THIS COMPANY INSURES ALL kinds of property against loss or damage by fire at rates as low as any other reliable Company and upon every plan known to Stock Insurance Companies.
Perpetual Policies issued requiring no renewal and upon which the amount of premium paid can be reclaimed at any time, less a deduction of five per cent. The advantages of this method are worthy of the attention of farmers and others having first-class dwelling houses, barns and other buildings, in town or country, as being the cheapest and safest.
Policies for one, two, three, five or more years, or for less than one year, issued and no charge made for Policy and survey when renewed or when insurances are transferred from other companies.
The citizens of Reading and vicinity, hitherto dependent mainly upon foreign companies, have now the privilege of effecting their insurances in a home institution, well organized, with an adequate paid in and guaranteed capital, presenting as strong a basis of security as that of any other company. The advantage of doing business directly with the Company and the importance of keeping some portion of the large sums paid for insurances, in circulation at home, will be appreciated by all.

WOMAN.—FEMALES, OWING TO the peculiar and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings. Freedom from these contributes in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill. Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness and premature decline. Nor is it pleasant to consult a physician for the relief of these various delicate affections, and only upon the most urgent necessity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greatest charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be found efficacious in relieving and curing almost every one of those troublesome complaints peculiar to their sex.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU.—Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by laborious employment, unwholesome air and food, profuse menstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent childbirth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mucous membrane of the vagina itself.
When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendant evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health, and happiness of woman in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The mania that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the early confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus with the body half clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perverting in midnight revel the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.
In consequence of this early strain upon her system, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a later day, thus aggravating the evil. When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensitive to impression, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress, absolutely forbidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and retention of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of temperature; the complete prostration produced by excessive dancing, must of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At last, an early marriage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hitherto so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of medical treatment. This is but a truthful picture of the experience of thousands of our young women.
Long before the ability to exercise the functions of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system, composed of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breast and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead, long before puberty, to habits which sap the very life of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.
For Female Weakness and Debility, Whites or Leucorrhœa, Too profuse Menstruation, Exhaustion, Too Long Continued Periods, for Prolapsus and Bearing Down, or Prolapsus Uteri, we offer the most perfect specific known: HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF BUCHU. Directions for use, diet, and advice, accompany.
Females in every period of life, from infancy to extreme old age, will find it a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. Strength is the glory of manhood and womanhood. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron, infinitely safer, and more pleasant. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, having received the indorsement of the most prominent physicians in the United States, is now offered to afflicted humanity as a certain cure for the following diseases and symptoms, from whatever cause originating: General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Imbecility, Determination of Blood to the Head, Confused Ideas, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restlessness and Sleeplessness at Night, Absence of Muscular Efficiency, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, Low Spirits, Disorganization or Paralysis of the Organs of Generation, Palpatation of the Heart, and, in fact, all the concomitants of a Nervous and Debilitated state of the system. To insure the genuine, cut this out. Ask for HELMBOLD'S. Take no other. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price—$1 25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6 50, delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications. Address H. T. HELMBOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

DOVER, DELAWARE,
Feb. 5th, 1868.
THE UNDERSIGNED, RESIDING at the Capital of the State of Delaware, and the County Town of Kent county, have rare facilities for making investments of money on FIRST MORTGAGES on VALUABLE REAL ESTATE and in the purchase of First Liens of Record in the several Courts of said county.
The senior partner of the undersigned firm was Surveyor General for said county, for twenty-five years, and held official positions under the County and State, for more than ten years, and consequently became very familiar with all the public Records relating to Real Estate, and fully competent to investigate the title of any land offered as a basis for a loan. They therefore offer their services in that capacity to the Capitalists and money lenders generally of Pennsylvania, who can communicate with them by letter stating the sum desired to be invested, the length of time to be invested, and all other instructions they may desire to give them, which will be strictly conformed to if possible. The interest on all investments made by them will be promptly collected and forwarded to any point designated by the lender.

