OUR CITY TICKET.

The City ticket nominated last evening by the Democratic Conferees cannot fail to give the highest satisfaction to every Democrat in the city, and we feel confident that the nominees will be cheerfully supported by many Republicans also.

The renomination of Hon. Wm. H. Gernand for Mayor will give general satisfaction. By the modest and unassuming, but firm and impartial manner in which he has heretofore discharged the sometimes delicate duties of his office, he has won the confidence and esteem of every good citizen of Reading, and we feel assured that no more acceptable nomination could have been made.

Hon. Wm. Heidenreich, who has been renominated for City Treasurer, stands high in the estimation of all good citizens, who respect him as a model citizen and an exemplary and conscientious official, in all respects. His excellent administration of the financial affairs of the city is too well known to require repetition, and no one will gainsay the fact that a better man could not have been chosen for the position.

The name of Dr. W. Murray Weidman for City Auditor, is a tower of strength to the ticket. Dr. Weidman is universally and deservedly popular. He stands in the front rank of his profession, and is well known and respected as a good citizen, a courteous gentleman, and a gallant soldier. His military record, as Surgeon of that famous regiment, the Second Penna. Cavalry, is without a stain, and his record as a professional man and a citizen is equally honorable.

In short, our whole ticket, which we publish in full to-day, is one well worthy of the support of all unprejudiced voters, without distinction of party, and we feel assured that it will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

ONLY WHITE WOMEN!

The press despatches from Marion, Arkansas, announce that "on Friday night, three daughters of a white widow woman at that place were outrageously assaulted by nine militiamen!" This is not the first instance of the kind in Arkansas within the past few weeks, but as the victims were only white women, the Radical press has no comments to make. Had three buck niggers been caught and flogged by the Ku Klux for stealing cattle, the whole Radical press would have taken up the howl of indignation, and echoed it from one end of the so-called Union to the other. These militiamen, however, are "loyal" negroes armed and equipped by the "loyal" Governor Clayton, and therefore they are held blameless by Northern Radicals. The blacks are not uniformed, and hence cannot readily be distinguished from the plantation negroes, who leave the fields in large numbers to join them. Already these sooty ruffians have shot several white men and outraged several white women, and yet they are sustained by the Radicals in Congress.

Who is to blame for this terrible state of affairs in the Southern States? There is but one answer. Every man who voted the Republican ticket at the last election is directly responsible for the crimes committed by the "loyal" black ruffians, for every man who voted the Republican ticket voted in favor of the Radical policy of reconstruction, which means negro suffrage and negro equality in the North, and negro superiority in the South. How much longer will the Northern people endorse murder, rapine and misery upon the helpless women, men, women and children of the South, by endorsing through the ballot-box the acts of their cowardly and cruel oppressors? How long, Oh, Lord, how long?

"THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S REPORT."

The following letter from the Adjutant General of Pennsylvania, was written in reply to an editorial article which appeared in the DAILY EAGLE of the 18th inst., headed "The Adjutant General's Report." As we have no desire to do injustice or to prevent any one from being heard in his own defence, we cheerfully give it a place in our columns:

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 18th, 1869.

EDITOR READING EAGLE:—Your paper of the 13th inst., contains an article on the Adjutant General's Report for 1868, which, although I presume not intended, is calculated to do this Department injustice. Every letter that has been received by the Governor or this office from your county relative to military organizations has received the prompt an answer as the nature of the case would admit. I might probably except one, which was received during last month, and being mixed with some other papers, was not answered until a few days ago. It referred, however, to some minor matters, and the late answer in no way retarded the formation of any military Company. Berks county always has and always will receive precisely the same aid and encouragement from this Department that any other county receives. Luzerne, York and other Democratic counties have exhibited praiseworthy energy in the formation of military companies, and I have heard no complaint that they have been neglected by the Governor or this Department.

As to the "footing up" of the ordnance, if you will examine you will find that the "total" is given opposite to each item, but the items, all differing from each other cannot of course be added together, any more than a farmer could add so many bushels of oats to a like number of bushels of wheat. As to the "total" of enrolled militia, it was impossible to give that, as I had not received the total from the State, and did not deem it satisfactory to give a part. In addition to this, I received returns from several counties after the Report had gone to press, even after the proof had been read, and although they were inserted, it was not advisable to be continually changing the aggregate. Yours truly,

D. B. McCREARY, Adj. Gen'l Pa.

HENRY DIEHM, Esq., of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, has our thanks for important political documents.

Letter from Washington.

WASHINGTON, January 16, 1869.

