme Court.

A little son of Peter Hartman, about four years old, was drowned in the mill-dam at Wilson mill, in Milford township, Juniata county.

About 100 officers of State Courts in Virginia have been removed within three weeks, in pursuance of the Fourteenth Amendment.

A servant girl at Salem, Mass., was sent to the store for some caps, but forgetting the name, called for a "bottle of frolics."

Earl Spencer was sworn in as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland on the 23d ultimo. He will soon make his public entry into Dublin.

A church is to be built in Detroit, Mich., for the use of colored Catholics, of whom the city contains many.

There is a revival in the New Hampshire State prison. Very extensive, too; all the inmates are under conviction.

The Peruvian monitors and their coauthors sailed from the mouth of the Mississippi on Tuesday, for the Pacific.

T. S. Arthur, the well known writer, is about 60 years old. He was remarkable as a very dull boy.

The Slavonian cotton case in New York, involving $1,000,000, was decided against the Government.

A Vermont genius wrote to the Postmaster at Lowell, to know "who kept the factory there?"

The New York Express says the Hebrews are the chief owners of real estate in New York.

Wm. M. Stewart was re-elected, U. S. Senator by the Nevada Legislature, on Monday.

A school has been established in the California State Prison for the benefit of the colored children.

During the reign of Louis XVI., three thousand porches were actually broken on the wheels.

Washington is known as the "city of mingling distances and moon boarding houses."

The Hartford Courant says there are about fifty strictly professional gamblers in that city.

A Boston deacon acknowledges that he abstracted over $1,000 from the church plate.

A popular organist in New York gets $100 for performing at fashionable weddings.

Boston is afflicted with rowdies, who reign supreme in some sections of the city.

Dixie Woman's Ranch is the name of a prospective metropolis in Colorado.

The Detroit river created a sensation by running up stream the other day.

The President of the Texas Constitutional Convention is paid $10 a day.

A colored man has been drawn on a jury in Wayne county, New York.

Some one in San Francisco has invented an "earthquake proof chimney."

The best beef can be bought in Alabama for ten cents a pound.

Terrible storms at sea are now regarded by all arriving vessels.

In the United States, there are 67,000 churches.

GENERAL DEALERS IN

MACHINISTS' BRASS FOUNDRERS
AND
GENERAL DEALERS IN
Machinists' and Manufacturers' Supplies
No. 47 and 49 Franklin Street,
READING, PA.

JOSEPH REBHOLTZ,

NO. 710, PENN STREET,
READING, PA.

BEST BEEF.

Two thousand women, wives, etc., of the British of Sevres, lately set upon their charwoman, who was keeping the tub strictly, and beat him most unmercifully.

An injunction has been granted at the instance of W. S. C. Otis, Attorney of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, restraining the new Directors of that line from doing anything with the road.

A sleeping car was thrown down an embankment on the P. & L. Railroad, near Pittsburgh, on Tuesday morning. Three persons were killed, and four others seriously injured.

Another Galloper of 1500 boarding hours in Washington, was discovered on Sunday in the act of robbing a tea store on his premises. He soon after committed suicide with arsenic.

In Philadelphia soap-making is carried on by the burning gas from wells, at the depth of a few hundred feet, the constant stream of flames being made available for heating the kettle.

Frederick W., a son of Joseph Espenshade of Renovo, formerly a resident of Williamsport, died from the effects of poison administered to a servant girl.

Judge Polham, of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, Alabama, has decided that the Alabama State Government is illegal. The Judge in aid to be a Republican.

A bear, weighing 100 pounds, was killed on Shady Mountain, in Washington county, Luzerne county, by Charles Rough, and his father and brother.

A young woman, subject to epilepsy, in Kappa, Illinois the other day, fell across a hot stove, and no one being near, she literally roasted to death.

The Georgia Legislature met yesterday. It is proposed to submit the decision of the eligibility of colored members to the Supreme Court.

A little son of Peter Hartman, about four years old, was drowned in the mill-dam at Wilson mill, in Milford township, Juniata county.

About 100 officers of State Courts in Virginia have been removed within three weeks, in pursuance of the Fourteenth Amendment.

A servant girl at Salem, Mass., was sent to the store for some caps, but forgetting the name, called for a "bottle of frolics."

Earl Spencer was sworn in as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland on the 23d ultimo. He will soon make his public entry into Dublin.

A church is to be built in Detroit, Mich., for the use of colored Catholics, of whom the city contains many.

There is a revival in the New Hampshire State prison. Very extensive, too; all the inmates are under conviction.

The Peruvian monitors and their coauthors sailed from the mouth of the Mississippi on Tuesday, for the Pacific.

T. S. Arthur, the well known writer, is about 60 years old. He was remarkable as a very dull boy.

The Slavonian cotton case in New York, involving $1,000,000, was decided against the Government.

A Vermont genius wrote to the Postmaster at Lowell, to know "who kept the factory there?"

The New York Express says the Hebrews are the chief owners of real estate in New York.

Wm. M. Stewart was re-elected, U. S. Senator by the Nevada Legislature, on Monday.

A colored man has been established in the California State Prison for the benefit of the colored children.

During the reign of Louis XVI., three thousand porches were actually broken on the wheels.

Washington is known as the "city of mingling distances and moon boarding houses."

The Hartford Courant says there are about fifty strictly professional gamblers in that city.

A Boston deacon acknowledges that he abstracted over $1,000 from the church plate.

A popular organist in New York gets $100 for performing at fashionable weddings.

Boston is afflicted with rowdies, who reign supreme in some sections of the city.

Dixie Woman's Ranch is the name of a prospective metropolis in Colorado.