DO THE RIGHT.

Do the right, oh child of pleasure!
Let thy heart be free from stain!
Spurn from thee each selfish treasure!
Love the good, and thou shalt gain!
In the gilded haunts of beauty
Oft the demon doth invite;
Bear in mind thy noblest duty—
Shun the wrong and do the right!

Do the right, oh child of sorrow!
Never let thy hopes grow faint!
For the sunshine comes to-morrow—
Strive to be a worthy saint!
E'en though life to thee seems dreary,
And thy prospects dark as night,
Never let thy faith grow weary—
Banish wrong and do the right!

Do the right and never falter!
Never be ashamed to own
That the right thou wilt not palter!
Nor its happiness disown.
Be a good and faithful servant—
Though your station in the right
May be humble, yet, if fervent,
Thou shalt conquer with the right!

ARE WE BECOMING INDIANS?

The following article, from the pen of M. Henry Berthoud, a well known Frouch writer on popular science, which appeared in one of the French newspapers, is exciting some comment among scientific men:

"If one pays a little attention, he may find everywhere in Paris opportunities to make scientific observations. For instance, glovers make here for North America gloves of a peculiar form, and which an European hand could not wear. The fingers are made of a length which seems unreasonable to us, and which, nevertheless, barely suffices for the exigencies of a Yankee hand's conformation. This is the demonstration of a fact long since observed, and which a scientific man of Philadelphia, made the subject of a letter to M. Pruner Bey." He says: "The Anglo-American presents from the second generation characteristics of the type which is not unlike that of the Leni Lennapes, the Iroquois, and the Cherokee Indians. The glandular system shrinks to the minimum of its normal development. The skin becomes dry as leather; it loses the warmth of color and ruddiness of cheeks, and in their stead the color of mud tinctures it in men, and an insipid paleness in women. The head decreases in size and becomes round or pointed. It is covered with smooth hair of a dark color. The neck lengthens. There is a great development of the zygomatic and massoter bones. The eyes are sunken in deep cavities which are quite near each other. The iris becomes dark; the eye's expression piercing and wild. The long bones lengthen chiefly in the upper extremity. Therefore England and France make for exportation to North America, gloves especially for this market, whose fingers are unusually long. The cavities of these fingers' bones are very narrow. Finger nails are prone to take a lengthened and sharp form. The larynx is large. The voice is hoarse and shrill. Women's pelvis becomes, in its extremities, like that of the monkey's. Another scientific American adds: "The language of Americans tends more and more in its standard phrases to become like the red men's—Indians. There is, too, a growing tendency to exclude light from houses, and a growing fondness for glarish colors in clothes; tastes which are common to all savages. Let us add further, the proverbial phlegmatic character of the English gradually disappears in Yankees, and in its stead there is found an uneasy, feverish, and incessant activity, which shows itself by a constant craving to occupy the hands and by the universal habit of whittling wood. To avoid the destruction of furniture in American hotels, all their proprietors take care to provide each traveller with sticks for them to whittle at pleasure. Such is the force of this mania taht the Federal Government annually votes an appropriation of money to provide the members of Congress at Washington with sticks to whittle, in order to prevent the destruction of the seats and desks of the Capitol." These profound and prompt modifications of the Anglo-Saxon should make a deeper impression on the mind when it is considered America has been settled by this race scarcely more than two hundred years. These phenomena strengthen the opinion of those persons who insist upon man's unity of origin. Abbe Brasseur de Bourbourg asserts in his works on America, that the physical and moral characteristics of people of European origin who have made their homes in the North have become like the Iroquois, while those of the South have become like the Cherokee. He instances, among other examples, a family which has lived in Canada since its earliest colonization, which has never contracted alliance with the Aborigines; nevertheless the head of the family said to him: "We have remained Frenchmen and Normans in heart and thought, but in our features, hair, complexion, and characters we have become Hurons."