The proceedings in Congress this week, although not specially important, present several points of general interest. The repeal, by a large majority in the House, of the unconstitutional Tenure-of-Office law, by the decisive vote of 121 to 47, was a confession on the part of the Radical majority, of the purely partizan animus of their assaults upon the independence of the Executive branch of the Government during the past two years, which no party founded upon principle and guided by consistency, could ever have been called upon to make. In their eagerness to propitiate Gen. Grant, they have stultified themselves by an endorsement of the views so ably set forth by President Johnson in his veto of this pernicious measure. It is worthy of remark, however, that such prominent Radicals as Farnsworth, Thaddeus Stevens, Maynard, Poland, Schenck, Shellabarger and others, opposed its repeal, which proves one of two things either that they prefer consistency in error to an admission that they were wrong, or that they have not sufficient confidence in Grant to trust him with the constitutional exercise of the appointing power. The course of the Democratic members upon this question, was a plain one to pursue. As their original opposition to it was a matter of principle solely, they voted unanimously for its repeal, and so maintained the harmony of their record. The Senate has yet to act upon the bill, and, so far, seems to be in no haste to follow the lead of the House. The extraordinary powers which this Tenure-of-Office law confers, have been in active exercise too long to be surrendered "at discretion" by a body constituted as the United States Senate now is. If the disposition of the extreme Radical element in the Senate may be taken as indicative of its action, the bill introduced by Wilson, of Massachusetts, to modify the law so as to allow the President to appoint and remove his Cabinet officers at pleasure, is the only concession that the courtiers who are already in the act of crooking the supple hinges of the knee to Grant, that thrift may follow fawning, can safely anticipate from the North wing of the Capitol, at least before the inauguration.

Gen. Banks's resolution, extending the protection of the United States to the negro republics of Hayti and San Domingo, came before the House on Tuesday, and gave rise to an interesting debate upon the foreign policy of our Government. Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania, made an able argument against the measure, as a dangerous step toward departure from the safe and settled rule of non-intervention in the affairs of foreign nations; and it was finally, upon his motion, laid on the table by a vote of 126 to 36. Four Democrats—Chanler, of N. Y., Hotchkiss, of Conn., Sitgreaves, of N. J., and Young, of Ky.—voted against Mr. Woodward's motion. Ashley's bill to establish a territorial government for Alaska, met the same fate, and was tabled by a vote of 105 to 26. One of the big international improvement jobs, which has been before Congress for several years—I mean, an appropriation of twelve millions for the construction of a Ship Canal around the Falls of Niagara, also received its quietus on Friday, after two days' debate, by its reference to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union (a sort of Congressional prison-pen to which bills are sent that members are unwilling to slaughter outright, but at the same time don't want to pass—"just yet"). The vote upon reference stood, 81 yeas to 69 nays. All the Democrats, except Messrs. Ross, of Ill., and Mungen, of Ohio, voted aye. In the above three instances, at least, if in no others, the House has rendered the country no small service by practising the parliamentary legerdemain of "how not to do it."

About one half the time of the Senate, since the holiday recess, has been spent in discussing a bill to reimburse Miss Sue Murphy, a "trooly loil" lady of Alabama, for property taken and destroyed by the Federal troops during the war. Miss M[illegible] upon the constitutional provision that property shall not be taken for public use without compensation, and as her claim to justice is admitted, on principle, it is urged upon the ground that it allowed, it would set up a precedent for the payment of innumerable claims of a similar character, the payment of which would bankrupt the treasury. The debate was closed on Friday, by a recommittal of the bill to the Committee on Claims, where, of course it will sleep during the remainder of the session. The most formidable opposition to it came from Sumner and Radical Senators of the same type. Southern "loyalty" during the war is no merit in the eyes of these gentlemen. Only those, who have turned up intensely loyal (that is, Radical shriekers for Grant and Colfax) since the war, can claim favor or reward from the powers that be.