The Detroit river created a sensation by running up stream the other day.

The President of the Texas Constitutional Convention is paid $10 a day.

A colored man has been drawn on a jury in Wayne county, New York.

Some one in San Francisco has invented an "earthquake proof chimney."

The best beef can be bought in Alabama for ten cents a pound.

Terrible storms at sea are now regarded by all arriving vessels.

In the United States, there are 67,000 churches.

GENERAL DEALERS IN

MACHINISTS' BRASS FOUNDRERS
AND
GENERAL DEALERS IN
Machinists' and Manufacturers' Supplies
No. 47 and 49 Franklin Street,
READING, PA.

JOSEPH REBHOLTZ,

NO. 710, PENN STREET,
READING, PA.

BEST BEEF.

Two thousand women, wives, etc., of the British of Sevres, lately set upon their charwoman, who was keeping the tub strictly, and beat him most unmercifully.

An injunction has been granted at the instance of W. S. C. Otis, Attorney of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, restraining the new Directors of that line from doing anything with the road.

A sleeping car was thrown down an embankment on the P. & L. Railroad, near Pittsburgh, on Tuesday morning. Three persons were killed, and four others seriously injured.

Another Galloper of 1500 boarding hours in Washington, was discovered on Sunday in the act of robbing a tea store on his premises. He soon after committed suicide with arsenic.

In Philadelphia soap-making is carried on by the burning gas from wells, at the depth of a few hundred feet, the constant stream of flames being made available for heating the kettle.

Frederick W., a son of Joseph Espenshade of Renovo, formerly a resident of Williamsport, died from the effects of poison administered to a servant girl.

Judge Polham, of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, Alabama, has decided that the Alabama State Government is illegal. The Judge in aid to be a Republican.

A bear, weighing 100 pounds, was killed on Shady Mountain, in Washington county, Luzerne county, by Charles Rough, and his father and brother.

A young woman, subject to epilepsy, in Kappa, Illinois the other day, fell across a hot stove, and no one being near, she literally roasted to death.

The Georgia Legislature met yesterday. It is proposed to submit the decision of the eligibility of colored members to the Supreme Court.

A little son of Peter Hartman, about four years old, was drowned in the mill-dam at Wilson mill, in Milford township, Juniata county.

About 100 officers of State Courts in Virginia have been removed within three weeks, in pursuance of the Fourteenth Amendment.

A servant girl at Salem, Mass., was sent to the store for some caps, but forgetting the name, called for a "bottle of frolics."

Earl Spencer was sworn in as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland on the 23d ultimo. He will soon make his public entry into Dublin.

A church is to be built in Detroit, Mich., for the use of colored Catholics, of whom the city contains many.

There is a revival in the New Hampshire State prison. Very extensive, too; all the inmates are under conviction.

The Peruvian monitors and their coauthors sailed from the mouth of the Mississippi on Tuesday, for the Pacific.

T. S. Arthur, the well known writer, is about 60 years old. He was remarkable as a very dull boy.

The Slavonian cotton case in New York, involving $1,000,000, was decided against the Government.

A Vermont genius wrote to the Postmaster at Lowell, to know "who kept the factory there?"

The New York Express says the Hebrews are the chief owners of real estate in New York.

Wm. M. Stewart was re-elected, U. S. Senator by the Nevada Legislature, on Monday.

A colored man has been established in the California State Prison for the benefit of the colored children.

During the reign of Louis XVI., three thousand porches were actually broken on the wheels.

Washington is known as the "city of mingling distances and moon boarding houses."

The Hartford Courant says there are about fifty strictly professional gamblers in that city.

A Boston deacon acknowledges that he abstracted over $1,000 from the church plate.

A popular organist in New York gets $100 for performing at fashionable weddings.

Boston is afflicted with rowdies, who reign supreme in some sections of the city.

Dixie Woman's Ranch is the name of a prospective metropolis in Colorado.

The Detroit river created a sensation by running up stream the other day.

The President of the Texas Constitutional Convention is paid $10 a day.

A colored man has been drawn on a jury in Wayne county, New York.

Some one in San Francisco has invented an "earthquake proof chimney."

The best beef can be bought in Alabama for ten cents a pound.

Terrible storms at sea are now regarded by all arriving vessels.

In the United States, there are 67,000 churches.

GENERAL DEALERS IN

MACHINISTS' BRASS FOUNDRERS
AND
GENERAL DEALERS IN
Machinists' and Manufacturers' Supplies
No. 47 and 49 Franklin Street,
READING, PA.

JOSEPH REBHOLTZ,

NO. 710, PENN STREET,
READING, PA.

BEST BEEF.

Two thousand women, wives, etc., of the British of Sevres, lately set upon their charwoman, who was keeping the tub strictly, and beat him most unmercifully.

An injunction has been granted at the instance of W. S. C. Otis, Attorney of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, restraining the new Directors of that line from doing anything with the road.

A sleeping car was thrown down an embankment on the P. & L. Railroad, near Pittsburgh, on Tuesday morning. Three persons were killed, and four others seriously injured.

Another Galloper of 1500 boarding hours in Washington, was discovered on Sunday in the act of robbing a tea store on his premises. He soon after committed suicide with arsenic.

In Philadelphia soap-making is carried on by the burning gas from wells, at the depth of a few hundred feet, the constant stream of flames being made available for heating the kettle.

Frederick W., a son of Joseph Espenshade of Renovo, formerly a resident of Williamsport, died from the effects of poison administered to a servant girl.

Judge Polham, of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, Alabama, has decided that the Alabama State Government is illegal. The Judge in aid to be a Republican