Quirr.—Nothing new or startling worth noting has occurred to-day. Business of all kinds is rather dull—and all is quiet along our lines at this time of writing.

No FIRE.—There was no fire yesterday at the Sash Factory in Second street above Franklin, as was reported. The smokelssuing from the cellar originated from the heater.

Suspicious Characters.-A couple of suspicious-looking characters were found lurking about the Steam Flour Mill of Mr. Samuel Frees, at the foot of Penn street, about 2 o'clock this morning. Finding that they were watched, they made tracks.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT.—Mr. Thomas G. Wagner, residing in Touth street, accidentally shot himself through the hand, the other day, with a revolver. He jumped from an eminence several feet high and the weapon was discharged in his overcoat pocket, the ball passing through the hand.

THE Easton (Pa.) Express states that a woman in that place, during a fire in her house, seized what she supposed was her child and fled to the street. When the fire had been extinguished she went into the bod-room, and there, to her astonishment, found her infant innocently sleeping in its cradle; then and then only did she discover that she had been tenderly hugging a pillow.

Councils,-These bodies met on Saturday evening at their chambers and attended to the several appropriation bills. Reports from the Standing Committees, with two exceptions, were read and appropriations based upon them, presented and read. Select Council refused to concur in the appropriation to Highways and City property. The Select also passed an order stating that they would meet next Saturday evening for the transaction of unfinished busi-ness. The Common adjourned after a session of two hours, subject to a call for a special BERNVILLE.-The Bernville Literary Society debated the following questions: "Should universal suffrage be adopted?" The affirmative was discussed by Messrs. J. Missimer, Dr. W. H. Scholl and H. H. Brownmiller; the negative by Messrs. N. Dundere, G. F. Schock and Dr. J. C. Brobst. After a thorough discussion, the chair decided in favor of the negative. The house was full of spectators, and scholars were present-so the reader oun see that our people take considerable interest in educational matters.

A STORY WITH A MORAL, -When trade grew slack, and notes fell due, the merchant's face grew long and blue; his dreams were troubled through the night with sheriff's balliffs all in sight. At last his wife unto him said, "Rise up at once, get out of bed, and get your paper, ink and pen, and say these words unto all men: 'My goods I wish to sell to you, and to your wife and daughters, too, my prices are so very low, that each will buy before they go." He did as his good wife advised, and straightway went and advertised. Crowds bought off all he had; his notes were paid, his dreams were glad, and he will ell you to this day how well did printer's ink repay. He told us with a knowing wink how he was saved by printer's ink.

IN A NEW ROLE.—We have incidentally learned that a young poetical gentleman of this city will appear in a new role to-morrow evening, at the Maconnerchor Masquerade, at the Keystone Opera House. He has kindly wisented to give a rendition from one of the wist plays of Shakspeare, an author with whom he is the coughly familiar, and as our talented towns man is neither a plagiarist in his poetical effusions nor "phrase" writings, we hardly think he will copy after any one else in his dramatic representations. He is entirely original in all that he does, and there cannot be a doubt that his appearance will be looked for a doubt that his appearance will be looked for with intense eagerness by the hundreds who will be present on the interesting occasion of his debut as a tragedian. We shall be there to see for ourself, and "nothing extenuate or anoth related to the see for ourself, and "nothing extenuate or another sets down to the see for our seed of the seed of anght write down in malice."

THE MAENNERCHOR MASQUERADE to mor-ow evening will undoubtedly be the great event of the Ball season in this city. The Opera House is being elegantly festooned and de-corated for the occasion. The Committee of Arrangements have been untiring in their of-forts to make it the greatest affair of the kind, yet given by the members of this old and fa-lorite musical organization of this old and fale furnished from two opposite platforms by two full orchestras—Prof. Bocher's Gormania Orchestra, and Prof. Winter's Machaevalor Musical Corps. The cards of admission cannot be had after 5 o'clock, P. M. to-morrow. Ip to that time they can be had of Capt. Philip lissinger, 611 Penn street; W. FROM SCHUYLKILL COUNTY. -- We clip the following Schuylkill county items from the Pottsville Standard of Saturday; The following Attorneys from Schuylkill county were last week admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, namely: on motion of Franklin B. Gowen, Esq.—On Wednesday evening last a stable containing three mules and a horse, the property of the Pottsville Gap Coal Company, sunk into the ground a distance of some twenty-five or thirty feet. It appears the place had been undermined, causing the ground to sink. The liorso was saved but the mules perished.—