John Covode's resolution, to allow the rotunda of the Capitol to be used as a ball-room on the 4th of March, for the accommodation of the gay and festive Washingtonians who wish to

"Dance all night till broad day-light,
And go home with the girls in the morning,"

in honor of the inauguration of Grant, which passed the House a few days ago, came to grief quite unexpectedly in the Senate last Wednesday. Such "potent, grave and reverend seniors" as Cameron, Yates, Wilson and Morton, whose dancing days are over, pitched into the resolution as an intended desecration of the sacred precincts of the Capitol, little short of outrage upon the moral and religious sense of the community. They contended that a Ball without "refreshments" of the liquid sort, would be a dry affair, and that the idea of permitting a bar to be set up anywhere beneath the majestic dome of that building was "most intolerable and not to be endured." After a spicy debate, lacking only the humor to make it worthy of record among the deliberations of the Pickwick Club, the resolution was rejected by a vote of 28 yeas to 31 nays. It has been the practice, heretofore, with the friends of the incoming President, to erect a temporary frame building for their Inauguration Balls. But the funds of the Loyal Leagues and G. A. R.'s having been exhausted during the late Presidential campaign, they were obliged to appeal to Congress to help them out of the scrape. Grant says, "let us have peace," but the dancing dervishes who "Rah for Grant, don't want to give up their Dawk.

From present indications, it is evident that the work of the Fortieth Congress is nearly at an end. Beyond the passage of the necessary Appropriation Bills, nothing of importance will be done during the few remaining weeks of the session. Tax bills, Tariff bills, and kindred measures affecting the finances and revenues, will all be passed over, to be settled by the new Congress, after Grant's policy shall have been proclaimed. What that policy will be, nobody knows. It would be well for the people if I could add, nobody cares.

HERALD.

TRAGEDY AT MONTGOMERY, TEXAS.—Four Men Killed.—The Galveston News of the 6th instant says:

"We learn from a gentleman who resides a few miles from the town of Montgomery, in this State, that a bloody tragedy occurred in that place last week. Four men were killed, and the town for a while presented the appearance of a battle-field on a small scale. The circumstances, as near as we could gather them from a hasty conversation, are as follows: A desperado, whose name we did not learn, recently appeared in Montgomery, and in a short time made himself odious to the citizens by his quarrelsome disposition. He gathered around him, however, several friends, who it proves, lost their lives in endeavoring to stand by him in his difficulties. This desperado was also suspected of passing counterfeit money, and of having been a horse thief.

"On the day of the tragedy he rode his horse into the store of Messrs. Smith & Peal, and on being ordered out he drew his pistol, but before he could fire it he was fired upon by Mr. Smith or Peal with a double-barrel shotgun. Although badly wounded, he ran out into the street, and by some fatality met a party of citizens who were hunting him for the purpose of arresting him for passing counterfeit money. He ran in another direction, when some one in the party fired upon him, and he fell. A Mr. Oliver, and two brothers, named McGrew (who, it seems were in the habit of associating with the desperado), ran up to his rescue, with pistols drawn, when they were fired upon by the crowd, and all three killed."

THE Democratic Mayor of Philadelphia, Mr. Fox, has appointed a Republican, General Mulholland, to be Chief of Police.

BEAUTIFUL STEEL ENGRAVINGS.—The great interest manifested by the American people in works of Art (especially those of a scriptural character) is a remarkable feature of the age, and a well deserved acknowledgment of their ennobling and purifying influences upon society. Mr. Levi Melly is now canvassing this city, for two of the most elegant productions of that kind. After Sartain's grand picture from Rembrandt's great painting of "CHRIST REJECTED," entitled "CHRIST BEFORE THE PEOPLE," and the companion picture to it, entitled "CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE." These two Steel Engravings are companion pictures, and are among the finest and most ornamental of Sartain's many superior works, and the subjects are such as to make them desirable pieces on the wall of any family parlor, especially where there are children. They are perpetual lessons speaking to the heart through the imagination, and such should be purchased and prized by every parent. Mr. Melly is also agent for two other large and superb engravings executed by the same master artist, Sartain—"CHRIST REJECTED," from a colossal and gorgeous painting of the celebrated Benjamin West, and "CHRIST STILLING THE TEMPEST," from a large and splendid painting of Washington Allston, the greatest artist in the United States. The subjects of all these several admirable engravings are highly instructive and impressive and of universal and lasting interest. As works of Art, they are decidedly superior, among the very best of American productions, and will bear the most careful examination. The influence of such works must be salutary in cultivating our aesthetic nature, in refining the character and elevating our thoughts. They are deserving of a place in every family. The agent will call upon our citizens, and will be pleased to exhibit these works. These engravings must be seen to be appreciated. jan 18-3td

LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic Mixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have a prejudice to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most delicate.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, Pancreas, and other glands connected with it, also become affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking of Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and dispensed more health and happiness among mankind, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, Induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetites.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but as we will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

Hon. James Thompson,

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a close proof in various instances and particularly in my own family of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Late Pastor of the Baptist Church, Lancaster, Pa.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from a derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly,
E. D. FENDALL.
