Communications intended for "Municipalities" in the Habits of the people, and especially by responsible name, as a guarantee of sincerity or the part of the writer. The name will not be published unless so desired by the correspondent.

Correspondents should make their communications short to the point. Our space is too limited for very long articles.

Written only on one side of the paper, and as far as possible, without flourishes.

D. L.—Meet Third, 7½, headquarters 21.

Roxbury's GRADUATE PARTY at Roxbury, will have a Grand Ballroom, on Saturday evening next, at the house of Charles Wilmar (formerly Gechter).

Mr. LEVI MILLS is here canvassing for a series of the most insignificant Stone Engravings published in this country. See advertisement on second page.

We HOPE now.—We hear it rumor that Messrs. E. & G. Brooks, proprietors of the Iron Works, Philadelphia, intend reducing the wages of their large number of employees, and raising their rents from $1 to $5 per year. We hope the rumor is false.

For chapped hands use Macedonian Oil.

The students of Mount Pleasant Seminary at Boyertown, Berks county, will give a literary entertainment on Saturday evening next, Jan. 24th. An interesting programme of Elk croches has been prepared for the occasion, consisting of original and selected Odes, Dialogues, Recitations, Vocal and Instrumental Music, &c. The Boyertown Cornet Band will be present.

READING INSURANCE COMPANY.—The following gentlemen were on yesterday elected Directors of the Reading Fire Insurance Company: Jonas Shattock, J. T. Jackson, J. T. Valentine, F. Pringle Jones, David E. Stott, Jacob Schaffner, James McKnight, George Rehner, G. A. Nichols, Hiram Glynn, George B. Eckert, Lewis Horner, &c.

WILMINGTON AND HARRISBURG RAILROAD.—It appears to be settled that the above road will make its connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad, in this Borough, at the West of Chestnut street, notwithstanding the opposition of the property holders to it. It is expected that they will commence laying the track on this connection next month, and the road will be put in operation between Harrisburg and Laurel soon as possible.—Codorus, U.S.A.

CODORUS.—A little boy, son of John Meyer of Windsor, was severely burned last evening by his clothes taking fire, while playing near the fire. The mother, a negro woman, had stopped into the yard to shake the table cloth, when she heard the child scream, and running to ascertain the cause, found the child a coal in the oven. With great presence of mind she drew the coal from over the child, and then snuffed it up.

A GRAND BALL, in aid of the Lyceum Monument Fund, will be given by the Fire Department of Philadelphia, at the Academy of Music, in that city, on the evening of February 10th. The list of managers embrace the names of prominent men throughout the country. Those from Reading are ex-Chief Engineer David A. Stott, Chief Engineer John A. Buch, Assistant Engineer Adals Frees, and Mr. Amos Dayhauer, President of Liberty Steam Engine Company, No. 5.

LAST evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, a pocket book containing $60, was left upon the counter of Strickland & Bro., bookellers. The owner left the store, and a lady picking up the pocket book asked Mr. Strickland whose it was. "Not one at that time claimed it. In a few minutes a person called and claimed the pocket book and the money." It was given to him. He was not the owner. Any person giving information that will lead to the person's detection will be liberally rewarded. Apply to this office.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—On Saturday night, between 11 and 12 o'clock, as Mr. Thimber, residing at the corner of Tenth and Franklin streets, was returning home, he was attacked at the corner of Tenth and Walnut by three Indians and knocked down. He jumped up and knocked two of them down, and when the third knocked him down and cut his coat and pocket, but did not get anything. The robber then followed him to his house, where he procured some assistance and gave chase to them, but without capturing any of the party.

A countryman on Saturday asked his sober neighbor if radio, wore horse tails at the corners of his nose. The gentleman queried as to a desert in which he lived, in New England, where women folks wear fobs at the corners of their noses. He did not previously understand that ladies took such care to look and let them descend in the course of the Anchors port or the Peacock's tail, over their shapely shoulders. When our reporter explained to him, as a violet-eyed girl was passing, the simplicity of the decoration, he enthusiastically ejaculated, "Bully! I let 'em wave." Our ample and plaus response was "Amen."—Say's Guard.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.—On Monday last, Jas. B. Holly, Esq., who pursued his legal studies in the office of Hon. F. W. Hughes, was admitted to practice in the several courts of Schuylkill county. Mr. Holly has been a close and attentive student, passed a very creditable examination, and we doubt not will, in a few months, be a high rank in the profession. We commend him to all people who wish to see his success, and upon the completion of his education, of his by our contemporary Standard. May he meet with the success he deserves, in which case he will soon be on the high road to fame and fortune!

AMITYVILLE, Jan. 17, 1860.

BURR EAGLE.—The Works County Agricultural Society has been successful. Joseph L. Shattock, Isaac Eckert and Frederick Latour have worked very much to make it a success. Meister Latour and Eckert have both been Presidents of the Society, and nobody can say anything against them. They were obliging and good Presidents. Joseph L. Shattock has worked as much as anybody for the fair. He knows a great many country people, and is beloved by them, because he is candid and kind. I would nominate him as a candidate for the President of the Works County Agricultural Society.

He knows as much about farming and farming tools as any man in the country, and would make a good President. We hope no will take him away.

BURY MORTGAGE.—The Bury Mortg. House, situated in the Eighth Street, Philadelphia, will be sold at public sale on Saturday, the 10th of February, 1860. A man, yesterday, went from house to house and begged for clothing and bread. At one place he was seen throwing bread away. "Our people should be careful to whom they give."—A number of boys were known, bailing a man, yesterday, in Fourth street. The police should take charge of such boys.

The Marriages.—A newspaper says that it hollowed that no other city can boast of more handsome ladies than Newark. It has the editor of that paper ever been in Reading?

The young Zouaves are holding forth at Williamsport. We have lost sight of Ole Bull.—The Mohawk Minstrels are to be heard more on Saturday evening, at the Old Theatre. Minerals are advertised in Boston, N. Y.—Oranges are very plentiful at present. Boys hawk them about town.