On Wednesday last two men were killed at Repplier's new slope, at Silver Creek. Their names were John Gross and James Burns, and both leave families. They were ascending the slope in a car, when the chain broke, and they were dashed down a distance of eighty, yards and instantly killed. The recoil of the chain when it broke caused it to wrap around the body of Burns, and he was dragged on the cross-ties in the slope and mangled so as to be scarcely recognizable. They resided at Valley Furnace. Another man was on the car at the time, but managed to jump off without sustaining any severe injuries.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—The Mayor held a Sun day levee yesterday morning, and strange to say the only case before him was that of a wo-man. Elizabeth Hurst is fair and fat, but not quite forty. Elizabeth, frailty is her name. Saturday night Elizabeth determined to have guite forty. Elizabeth, frailty is her name.
Saturday night Elizabeth determined to have things her own way, and she did have. Sunday morning, at the wee 'sma' hour of one, found Elizabeth in Franklin street between 8th and 9th. She felt "toploftical" on account of the many spirits within her. She was likewise exceedingly boisterous. Elizabeth has a tongue and a pair of lungs which naves the a tongue and a pair of lunga which never lire giving forth the elequent gushings of her heart. At times Elizabeth's gushings may appear to be of an incoherent nature, but this may after all only be in the imagination of those who have no poetry, eloquence or music in their souls. Elizabeth is strong-minded, and also strong in muscle and accomplished in the wo-manly art of self-defence. Officers Lowis and Lawrence are gallant fellows, and meeting Elizabeth at so early an hour of the morning they gallantly offered to escort her to the most comfortable of quarters. But Elizabeth strong in mind, strong in muscle, and much in the solonce of listiana, was not so easily persuaded. They exhausted their persuasive powers of cloquence on Elizabeth, and still Elizabeth remained almost as imperturbable as a statue in her position. We do not mean to say that hor tongue was so, because that was rattling away all the time. But the officers were compelled to use force to get Elizabeth to accomand several new members were elected. In Pany them. So she was strapped to the back Penn Grammar School-house, on Friday evening, Mr. Brownnuller had speiling-school; extremities to prevent the "shaking of a shout two hundred and sixty parents, teachers and scholars was a reason to the reader our nasty foot." In this condition did they arrive at the Station House, and, as we have said be-fore, yesterday morning Elizabeth appeared before the Mayor. This was not Elizabeth's first appearance in the dock, and she was sent to Castle Ganser for 30 days. There were 8 lodgers on Saturday night, and

> > THE MARKETS.

BRADING, Feb. 1, 1869. Money Market.

In Philadelphia the money market on Saturday wore a settled aspect. The supply of currency was slowly but steadily indressing the volume of surplus funde, and the ranks of the borrowers being thinned and the call for speculative purposes having fallen off, the tendency of rates is necessarily in favor of borrowers. There is a slight degree of improvement in the general walks of trade, but it is so slight as to be barely perceptible except to very close observers.

The movements in stock word of a sluggish character, and the market closed weak. The transactions in Government and State Loans were small: City Loans, new issues, sold at 100%, and the old certificates at 97.

Reading Railroad declined 1/4, and closed in 1814. Pennsylvania Railtoad sold at 5714—an ad-3. Small house and sixteen acres of land in vanco of 14, and Catawissa Bailroad Preferred at 811/4.

Rye Flour sells in small lots at 707 50. Prices of Corn Meal are nominal.

The Wheat market continues dull and unsettled, with small sales of Red at $1 60@1 80. Amber the decline noted yesterday. Sales of 1,800 bush. els new Yellow at 88c., and 600 bushels Mixed at 900. Oats are in rather better request, with sales of 4,000 bushels Westorn at 73@750, 1,000 bushels Bye Malt sold at $1 55.

Whisky is dull; small sales at 980.@100, duty

Reading Hay Market. Tun total unmber of loads of hay brought into the city by farmers last week, was 28. It was, with but few exceptions, taken at the prices below quoted. Some of it was of inferior quality, and was sold at lower figures. The greater portion of this hay is pressed and sent, in bales, to Philadelphia and New York. 11111

Coal. In 1860 the Schuylkill region was 328,693 tons ahead of the Wyoming and Luckawanna regions. It has fallen 1,576,457 tons behind in a period of nine years. The supply of anthracite and bituminous coal in 1868 was 2,443,894 tons, against $,800,633 tons in 1667,an merease of 142,711 tons—meking the total increase of all kinds, 1,836,512 tons. against 200,980 tons increase in 1887. The whole supply of coal mined in the United States in 1868 was 29,017,810 tons. This is a little over one-fourth the production of the United Kingdom of Great Britain in 1867, which was 104,500,490 tons. In 1854 the annual product of coal in the United Kingdom, was only 84,661,401 tons, an increase of 40, coo,000 tons in thirteen years. Of the supply of 15,605,016 tons of anthracite nearly if not quite, 6,00 ',(00 tons were consumed on the lines short of tide-water, and sent into the interior; and of the balance, 9,605,016 tone, not less than 7,600,000 were sent to the markets east of and in the vicinity of New York, leaving only 2,005,016 tons, the consumption of Philadelphia and all the markets south of Philadelphia.

CALCIUM LIGHT EXHIBITION.—Avery pleasing entortainment, for old and young, will be given to-morrow (Tuesday) evening in the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian church, in South Figh street, near Franklin, commencing at 7½ o'clock: The exhibition will be for the benefit of the Union Mission Sunday school: A crowded bobse and a very Sunday school; A crowded house and a very pleasant time are anticipated. All are invited. Tickets of admission for adults, 25 cents, for children, 15 cents; to be had at Dr. McCurdy's Drug Store, and at the door.

Some feet wending their way to the Sunday the accomplice in the robbery placed his arm comes in slowly, and the market is dull at school. The title of "nursery of the church" is not inappropriately applied. Here is where the tender mind is stored with truths that, the tender ining is stored with truths that, though they may be temporarily forgotten, will never lose their impression. The milk of the Word is here imparted and preparation made for a useful place in the church. Many who are now filling important positions in the Christian world can revert with inexpressible gladness to the Sunday school, where they received their early instruction. It should be recognized by all as a stepping stone to spiritual greatness, and its benefits should always be held up to the youthful and susceptible mind.

> COURT PROCEEDINGS. REPORTED BY LOUIS BIOHARDS, ATTORNST AT LAW, 530 COURT STREET.

THIRTEENTH DAY-MONDAY. The second week of Common Pleas commenced this morning at 11 o'clock. Thirty. eight cases are open upon the List for disposi-tion during the week. This is an unusually large number to be tried within that period of time, and unless many of these causes are otherwise disposed of the court will be occupied very closely night and day during the balance of the term. The case of William Reno vs. William S. Schock, was put upon trial this morning, this being the first case ready. This is an action for damages for the alleged obstruction of a water course. The plff. gave his title in evidence, when the Court adjourned until 11/2 p. m.

REMINISCINCES OF THE OLDEN TIME.—In "A History of Philadelphia," by Thompson Westcott, which has been running through a long series of numbers of the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch, we find the following notice of the meeting of the Quakers in this county in the "second quarter of the eighteenth con-

"In the second quarter of the eighteenth century the Society of Friends did not materially increase the number of its meeting houses in the city and county of Philadelphia. The great meeting-house at Second and Market streets, the Bank meeting in Front street, above Arch, and the meeting houses at Germantown, Fairhill, Merion, Plymouth, Oxford, Abington, Ryberry and Horsham, supplied the wants of the sect. There were added to them during this period a meeting at Maideperceek, above the present city of Reading, the precise date of the establishment of which is uncertain, and a meeting at Olay In ing, the precise date of the establishment of which is uncertain, and a meeting at Oley. In 1737 Gwynedd Monthly Meeting, Oley Monthly, and Maiden Creek Monthly, agreed to hold a joint inceting for business, "to be called Oley Monthly Meeting, and held the last fifth day in every month, except they discover occasion to remove it to another time." [Michener, Retrospect of Quakerism.] In 1742, it being found that Oley Monthly Meeting, by a division of townships, foll into Exeter township, the name was changed to Exeter Monthly Meeting."

THE Philadelphia Sunday Republic, edited by our friend, J. Robley Dunglison, says, that John A. Hiestand, Esq., of the Lancastor Examiner, is a candidate for Marshal of the Eastern district of Penna., and that Senator Cameron will urge his claims. There must be some mistake about this. The Eastern district Marshalship was disposed of months ago. Our own distinguished townsman, Maj. Geo. M. Lauman, (General by brovet) is to have it ou the score of distinguished and gallant services during the war. We are sorry to disappoint our jolly friend, Jack Hiestand—but he must put up with something else. The future well-being of the country depends upon Lauman getting the Marshalship.

The Journal states that Gent Lauman, on account of meritorious services rendered during the war, will be the next Marshal for the Eastern district of Pennsylvania. We desire to know whether our friend Knabb refers to the Mexican war or the late war. We know that Gen, Lauman had a large beef contract during Methodist Episcopal Church, South Elfth the late war, as well as a fat contract during the Mexican war. We are not aware that Gen. Lauman performed any other services, unless it was that he composed the renomination of Dury things are perhaps the very best for advertisers. What little trade is going on they advertisers. What little trade is going on they corder to make his opposition full he went to Cleveland as a delegate to the Fremont Con-Vention.

We should like to see the General receive the appointment for two reasons:

1st. Because he was formerly an ardent Democrat, and as the leaders of the Republican party always prefer life-long Democrats to members of their own party, we think that General Lauman'sclaims should be regarded. 2nd. He is a citizen of Reading, and to have

JE. Misher & Co., Reading, Pa.—Dear Sire:—
It affords me pleasure to speak of the wenderial effects of your "Pain Cure," in my own case. In June last, I was attacked with Neuragia in my abdomen and side. After suffering intensely for nearly two weeks, I was induced to try your remedy, and after at, application, to my utter supprise, I was relieved in a few seconds. So sudden was the reinef that I could searcely believe my own senses. From my knowledge of the preparation, if my believe that it will stop a in from nearly every cause and almost instantly.

Respectfully, yours.
